GUIDANCE NOTES FOR PERSONAL LICENCE APPLICATIONS

1. Change of name or address

Section 88 of the Licensing (Scotland) Act 2005 requires that a personal licence holder must, no later than one month after any change in the licence holder's name or address, give the Licensing Board which issued the licence notice of the change. It is an offence not to do so.

2. Licensing qualifications

Licensing qualifications are dealt with in section 91 of the Licensing (Scotland) Act 2005. In summary, to be eligible for a personal licence, an applicant must be aged 18 or over and possess a licensing qualification, and no personal licence previously held by the applicant must have been revoked within the period of 5 years ending within the day on which the application was received by the Licensing Board unless that licence was revoked due to a failure to undertake a refresher training.

3. Photographs

One of the photographs submitted with your application should be endorsed on the back by a person of standing in the community. This endorsement should contain the words "I certify that this is a true likeness of (name of applicant), followed by the full name of the person endorsing the photograph.

The two photographs of the applicant must –

- (i) measure 44 millimetres by 35 millimetres;
- (ii) be on photographic paper;
- (iii) be taken against a light background; and
- (iv) show the full face of the applicant, without the applicant wearing sunglasses or any head covering (unless the applicant wears such a covering on account of a religious belief)

4. Convictions

Section 75 of the Act places a duty on an applicant for a personal licence to notify the Licensing Board if he or she has been convicted of any relevant or foreign offence during the time between making the application being determined by the Licensing Board. Furthermore, section 82 of the Act requires personal licence holders to notify their Licensing Board of any conviction for relevant or foreign offences within one month of the licence holder being convicted.

Relevant offences are defined in the Licensing (Relevant Offences) Scotland Regulations 2007. Foreign offences are defined in section 129 of the Act.

5. A personal licence application or a personal licence renewal application must be made in writing or sent by electronic transmission.

6. Information on the Licensing (Scotland) Act 2005 is available on the website of the Scottish Parliament.
