6820	An individual	1e. Service Restructure of Adult Learning & Youth Services	There is not enough provision at the moment and not enough positive destinations for young people	More Choice More Chances (MCMC)	2. The respondent advised that they either did not agree or did not believe the council should consider the proposal.	West Lothian's support for MCMC pupils has proved effective at increasing numbers progressing to a positive destination. West Lothian Council has little control over the supply of positive destinations.
6821	An individual	1e. Service Restructure of Adult Learning & Youth Services	There is no incentive to encourage young people to continue their education for a better future. It is time that young people are listened to and the Government implement something like they had in place in the 80's to encourage people into employment.	More Choice More Chances (MCMC)	2. The respondent advised that they either did not agree or did not believe the council should consider the proposal.	West Lothian's support for MCMC pupils has proved effective at increasing numbers progressing to a positive destination. West Lothian Council has little control over the supply of positive destinations.
6822	An employee of West Lothian Council	1e. Service Restructure of Adult Learning & Youth Services	having experience of working with young people who become involved in anti social behaviour is seems that the majority of the young people are lacking any structure that they are happy with, they are abstracting themselves from school and the only alternative seems to be to remain on the street and causing trouble	More Choice More Chances (MCMC)	2. The respondent advised that they either did not agree or did not believe the council should consider the proposal. 6823	An individual	1e. I do not feel this service needs cut.	More Choice More Chances (MCMC)	2. The respondent advised that they either did not agree or did not believe the council should consider the proposal.	West Lothian's support for MCMC pupils has proved effective at increasing numbers progressing to a positive destination. The proposal is that this part of the service is not cut.
6824	An individual	1e. Service Restructure of Adult Learning & Youth Services	More advertising of the adult services available may allow more adults to make use of the services as they would know they are available and how to access them. This may then improve unemployment. Advertising needs to be done in different way for those who cannot read and those who don't speak English.	More Choice More Chances (MCMC)	6. This is a positive suggestion. Officers will consider how this could be developed.	Thanks you for comment. Your feedback has been noted. This is a positive suggestion. 6825	No Response	1e. Service Restructure of Adult Learning & Youth Services	I do feel helping people get to work is a great idea and especially young people but where the issues lie is not with the kids it's with the heart lazy generation you have created through spoon feeding there needs with benefits and kids are growing up to these people being there role models. Perhaps if kids seen working class living in better areas, driving better cars, going holidays, wearing nice clothes. They would aspire to reach these goals but when the working class are the poorest out of the street why would u not want to sit on the dole and skip school. It's not discriminating against anyone on benefits because a percentage have been put there through cuts like your proposals and they have been hung out to dry. The police should be working more closely with the youngsters and educating them along with the council they are the ones setting fires to destroy properties, walk ways, grassy areas swing parks. They are the ones causing fighting in the streets etc because there is no education of this is not what u do there either. There mums and dads are sitting drinking, smoking, parting on benefits and they want to do the same	More Choice More Chances (MCMC)	2. 6826	An employee of West Lothian Council	1e. Service Restructure of Adult Learning & Youth Services	MCMC seems to be a good service and one area of provision they work closely with is Steps2Work, which I believe is also a valuable service. The WomenN2Work service (personal development/employability) for adult females is also very valuable and I believe this kind of service could be rolled out to other client groups such as males, and young people. 6828	An employee of West Lothian Council	1e. 6829	No Response	1e. 6831	An individual	1e. 6834	An individual	1e. Service Restructure of Adult Learning & Youth Services	MCMC is an excellent service however schools already have SDS career advisers, transition to work coordinator's (on high salaries) and pupil support managers to support none attendees and who are able to promote reengagement. At times this service is used for children with behaviour issues which should be dealt with by the school. The schools should hold the budget and decide if they want an MCMC worker then should pay for the service by reducing high salaries in other areas.	More Choice More Chances (MCMC)	1. The respondent advised that they agree with the proposal.	The council will continue to focus on MCMC work.
6835	An employee of West Lothian Council	1e. Service Restructure of Adult Learning & Youth Services	MCMC is a great programme with a great support team involved. 6836	An employee of West Lothian Council	1e. Service Restructure of Adult Learning & Youth Services	MCMC is an invaluable service to those children that do not conform to schools perceived idea that only University and college are the natural progression from school. this service could be very useful to those young people who even although have college/uni entrance qualifications have to fight the system not to go and are therefore not given any support via the school.	More Choice More Chances (MCMC)	7. The respondent's comment was either not relevant to the question, inappropriate and/or contained personal and sensitive information. 6839	An individual	1e. Service Restructure of Adult Learning & Youth Services	Improved partnership working to support MCMC delivery	More Choice More Chances (MCMC)	6. This is a positive suggestion. 6840	An employee of West Lothian Council	1e. Service Restructure of Adult Learning & Youth Services	Close working (at early stages) is essential. There is no meaningful or effective community development support available to our disadvantaged citizens and communities. Despite CPP and WLC commitments to empowerment and community engagement - the prevailing model remains one of DAD (Decide/Announce/Defend - as exemplified by this consultation) The little that remains of former Community Development/work/education services has meant that those staff are no longer resourced or allowed to make the positive and life changing impacts they were trained for. 6857	An individual	1e. Service Restructure of Adult Learning & Youth Services	Closer working between schools and community learning partners? What does this even mean... This is not very clear but it sounds to me like MCMC is a ongoing priority which i have never heard of but if it helps youths then it must be good.	More Choice More Chances (MCMC)	1. Ultimately, this will impact the economic development of the council area as a whole and so it should not be under-funded or under-valued.	More Choice More Chances (MCMC)	1. West Lothian's support for MCMC pupils has proved effective at increasing numbers progressing to a positive destination.
6861	No Response	1e. Service Restructure of Adult Learning & Youth Services	MCMC keyworkers play a valuable role in supporting young people. 6862	An employee of West Lothian Council	1e. Service Restructure of Adult Learning & Youth Services	At a time when the Scottish Government places increasing emphasis on Positive Destinations and on schools to increase the numbers of these for their students, any attempt to cut back in terms of support for MCMC students is short sighted at best and foolish at worst. Whilst focus may be on MCMC students there are many who do not come under this umbrella who will continue to require support. Cutting back on this may well become counter productive if students are unable to secure employment/ training/ further study upon leaving school and potentially enter the Welfare System as a result.	More Choice More Chances (MCMC)	1. The respondent advised that they agree with the proposal.	The proposal is to retain MCMC provision. West Lothian's support for MCMC pupils has proved effective at increasing numbers progressing to a positive destination.

6866	On behalf of a Group/Organisation	1e. Service Restructure of Adult Learning & Youth Services	Why has the council decided to focus on this one area of work, what evidence is there to support that the MCMC programme has the greatest impact and on whom? What community groups will be directly affected by this saving, more specific information is required to answer specifically how this saving will impact on those with varying disabilities and the wider equality groups. 6867	No Response	1e. Service Restructure of Adult Learning & Youth Services	I understand that More Choices More Chances key workers provide intensive support to identified young people and cover all 11 mainstream secondary schools and this is to be applauded. However valuable work is also undertaken by voluntary organisations. In Linlithgow LYPP provides an excellent service and has recently taken on an outreach programme. I am sure that the Linlithgow community would be devastated were funding to LYPP to be reduced or withdrawn. Adult learning is vital I would oppose any cuts in this area. 6870	An individual	1e. Service Restructure of Adult Learning & Youth Services	Agree with MCMC being a focus but there are many other vital services that students need for their health and well being - schools are neither equipped or have staff with the necessary training to assist all young people in every aspect of their lives. This is detrimental to the citizens of West Lothian as young people and then as adults in our community.	More Choice More Chances (MCMC)	2. 6879	An employee of West Lothian Council	1e. 6880	An employee of West Lothian Council	1e. Service Restructure of Adult Learning & Youth Services	McMc is a great programme. My child has mental issues and been out of secondary school for the past near four years. McMc have been involved with my child, but at moment my child is not in the position to even think about education. But the fact that MCMC are still accessible to my child is a great relief. Once my child's mental health issues and difficulties are dealt with then the fact that knowing MCMC workers are there to help is a great help. My child is currently classed as being in xxx at xxxx Academy. She may end up a few years behind her peers doing qualifications, going to college or Uni. But the fact she has access to MCMC is a great thing on our part as parents. 6896	An individual	1e. Service Restructure of Adult Learning & Youth Services	Adult and youth services are valuable to young people, in particular those in more deprived areas. They allow them to access services and information they may not otherwise. Reducing team sizes will again put pressure on headteachers as more will be expected of them in terms of working with CLD services. Again, this needs to be fully risk assessed. No cost saving can be made at the detriment of the staff delivering services, this would have the opposite effect than what the council is looking to achieve. ESOL services are more important than they have ever been, the number of people who either don't have any English or only a small amount need to be able to live and work in our communities. This service is one I would like to see at very least maintain it's funding. Having less access to ESOL services will make people feel more isolated and will have a negative impact on community integration and tolerance. People need to communicate to be able to access services, they will not if this service is reduced.	More Choice More Chances (MCMC)	2. 6900	An individual	1e. Service Restructure of Adult Learning & Youth Services	I see no evidence that MCMC makes a real difference ...the amount of resources and £ spent would be better used at an early intervention stage . I sit on the Children's Panel and see far too many kids that barely attend school yet WLC does not use the powers available to step in quickly and secure their attendanceyet you are quick enough to send out letters if a parent takes a child (who has otherwise perfect attendance) for a day or 2 off school for a special holiday . early intervention will help children benefit from routines and boundaries and above all an education that will fit them well for the future challenges of finding work in adulthood please don't reduce the youth service in all our kids clubs in our communities I am dismayed and indeed disgusted that very little value seems to be given to youth services . The services are critical to engaging with the young people in our communities and to help shape them into valuable citizens for future . The clubs and groups foster inter race , religion and cultural diversity . They do great work in teaching about all subjects ...from healthy eating and exercise , to community projects such as our own Armadale War Memorial fundraising group ...the club learned about the war memorial and the names of the 152 who are named on the memorialthe kids used enterprise skills , worked as individuals and as groups and raised almost £800 for the memorial . At Christmas they attend the Old Folks residential places and entertain with songsthey are off the streets and actively participating in community beneficial activities . Please, please don't take this away from them ...they are the future lifeblood of West Lothian . perhaps look to reduce the seas of white (and other colours !) pool cars that I see parked up ...never movingsurely a high cost of leases . I photograph them every time I am at the Civic entre ...the ones that are there when I arrive to sit on the Children's Panel are still there when I leave many hours later ...what's the average mileage per car ? I am also concerned to see the massive rise in senior posts of salary 50k and over ...an increase of 36% at the same time a drastic reduction in front line operatives ...eg NETS -20.4%....does the term too many chiefs and not enough Indians not ring true ? 6901	An individual	1e. Service Restructure of Adult Learning & Youth Services	MCMC work is supported by other teams across the council, all of which contribute to young people's attendance, achievement, attainment and positive destinations. There is no concrete evidence that the service makes its greatest impact through MCMC alone, as suggested in the above statement. Young people's participation in other youth work activities such as youth clubs, doing accreditation through Duke of Edinburgh's Award, JASS, YYA, youth forums, youth exchange programmes, school work and sports clubs support positive destinations. Closing other youth activities is short sighted. Young people and adults with disabilities are going to be impacted by the proposals. Adequate skills knowledge and expertise needs to be retained to drive any new changes forward strategically and operationally. Equality Impact Assessment.	More Choice More Chances (MCMC)	2. 6909	An employee of West Lothian Council	1e. Service Restructure of Adult Learning & Youth Services	I think that the MCMC service has been extremely beneficial in improving the positive outcomes for children and young people when they leave school, which suggests to me that it is a crucial investment for the council in terms of improving employment figures for the authority and subsequently reducing the poverty gap. Service Restructure of Adult Learning & Youth Services	Although I recognise the value and benefits of the McMc approach, this process starts in the later stages of a Child's education, Early Intervention and prevention is also absolutely essential. 6911	On behalf of a Group/Organisation	1e. Service Restructure of Adult Learning & Youth Services	If Children's and Youth work is lost, we will have more young people isolated and not excelling in skills outwith the core educational curriculum, Literacy and numeracy, which although vital, does not alone create confident, aspiring and fulfilled young people in our communities. There are opportunities to attract external funding and develop further partnership with the third sector and through Social Enterprise work to ensure that our children and young people achieve maximum potential. As chair of West Lothian's Children and Young People's Third sector forum, I and colleagues would welcome the opportunity to contribute to any Strategy redevelopment of services in this area. Our agency has recently developed a funding strategy to attract funding externally from the council and to look at ways to restructure our organisation to maximise investment, therefore reducing reliance on Council funding. This takes time, therefore we would welcome a staged approach to any cuts made in the area. Opportunities are available to reduce funding from council into this area of work but require open partnership discussions. The fear of job losses does not create a good culture for this to take place at times. I hope the Value of Youth work and targeted interventions with young people are not de-valued. 6923	On behalf of a Group/Organisation	1e. 6925	An individual	1e. Service Restructure of Adult Learning & Youth Services	I agree that supporting a programme that has been demonstrated to have an impact makes sense. The respondent advised that they agree with the proposal.	West Lothian's support for MCMC pupils has proved effective at increasing numbers progressing to a positive destination.
6926	An individual	1e. Service Restructure of Adult Learning & Youth Services	Having worked with MCMC personally, i find this this service is be continued ithas to be better managed and supervised. The workers chose when and when not to engage and are can be very discouraging to the young people and the carers , If this service cannot be improved then it should be discontinued or vastly improved. 6927	An employee of West Lothian Council	1e. The Youth Inclusion Project offer a persistent keyworker approach and have taken on a number of young people who have either not been offered a service, or the service has been withdrawn. There has to be a better way of integrating these services.	More Choice More Chances (MCMC)	2. 6929	An employee of West Lothian Council	1e. Service Restructure of Adult Learning & Youth Services	Given the amount of illiteracy within the younger population it is important to have facilities on offer that encourage people to read and write as this could have a wider impact on their wellbeing and future life.	More Choice More Chances (MCMC)	4. The council is already doing this.	Literacy and numeracy are a key feature in school.

6934	An individual	1e. Service Restructure of Adult Learning & Youth Services	Youth clubs and children's clubs and CLD practitioners should not be cut as they enable YP to live! They also serve an important part of society. Question for WLC - Without CLD youth services we will not meet GIRFEC, national YW outcomes, no safeguarding, kids on streets - unsafe, no community, destroy sense of community, no inter-generational work, no DoF. There is disrespect in this section to children, young people, workers, volunteers, parents, guardians, families and work with our hardest to reach in society. It's simply abhorrent. I am in shock at the disgrace thinking even to attempt to cut this area. Shame on all involved. Anger reigns in West Lothian and in turn this is not positive on people's health - shame! MCMC do a good job however not to the detriment of CLD youth & children's services mainstream work it's a different service	More Choice More Chances (MCMC)	2. 6935	On behalf of a Group/Organisation	1e. Service Restructure of Adult Learning & Youth Services	We understand that More Choice More Chances key workers provide intensive support to individual identified young people and cover all 11 mainstream secondary schools and this is to be applauded. However valuable work is also undertaken by voluntary organisations, in Linlithgow LYPP, and we trust that this will continue to be supported. We would oppose basing youth services on only MCMC. Adult learning is vital we would oppose any cuts in this area.	More Choice More Chances (MCMC)	2. 6937	On behalf of a Group/Organisation	1e. Service Restructure of Adult Learning & Youth Services	Does this mean the children/young people's clubs will no longer be supported by the council? If this is the case, have you considered that the success of MCMC is due to the positive impact the "youth" clubs have had. 6943	An individual	1e. Service Restructure of Adult Learning & Youth Services	Look at support from your local employers. Apprentice schemes and early industry career mapping and in-house training (the banks used to be good at this) remove the need in many cases for tertiary education which quite often leads to students accessing 'university' courses with no clear career target in mind. If you can direct students (fully literate and numerate students) to an early pathway to employment you reduce the burden on education staffing and give youngsters an income. 6980	An employee of West Lothian Council	1e. Service Restructure of Adult Learning & Youth Services	MCMC sounds very worthwhile and hopefully there is sound evidence to suggest that participants in this programme will have improved outlooks and contribute positively to society, therefore reducing future council spending. Its very important that non English speaking citizens are able to access classes easily and I believe it is essential to ensure they can become part of the wider community. I have come across a lot of children in WLC schools who have English as a 2nd language and still struggle to communicate despite being here for a number of years. This doesn't benefit anyone. 6992	An individual	1e. I know many who went to university without really knowing why. I know people who panicked but couldn't figure out how to get a job or what job, or post-school occupation. 6999	An individual	1e. 7000	An employee of West Lothian Council	1e. Service Restructure of Adult Learning & Youth Services	Of course MCMC is vital but there is so much more to working with school aged children than this. Youth work in its broadest sense enriches lives by giving young people experiences, opportunities, ideas and motivations they didn't know existed. Youth work through projects and club's give young people a safe place where they can learn, engage, interact, access role models, be role models, choose, explore and be themselves. There are 12 year olds who cannot identify a cucumber, 15 year olds who think once you go over the forth road bridge you are in England, and young girls who think having a baby will get you forever love, happiness and a house - Youth work can help to address this. The breadth of learning experiences a young person gets through youth work is so varied and meets THEIR needs but unfortunately very hard to quantify. These experiences can lead to improved life choices, healthier lifestyles, increased confidence, safer choices that can impact on community safety and of course employability and attainment. Many of these experiences are provided at a much reduced cost which helps to close the gap between the rich and poor and begins to address the inequality in our communities. Youth work also values young people who otherwise might be overlooked because they don't get good grades etc, young people have a chance to shine and are recognised for it through accreditation and internal awards. Personally it is my greatest ambition to raise my children to experience new things, have the confidence to explore, the motivation to try but what if I don't have the skills, resources or funds to make this happen, just accept they will miss out??? I have seen parents weep with gratitude that their child is attending a weekend away or a meal in a restaurant, I've seen a p7 talk about their best memory being an overnight at lowport when they were in p3. I've seen a child take home a pizza they've made in a club and the parent says wow that has just saved me a fiver I didn't have. I've seen my youth workers tell a parent their child is being bullied and help them come up with a plan, I've heard a young person telling me I'VE changed their life. Please do not take youth work away, invest in it!!	More Choice More Chances (MCMC)	2. The respondent advised that they either did not agree or did not believe the council should consider the proposal.	The Council will continue to produce a statutory CLD plan, to be delivered through the learning community partnerships centred of non-denominational secondary schools, with a focus on partnership working between schools and the third sector.
7001	An individual	1e. Service Restructure of Adult Learning & Youth Services	As 1A - Excellent if all of the above are carried out. However on current personally experienced performance it will take a huge effort to even provide an improvement. Further why has the "efficiency and effectiveness" not been applied to current procedures. No real criteria to be reach is actually stated and the starting point for these "efficiency and effectiveness" upgrade to services is not evident. Vagueness in targets to achieve. How will residents know when this is achieved?	More Choice More Chances (MCMC)	1. The respondent advised that they agree with the proposal.	Residents will know this has been carried out is projected savings are achieved whilst maintaining those parts of the service identified.
7002	An individual	1e. Service Restructure of Adult Learning & Youth Services	Giving all young people the opportunity to gain experience of the self disciplines necessary for either employment or further education is very important both to the individual and to the community. I have no experience of the MCMC programme, but I do have experience of the StepsN2Work scheme - as utilised in the retail (specifically independent booksellers environment) and this has very successful enabled several young troubled "school drop-outs" gain confidence and be inspired to go back into further education and be great examples of how the right combination of WLC sponsored scheme - yields great results. Similarly I have long (successful and rewarding) experience of employing Technical apprentices both in WLC (at Cameron/Wyman Gordon) and in several other companies within the UK - I would advocate these schemes - are key elements in a successful Youth Policy. 7008	An individual	1e. Service Restructure of Adult Learning & Youth Services	Education remains the best enabler to employment and out of poverty. It also encourages and enables positive choices. 7009	An employee of West Lothian Council	1e. Service Restructure of Adult Learning & Youth Services	Whilst many adolescents are not staying in full time education or moving into employment EMA funding should not be paid just to entice these people to stay in education as they are not gaining from this and are draining the public purse. If people who do stay in further education need financial assistance then the way in which this cash is spent should be closely monitored as it's widely abused. It's all very well training people for employment but the jobs are simply not there to be had.	More Choice More Chances (MCMC)	8. 7012	An individual	1e. Service Restructure of Adult Learning & Youth Services	working with targeted audiences is essential to improve employment for young people in West Lothian. 7014	No Response	1e. Service Restructure of Adult Learning & Youth Services	There is a need to support the Youth, as it is challenging for the young people these days in securing a job/career due to the lack of vacancies. This can be quite demoralising for them, especially if they have left school and the Job Centre puts pressures on people to secure a job. As they are given targets/deadlines which impacts on any benefits they are entitled to. There needs to be better communication for the Youth, to explain all of the above and give them guidelines	More Choice More Chances (MCMC)	2. 7021	An employee of West Lothian Council	1e. Service Restructure of Adult Learning & Youth Services	I would hope that the informal learning opportunities that children and young people are provided with through youth services will not be cut, as they provide children with diversionary activities in the community, provide them with the chance to meet other young people with a common purpose and goal. This may be the only social interaction young people get as it is free, and in their local community.	More Choice More Chances (MCMC)	2. 7023	An employee of West Lothian Council	1e. The Council will continue to produce a statutory CLD plan, to be delivered through the learning community partnerships centred of non-denominational secondary schools, with a focus on partnership working between schools and the third sector.
7024	An employee of West Lothian Council	1e. Service Restructure of Adult Learning & Youth Services	Lipreading is a vital communication skill which helps with isolation and brings people back into society. Lipreading should not be thought of as a leisure activity or hobby, but as a definable skill that can be acquired and developed, as found in the Action for Hearing loss report titled "Not just lip service" In funding the work of the Scottish Lipreading Strategy Group between 2012 -2014 the Scottish Government acknowledged that learning to lipread plays an important role in helping people to manage their hearing loss, as well as improving communication, health and wellbeing. Therefore I deem lipreading to fall under the Statutory Services for Adult Learning. By continuing to supply lipreading classes in West Lothian the council would be supporting people to live well and have greater choice and independence. In conclusion I feel that given the fractional percentage of the overall educational budget that providing vital Lipreading classes would require, alongside the real difference it makes to the quality of vulnerable people's lives it offers good value for money.	More Choice More Chances (MCMC)	6. This is a positive suggestion. Officers will consider how this could be developed.	Thank you for your comment which will be considered as part of any service redesign
7025	An individual	1e. Service Restructure of Adult Learning & Youth Services	I think that adult learners should have to pay for English lessons or alternatively we should look at once we have taught them for free then they need to volunteer for x amount of hours to help someone else. There should be an expectation that when people come to live and work in the UK that they have a basic level of English. Perhaps there would be retired people who would be willing to teach adult learners for free. I agree with this proposal	More Choice More Chances (MCMC)	2. The proposal is not about ASN schools.
7041	An individual	1e. Service Restructure of Adult Learning & Youth Services	I feel that we should be concentrating on youth services to keep children off the street. I feel there needs to be an emphasis on employment and education with West Lothian's young people. I do not agree with half days on a Friday within schools.	More Choice More Chances (MCMC)	2. The respondent advised that they either did not agree or did not believe the council should consider the proposal.	The Council will continue to produce a statutory CLD plan, to be delivered through the learning community partnerships centred of non-denominational secondary schools, with a focus on partnership working between schools and the third sector.

7042	An individual	1e. Service Restructure of Adult Learning & Youth Services	The emphasis needs to be on self management and employability to help young people be responsible for their choices and also the consequences of these. More Skilled to Go courses and other vocational short courses to give an idea of what the world of work entails. Youth work provision is of value if it is targeted and challenges attitudes. The Council will continue to produce a statutory CLD plan, to be delivered through the learning community partnerships centred of non-denominational secondary schools, with a focus on partnership working between schools and the third sector. West Lothian's support for MCMC pupils has proved effective at increasing numbers progressing to a positive destination. The Council works in partnership to maximise opportunities for work experience, training, apprenticeships etc.
7043	An individual	1e. Service Restructure of Adult Learning & Youth Services	Really important to have a combination of youth work services and not put your eggs all in one basket! With regard to Adult Learning - I personally would be devastated if this was removed. I have been involved in adult learning provision for over 4 years now and it keeps my brain active, has improved my confidence and has helped me with my medical condition. In fact I feel that there should be a wider range of adult learning opportunities available as over the past few years community classes and classes available in such as the Schools/community centres has been sadly depleted. What is classed as "statutory" adult learning ?? Not enough information available to us as to what your intentions are in this area.	More Choice More Chances (MCMC)	2. 7045	An employee of West Lothian Council	1e. Service Restructure of Adult Learning & Youth Services	English as a second language is a vital resource in our schools. Teachers have students in front of them who cannot access the curriculum. Please do not cut any further this vital service.	More Choice More Chances (MCMC)	4. The council is already doing this.	The Council will meet its obligations in terms of ESOL. There are many benefits to society of ensuring residents have appropriate communication skills.
7046	No Response	1e. Service Restructure of Adult Learning & Youth Services	Again, a crucial service. So many of our young people would be at a great disadvantage if these services were to be affected.	More Choice More Chances (MCMC)	2. 7047	An employee of West Lothian Council	1e. Service Restructure of Adult Learning & Youth Services	I am pleased to read the comments and the recognition of the work of the MCMC team, I am part of this team and has been a pleasure to support our young people move forward to achieving their goals and aspirations and seeing and believing their own potential. I work on the Skills Training Programme and which has supported many young people gain valuable work experience within the council and other companies, life skills and also gaining a further West Lothian Employability Award qualification which they are very proud of as are we. This has been achieved through working closely as a team and working in partnership with the Health Inclusion Team (providing a cook to support our young people in health cooking and life skills) and the impact of our life coach delivering Releasing your Potential [REDACTED] We also work in joint partnership with other departments within the council to support our young people break down their barriers and external partners when is appropriate for the young person; without this partnership working our young people wouldn't achieve what they have. What has been fabulous is the young people coming back and letting us know how well they have been doing, not just about moving them onto a positive destination but they are sustaining them too and many of the young people have said our programme has been life changing for them. I have worked in employability services all of my working life and been working in West Lothian for the past 4 years and thoroughly enjoy my job all be it a very difficult and demanding job but I see a team with a passion for supporting our young people see their potential, achieve their goals and continue to move towards their achieving their aspirations. I have worked in Careers in the past for many years, worked as a Careers Adviser and Key Worker and experienced and witnessed the excellent work and outcomes delivered by offering a Key Worker Led Model. In my many years experience of working in various areas of Guidance and Employability and the changes it has presented I feel the MCMC Team in West Lothian offers a crucial service to the young people of West Lothian and we all work closely together to provide an excellent and valuable service. STP offers an excellent opportunity to the young people of West Lothian and I have previous colleagues in other areas who wish they had a programme like the Skills Training Programme to refer to (this works because of the make up of the team, how it is delivered; life skills and personal development and the partnership working within the MCMC team, departments within the council and external partners and agencies) There has also been excellent partnership working with other staff in Youth Services and Adult	More Choice More Chances (MCMC)	1. 7048	An individual	1e. Service Restructure of Adult Learning & Youth Services	This is an important area of service, and should be supported. I am not clear from the above what would be lost from existing provision, and the impact of such changes.	More Choice More Chances (MCMC)	2. 7049	An employee of West Lothian Council	1e. More Choice More Chances (MCMC)	1. The respondent advised that they agree with the proposal.	It is proposed that MCMC provision is maintained.
7050	An employee of West Lothian Council	1e. Service Restructure of Adult Learning & Youth Services	This programme is a good idea but not an essential service. Instead of staff being paid additional money to deliver this programme it could be built in to the school day.	More Choice More Chances (MCMC)	6. This is a positive suggestion. 7202	An employee of West Lothian Council	1e. Service Restructure of Adult Learning & Youth Services	as a sessional part time youth worker I get no extra allowances or overtime, unless I cover an extra club. We only work during school terms. Any summer clubs we do are covered by our local community centre funding courtesy of our Comm Ed Worker. There is talk that youth clubs for all ages could be asked to be funded by local community centre management commitees. If this was the case club weekly prices would have to go up, and there is the concern of insurance and if any child was injured say who would be responsible. Parents in the clubs I do would not be willing to pay say £5.00 for an hour and a half or two hours. I work in deprived areas in West Lothian. A price hike would result in a lot of the young people I work with not being able to come to youth clubs.	Service Restructure of Adult Learning & Youth Services (general)	6. This is a positive suggestion. Officers will consider how this could be developed.	The Council will continue to produce a statutory CLD plan, to be delivered through the learning community partnerships centred of non-denominational secondary schools, with a focus on partnership working between schools and the third sector.
7203	An individual	1e. Service Restructure of Adult Learning & Youth Services	Children's clubs/youth clubs promote self esteem, team building and a safe place to learn, have fun meet friends - sometimes the only time in a week for some kids/young people. Do not do away with clubs for children/young people.	Service Restructure of Adult Learning & Youth Services (general)	2. The respondent advised that they either did not agree or did not believe the council should consider the proposal. 7204	An individual	1e. Service Restructure of Adult Learning & Youth Services	I have 3 children - 2 currently in school and one baby. My children participate weekly in youth clubs activities organised by West Lothian Council although these activities are structured and keeping our kids off the street. These clubs are at risk of losing funding. These activities run for the school term and give the kids an opportunity to play with their friends in a safe and organised environment. During the holidays they provide classes on a weekly basis usually 4 days in classes and playing games and doing sporting activities and the final day doing a group day out. My children look forward to this greatly and as it is subsidised by the club often they are trips that I wouldn't be able to take them to on my own. My kids have participated in a youth club since primary 1 and till look forward to a Friday for club now. Please don't cut their funding the kids need these safe environment to play in more so now than ever.	Service Restructure of Adult Learning & Youth Services (general)	2. 7207	No Response	1e. Service Restructure of Adult Learning & Youth Services	The responsibility for learning English as a second language should be on the individual and/or their family. 7211	No Response	1e. Service Restructure of Adult Learning & Youth Services	I personally don't feel the council should be spending money educating people the English language I feel people of other languages should have to pay for these services them self, Or at minimum contribute towards this, or at Least pay it back over time when they are working to re fund the service for others. 7212	An individual	1e. 7213	An individual	1e. Service Restructure of Adult Learning & Youth Services	As previously mentioned, I feel that the assistance given to immigrants who are learning English as a second language must continue to be supported. The respondent advised that they either did not agree or did not believe the council should consider the proposal.	The Council will meet its obligations in terms of ESOL. 7214	An individual	1e. Service Restructure of Adult Learning & Youth Services	A lot of resource wasted in this area. Particularly, employability services and into work programmes for over 20's. The Council is working through the Developing the Young Workforce Board to promote these sort of positive outcomes.
7215	An individual	1e. Service Restructure of Adult Learning & Youth Services	Why is English as a second language provided free through the council? 7216	An individual	1e. Service Restructure of Adult Learning & Youth Services	If this area is cut there will be a larger number of young adults in unemployment. 7220	An employee of West Lothian Council	1e. Service Restructure of Adult Learning & Youth Services	Youth services - create a baseline for communities - one youth club one childrens club if cutting International youth work - Exchanges - although they are of great importance in the world of travel work and engagement in Europe do this not to the detriment of local services being slashed. Start putting value and recognition of CLD practitioners and the work they do. By cutting this will add to loss in communities. Breaking down communication barriers - ESOL - if this is cut again the barrier will grow in communities not get broken down - not a good idea. Do not cut Childrens services in CLD this was attempted before and the decision was turned around by politicians, councillors etc. Please put the value on play that it deserves. We had a West Lothian Council - Play strategy produced by xxxxx and xxxxx was paid off (fix term contract ended not renewed - no sustainability!!!!) and it has sat on a shelf since. 7222	An individual	1e. Service Restructure of Adult Learning & Youth Services	I understand that the adult and youth services were separate entities and that neither has a statutory basis. I do not agree that the main focus of the youth service should be mcmc and work with schools only The mainstream youth and childrens club provision which provides alternative activities in our communities is valuable and important as it provides a net which many children need to develop and avoid anti social activities. nearly every community has one or two of these clubs	Service Restructure of Adult Learning & Youth Services (general)	2. 7226	An individual	1e. Service Restructure of Adult Learning & Youth Services	What about younger kids? There are proposals for early learning and also for the kids who are ready to leave school but nothing for the kids in between. Again i would go back to my previous comments. Doing youth work I can see the benefits when kids move to high school who have been involved in local clubs delivered by youth work staff. Generally they settle in quicker, not as many issues with behaviour, very aware of their community. It does not make sense to put all the eggs in one basket. Early intervention is still required with this in between age group.	Service Restructure of Adult Learning & Youth Services (general)	6. This is a positive suggestion. 7286	An employee of West Lothian Council	1e. Service Restructure of Adult Learning & Youth Services	I have concerns that the mainstream work which will be lost here will mean an increase in the number of young people who then require the more intensive services. 7304	An employee of West Lothian Council	1e. 7314	An employee of West Lothian Council	1e. Service Restructure of Adult Learning & Youth Services	Bear in mind : socio-economic duty; community empowerment legislation, CLD Regulations etc. - all statutory requirements of local govt. These proposals exemplify an on-going attack on the poorest and most vulnerable families and citizens in West Lothian and reflect a damning failure on the part of West Lothian Council and its partners to redress intergenerational disadvantage and poverty (c.f (NON) regeneration areas. Over the past 10 years much research has robustly evidenced that institutions decisions (including local govt.) have had a disproportionality negative impact upon the poor. 7316	An individual	1e. Service Restructure of Adult Learning & Youth Services	Too many young adults look upon college as an opt-out from actually seeking employment, and then disrupt the learning of those wanting to better themselves by their behaviour in class, being unwilling to meet reasonable deadlines for work due, and poor attendance (all meaning that they then tie-up Teaching resources to 'get back on track' and those students actually seeking attainment are neglected) . Bursaries and grants should be dependant on attainment and behaviours, not handed out without constraints. They should be administered (or withheld) over the length of the course and NEVER paid upfront/in advance. Students repeatedly lacking any desire to achieve should be excluded and moneys returned to central coffers - with a proviso that they need to perform some perfunctory community service before they are allowed to sign up for another course - to prove they have changed their ways! 7324	An employee of West Lothian Council	1e. Service Restructure of Adult Learning & Youth Services	I am a part time youth worker and this is a vital service for young people in West Lothian. I do children's work in Blackridge and the young people not only come along for fun it's a safe haven for some. Having young people come to the youth clubs early on increases the chances of making changes early. The youth clubs I have worked in have great numbers of young people who use the service so it is needed in the community.	Service Restructure of Adult Learning & Youth Services (general)	2. 7325	An individual	1e. Service Restructure of Adult Learning & Youth Services	I am unclear on this proposal. Does this include youth services in terms of youth club provision as this service is essential to capture children as early as possible, otherwise it's a lost opportunity. In areas of social and financial deprivation children's clubs play an essential role. Villages such as Stoneburn have no paths in or out of the village, hence the important role of community centres and youth work. Without these facilities the children would have no other accessible facility to suit their age and stage.	Service Restructure of Adult Learning & Youth Services (general)	2. 7334	An employee of West Lothian Council	1e. Service Restructure of Adult Learning & Youth Services	Keeping young people in some sort of education that cannot cope with mainstream would prevent placements outwith WLC saving the council money. 7338	No Response	1e. Service Restructure of Adult Learning & Youth Services	I believe the impact of CLD Youth Services must not be overlooked. As a Member of Scottish Parliament, I would not have had access to numerous opportunities I have had due to the support of CLD Youth Services. Furthermore, the Youth clubs and groups run by CLD Youth Services are crucial in giving young people a safe place to develop and socialise. Finally, though there are several other triumphs I could list, CLD Youth Services are currently restructuring the Youth Participation structure in West Lothian. This restructure is underpinned by a wide consultation outlining what young people want. The participation body this will result in is important for democracy and is a symbol that West Lothian values the views of it's young people in a meaningful way. 7340	An employee of West Lothian Council	1e. Service Restructure of Adult Learning & Youth Services	The authority is accepting more and more EAL pupils on a regular basis. These pupils need thorough time and teaching to ensure that they can access the curriculum, attain, get a job, provide for their families, be healthy, stay out of crime - West Lothian's priorities. How are we going to deal with the rapid and ever increasing amount of EAL pupils with a smaller team?	Service Restructure of Adult Learning & Youth Services (general)	4. 7341	An employee of West Lothian Council	1e. Service Restructure of Adult Learning & Youth Services	ESOL is already not offered on a broad enough basis for the amount of pupils in our school system who do not communicate well in English. This should be higher up the list of the priorities, instead of being reduced. Opportunities to better use school staff already qualified to deliver this should be looked at - several language teachers (and indeed other specialists) already can and have offered this before and are currently needed for "cover" so often that there is no time to apply their skills in this way.	Service Restructure of Adult Learning & Youth Services (general)	6. This is a positive suggestion. Officers will consider how this could be developed. 7342	An employee of West Lothian Council	1e. 7344	No Response	1e. Service Restructure of Adult Learning & Youth Services	I work for the west Lothian youth action project we have been the longest serving provider of youth services in west Lothian. In every area and community through out. We have often seen vital funds from council diverted from us to other projects of council provision. The need for voluntary sector organisations is important as we often take the cases from social work police yip and mcmc workers who have ran out of ideas what to do with the young people they refer to us. It's this simple you reduce our funding take the groups of kids work with them then pass them to us expecting us to still pick up the referral and cover the cost without the funding we previously had for that piece of work. Innoarticular supporting in schools one to one and early intervention we provide a service that is not funded by any wic our that sends the referral to us. More money needs provided to the partnership orgs council use like mine at the youth action project. We habe 39k cut from ours this year. Staff have lost 1 weeks holiday and had a pay freeze since 2009 to keep withing the budgets provided from council core funding. While agencies like mcmc and yip where born off our work receive funds we NEED To work with the at risk kids they can't engage with. Collaboration needs improved in shared funds and resources. 7345	An individual	1e. Service Restructure of Adult Learning & Youth Services	Youth services are not just about getting young people into education, work or training. Service Restructure of Adult Learning & Youth Services	From experience, community learning partners are only valuable at school level if they understand the curriculum before offering their services. I do not want to disparage these partners, as their offer of help is extremely generous, however, in many cases, these 'real-life skills' workshops tend to be a rehash of subjects covered in the main school curriculum and do not add anything to the pupils' education (one would argue that due to the time out of class, they could be detrimental in some cases)	Service Restructure of Adult Learning & Youth Services (general)	2. Especially the youth in west lothian who seem to turn to crime more and more, theft, vandalism, throwing stones at cars at dark hours - no cutting is needed but more attention, more resources and creating affordable access to clubs, education, gyms and other activity that poor families get the same opportunity to send their kids... even fund it for them - as that's what creates more poverty and crime in the west lothian. 7388	No Response	1e. Service Restructure of Adult Learning & Youth Services	This reads like the Youth Services provision will no longer exist and will be replace by non degree qualified MCMC workers who may engage with young people but they certainly do not have the same theory, knowledge and understanding of a qualified Community Education Worker. No reference is made to the provision of main stream and focused youth work (provided by Youth Services) which fills me with fear - if children have no where to go to meet with peers in a safe informal setting it will be to the detriment of the young people in our county. The saving is given but not the current spend, or the cost required to achieve the 4 million, or the time for return on investment. I am puzzled that after 10 years of cuts the service is thought to still have enough fat to achieve this saving without impact on service. There is a lot of building going on in WL. If the current funding (even with the resulting increase in council tax) is not sufficient to cater for the increased population this expansion should be stopped, or the developers charged to cover the cost. 7395	An individual	1e. Service Restructure of Adult Learning & Youth Services	Adult learning provides lipreading classes for deaf and hard of hearing people in west Lothian. I am shocked to see that services such as these to support people with disabilities are being considered non-essential. I would like to ask the question why the council proposes to support English classes for non-English speakers in favour of lip-reading classes. Surely classes to support basic communication skills in society should be accessible and available to all. It is not just non-English speakers who face communication barriers. Possibly the council is unaware of the lifeline that these classes provide. These classes teach skills which assist deaf and hard of hearing people to communicate in all aspects of daily life. In addition, it provides a support network and essential information about services which are available to deaf people such as communication aids, access to work, fire safety, understanding hearing loss, information about hearing aids, cochlear implants and deaf counselling services to name but a few. These classes provide more than just communication support and are available to people of all ages and all backgrounds. Is the council aware that social isolation, depression, mental health issues and unemployment are frequently associated with deafness as a direct result of a persons inability to communicate with those around them? As a young deafened adult these classes have provided me with essential support and have ultimately provided information and skills which have assisted me to stay in employment. I therefore consider this an essential and important service which should be supported and maintained.	Service Restructure of Adult Learning & Youth Services (general)	6. 7399	An individual	1e. Service Restructure of Adult Learning & Youth Services	While it is welcomed that the council have a commitment to MCMC service, the reality is that the lack of commitment from the council to support community partners has had an impact on the opportunities that are in existence, e.g. The loss of BLES training and the closure of Cafe Mistura in Broxburn. It is a concern that EAL and adult learning are going to be reduced as "Life Long Learning" is an important principle as many adults often seek a second chance at education due to different circumstances when they were younger. Also, council hasn't made it clear how they are going to provide greater opportunities for helping young people and adults with disabilities, including learning , social and emotional as well as physical move into employment. 7401	An individual	1e. Service Restructure of Adult Learning & Youth Services	Generally agree but the details would be more helpful! Please don't cut all adult education e.g. the lip reading classes. They are a lifeline and prevent social isolation for adults with deafness. I'd rather you cut the English as a second language class for those who want to work here. 7421	On behalf of a Group/Organisation	1e. Service Restructure of Adult Learning & Youth Services	We have concerns about the total removal of generic youth work as we see this as a valuable resource to improve the education, social skills of young people in informal settings. Youth clubs within local centres provide opportunities for young people to socialise, gather knowledge and improve their skills in a safe place and we believe help reduce antisocial behaviour and operate out of school hours. We believe that youth work provision must be balanced and give young people have a variety of opportunities to engage with young people. Staff within these services often link in with other organisations, including our own charity to work in partnership in developing resources and implementing new approaches all designed to improve the outcomes and life chances of young people. If this staffing resource is lost, then there will also be a reduction in the opportunities for partnership working.	Service Restructure of Adult Learning & Youth Services (general)	2. 7427	No Response	1e. Service Restructure of Adult Learning & Youth Services	It needs to be mandatory that anyone allowed to settle in this country speaks our language - funding coming directly from the Scottish exec with contributions made by the immigrants. 7430	An individual	1e. Service Restructure of Adult Learning & Youth Services	Why should it be the councils responsibility to provide tuition on English as a Second Language. This is not an area that would be supported by any other country. If immigrants choose to come to an English speaking country then surely it is there own responsibility to learn the language. 7446	An employee of West Lothian Council	1e. Service Restructure of Adult Learning & Youth Services	This will have an impact on access to statutory services and other efficiency savings - e.g. channel shift. If learners aren't giving support to function more independently, there will be a greater support need from other council services. Likewise, current youth work helps young people avoid needing support through MCMC. Consideration could be given to introducing some element of charging for Adult Learning classes, in particular for adults who are post working age. Currently about one quarter of IT Learners and three quarters of lipreading learners are over 65. Introducing charging to cover tutor costs may be an alternative to removing provision for these learners altogether. Charging for lipreading already exists in other local authority areas. 7447	An employee of West Lothian Council	1e. Service Restructure of Adult Learning & Youth Services	There needs to be a clear review of the needs of individual service needs rather than a blanket approach which then impacts on service users. If this class was discontinued they would be more isolated and depressed. Having the class has enabled them to regain their confidence and self worth. I don't consider this class to be a leisure pursuit but a necessity. If the class was to close it would be willing to pay something towards the cost of this service. 7453	An individual	1e. Service Restructure of Adult Learning & Youth Services	Adult learning is so important. Covering young adults with help to get into employment right up to Adults with disabilities. Lip reading classes cover a wide range of skills, not only lip reading but social aspects have to cope in health appointment saving having to have a note taker or interpreter. Deafness is a noticeable disability unless you are born deaf. There is little or no help. Having been part of the hearing world you are isolated and withdrawn leading to depression. Lip reading is an essential part of learning to cope in a world of more or less silence. It would be unfair to be asked to pay for these classes as it is essential to be able to communicate and how to cope in bewildering world you are forced into. Lip reading is not a social club but an educational necessity. I have the right to communicate as well as a hearing person.	Service Restructure of Adult Learning & Youth Services (general)	6. 7458	An individual	1e. Service Restructure of Adult Learning & Youth Services	In principal the restructuring of Adult Learning and Youth Services to do more focused work is a good idea. Embedding lifelong learning should be a priority, with a particular focus on the most vulnerable, disadvantaged and marginalised in our communities. The offer of adult learning needs to be made available to those in most need. Literacies, numeracy, digital learning, English as a Second Language, Lip reading etc.	Service Restructure of Adult Learning & Youth Services (general)	2. 7459	An individual	1e. Service Restructure of Adult Learning & Youth Services	The MCMC programme is not a stand alone activity. It is supported by work carried out by schools, other council services as well as external partners. Evidence shows that young people who are engaged in out of school learning (sports,arts and youth clubs, Duke of Edinburgh Award's, youth forums etc.) are more likely to engage and build the confidence to learn, achieve qualifications, awards and skills for life learning and work. These activities also support physical and mental wellbeing, inclusion, community cohesion and prevent young people from getting involved in anti-social behaviour and criminal activity. A limited focus on employability will impact on those young people who are vulnerable in other ways and need support to build their confidence, self-esteem, for social and personal development, to have their voices heard. To be involved in local decision-making, those who are LGBT and need support, or young people with physical and or learning disabilities. The planned ceasing of children's clubs and youth clubs could be costly in the longer term - increased school absence, family problems, anti-social behaviour and involvement in crime. 7497	An individual	1e. Service Restructure of Adult Learning & Youth Services	I attend the youth club three times a week and I personally believe that it has benefitted me greatly. I have made new friends and experienced a lot of things. I have been attending the Armadale youth forum girls group Armadale Friday night drop in which is ran by West lothian Council and the Thursday night drop in which is ran by youth action project for the last three years and before that I attended the Friday club for primary age childre, because of this I have experienced lots of new things that I probably wouldn't have if i didn't have the opportunity toattend these clubs. I think it is completely unfair for West Lothian Council to give money to 15-16 year olds who are leaving school because all young people are entitled to the money. These clubs arn't getting enough money to be able to stay open, so they will possibly need to be closed and if these clubs close a lot of young people will lose out in these experiences and I will probably lose out in more experiences that have yet to come. 7533	An individual	1e. Service Restructure of Adult Learning & Youth Services	This cut is unrealistic. This £600k is equivalent to 40% cut which is unsustainable. The voluntary sector can access money & grants from outwith West Lothian. Youth clubs provide a strategic service and is essential for their transition into adulthood. The loss of this would impact immensely on their future. The cut or loss of service to elderly people at a time when people are living longer would be drastic. 7536	On behalf of a Group/Organisation	1e. Service Restructure of Adult Learning & Youth Services	The Vennie is a voluntary community group in Knightsridge. As a group on a Thursday night we put down all our issues which would concern us if we didn't have our youth club. We would not have: a free bike library (for exercise), free food & drink, socialising with others, the learning aspect (we are taught how to respect others, understanding people's needs, manners), access to computers or games & pool tables, somewhere to go when it's cold or wet, nice staff that we can talk to, a safe place to be, advice on keeping safe, fun trips & activities, parties, outside games & activities. 7537	An individual	1e. Service Restructure of Adult Learning & Youth Services	Childrens clubs are good for children to make friends and socialise and to have fun. It's somewhere children can be themselves and it can make them confident. It gets the children involved in the community. It gets the children off the streets and keeps them out of trouble. From coming to the clubs children grow up and some of them go on to volunteering and then become staff members. Children form bonds with staff and if they don't have a good home life or background it gives them somewhere to come and relax and chill. These groups can be the only place a child may have to meet new people, feel safe and learn life skills. Children need this resource to expand their social skills, health & well being. 7597	An individual	1e. Service Restructure of Adult Learning & Youth Services	I feel that youth clubs within West Lothian are vital to the community and the young people - if we didn't have the youth clubs I truly believe the police stats would be up, risk taking behaviour would be up as would the substance misuse within the area. Therefore I would strongly recommend as a resident that the youth clubs remain open for the young people to keep them off the streets. 7598	On behalf of a Group/Organisation	1e. Service Restructure of Adult Learning & Youth Services	Since 1835 Deaf Action has been working with D/deaf, deafened, hard of hearing, and deafblind people. We work in conjunction with a number of key partners that include Local Authorities, Health Board, other organisations and the Scottish Government & we are a recognised delivery partner for the latter, for example having delivered upon a joint sensory pilot and supporting the implementation of the British Sign Language (Scotland) Act 2015. We currently have a contract with West Lothian Council Social Policy for the provision of a Community Care Assistant (3 days per week), the provision of specialist equipment to enable people who are deaf or who have hearing loss to live independently and safely in their homes, and interpreting to enable Council staff to communicate and engage effectively with British Sign Language speakers. We attempted to raise awareness of the budget consultation with service users and individuals known to us, but this was problematic for several reasons. We are concerned that such people have not effectively contributed towards the consultation and the Council's thinking in what are clearly difficult times. There was no British Sign Language (BSL) version available, meaning it was not accessible to the 463 individuals in West Lothian who speak BSL at home (2011 Census); for the majority of these individuals written English will be a poor second to their BSL. Within the context of the British Sign Language (Scotland) Act 2015 and the first National Plan (which includes specific goals and actions around public services and democracy) this is something the council will need to seriously consider going forward with its own Authority Plan (which includes a duty to consult with the local deaf community) due next year. I understand West Lothian Council's Equality Officer is already engaging with Deaf Action on this basis, but Deaf Action would welcome further dialogue in future on how deaf people - including BSL speakers - can be fully included. The majority of our service users who are deaf (i.e. those who did not become deaf at birth or pre-lingual & sometimes referred to those as "deafening with hearing loss") tend to be in the older age group and from those we attempted to engage with expressed uncertainty as to what was being asked and were not keen to respond. It is our experience that people in this group can be very isolated and cut-off from society due to their deafness, and can experience a great deal of anxiety. The See Hear strategy disseminated by the Scottish Government has a number of recommendations and it is clear that there needs to be emphasis on joined-up working and an effective care/service pathway that ensures people diagnosed as being deaf receive support and services at the earliest possible opportunity. With an estimated 1 in 5 people living with deafness in Scotland, and West Lothian, it is very apparent that not everybody living with deafness is being reached, for various reasons. This is not unique to deafness & the Royal National Institute of Blind People, RNIB, have estimated that they reach only 1 in 3 people who are blind or partially sighted. Sadly, it is our experience that despite a seemingly lack of demand does not equate to a lack in need & just because problems are not being reported it, it does not mean there are no problems. We will attempt to outline the current situation for deaf people in this response. Deaf Action has been mainly focused on direct service delivery, and where possible we have attempted to support development work but our resources are fully committed in what is a challenging economic climate. However, we are always keen to enter into dialogue with partners, including local authorities, to look at ways of working together effectively. In terms of some of the specific headings under the consultation, we would make the following comments: Supporting children and young people to get the best possible start in life As per the See Hear policy, there must be better joined-up working that ensures children and families living with deafness receive appropriate information, advice and guidance at the earliest possible opportunity. Newborn hearing screening has existed for some time, which is an effective tool at identifying deaf children very early on but there continues to be evidence that families are not receiving appropriate information and support early on to make informed choices. The British Sign Language National Plan (enabled by the British Sign Language (Scotland) Act 2015) makes specific reference to this area as an overarching ambition with several associated action points. Deaf Action was previously partners with RNIB leading on an Early Intervention project with families who are affected by deafness, blindness or partially sighted (the funding ceased, unfortunately). Deaf Action has been involved in a number of initiatives looking at improving early intervention work, including supporting the formulation of Standards in Early Years Work with Deaf Children in conjunction with the Scottish Sensory Centre and other partners, and as such has extensive knowledge and experience of this area. Improving the employment position in West Lothian There is evidence and research that clearly identifies deaf people as being	Service Restructure of Adult Learning & Youth Services (general)	6. The lip reading classes I attend are vital in my well being, offering so much information and importantly sharing experiences of being deaf and the confidence building. We all share experiences and can help each other in all aspects of our hearing loss which can lead to isolation and lots of other side effects. 7600	An individual	1e. Service Restructure of Adult Learning & Youth Services	I go to a lip reading class once a week. After I found I was losing my hearing, I find the class to be a very good learning experience. I don't think I would even go out other places if I hadn't been learning. It's given me more confidence. Lip reading is not a leisurely thing, you have to work hard and concentrate.	Service Restructure of Adult Learning & Youth Services (general)	6. This is a positive suggestion. 7602	An individual	1e. Service Restructure of Adult Learning & Youth Services	I attend lip reading classes in West Lothian and feel very strongly that these continue. I have found huge benefit from these classes. My mental health has greatly improved since attending and my confidence to do things on my own without assistance has improved. I would be very sorry if these classes were cut or stopped. I do not treat this class as a hobby class or a social class, it is helping my whole well being and reduced depression. I would be willing to pay a small donation in order to keep this class going.	Service Restructure of Adult Learning & Youth Services (general)	6. This is a positive suggestion. 7604	An individual	1e. Service Restructure of Adult Learning & Youth Services	I am part of this group and I have come on leaps and bounds since I have started so you can't cut this.	Service Restructure of Adult Learning & Youth Services (general)	2. The respondent advised that they either did not agree or did not believe the council should consider the proposal. 7605	An individual	1e. Service Restructure of Adult Learning & Youth Services	I attend a lip reading class in West Lothian and it is as helping me very much, if I didn't learn the lip reading skills I need to help me communicate with the hearing world I would need assistance with visits to doctors, dentists and I would once again withdraw into myself. Deafness is very isolating and debilitating. Being deaf is not visible we do not have white sticks or wheelchairs. I think everyone should wear some kind of ear equipment and spend a few days without hearing and see what it feels like. Why take away a class that could be a life saver for some. The councils are always making cuts but the councillors and council heads earn large amounts and get pay rises â€ you could save some money there. There are always cuts being made to classes that are well attended. Maybe ask why they are well attended?? BECAUSE THERE IS A NEED. If you allow people to do English as a second language I consider lip reading to be a second language. We need these classes it improves our physical and mental health thus we need more visits to NHS etc.	Service Restructure of Adult Learning & Youth Services (general)	6. 7610	An individual	1e. Service Restructure of Adult Learning & Youth Services	I attend lip reading group and it is the highlight of my week. I get so much from my class, emotionally and mentally. I have made many friends who have likewise problems. No one can appreciate what it means to lose hearing apart from likewise (friends!). Talking over our problems, learning to lipread, the laughs we get meeting socially. What a difference this has made to me. 7611	An individual	1e. Service Restructure of Adult Learning & Youth Services	Improving the quality of life for the elderly. For example = Lipreading. It is now proven that elderly people have a better life and healthier life style through interaction with groups such as lipreading which helps them and only when socialising - shopping, traveling. I disagree that we should have to decide which are the most important courses, the one I think that should be taken off the list is reducing crime! This is something is not a help to anyone other than criminals who should be dealt with by the law. I belong to a lipreading class in STRATHBROCK Broxburn if we were to close it would devastating for us! This is a necessity for deaf people! If all else failed we would be willing to pay a small fee to be able to still attend, which is not easy for several people. 7615	An individual	1e. Service Restructure of Adult Learning & Youth Services	Overall, this seems reasonable. 7617	An individual	1e. Service Restructure of Adult Learning & Youth Services	At last a simple statement. When children enter education that is where their needs should be met. Schools fail here. By age 12 many children still can't read. More money will not help but a change in curriculum priorities will. I agree with youth programmes etc but the words personal responsibility must be used. 7622	No Response	1e. Service Restructure of Adult Learning & Youth Services	Community Benefits provide fantastic support to young people not in education, employment or training. Supply chain support in our community is vital, and can be achieved at no additional cost to the council e.g. plumbing materials contract has secured 1 x full time permanent local job for 12 months. The person will be trained over the 12 month period before being moved to a different WL location/branch. A new full time permanent job will be created; this will continue for the term of the 5 year contract i.e. 5 full time permanent jobs created from 1 contract. 7660	An individual	1e. Service Restructure of Adult Learning & Youth Services	Presumably all this learning is to be delivered by West Lothian College through financial support from the Council. 7662	An individual	1e. Service Restructure of Adult Learning & Youth Services	Maximising opportunities for positive destinations should be a high priority. The Council works in partnership to maximise opportunities for apprenticeships and training.
7663	An individual	1e. Service Restructure of Adult Learning & Youth Services	No wonder children want to leave school when w/c spend no money on schools! 7664	An individual	1e. Service Restructure of Adult Learning & Youth Services	English as a second language? Is this a free provision at present and if so, could a charge be introduced? How much do interpreters cost as and when they are required? Does the Council pick up the bill for this service and if so, can a charge be implemented? 7665	An individual	1e. 7667	An individual	1e. 7674	An individual	1e. 7676	An individual	1e. Service Restructure of Adult Learning & Youth Services	Youth services are very important to the development of children. Extra-curricular activities, such as music, helps children and young people to develop as a person by allowing them to gain confidence in themselves. It also encourages young people to work as a team to achieve an end goal, and this prepares children for life in the adult world. As well as this, things like bands and clubs help children to create positive relationships with other children with whom they share the same interests with. This may not happen in a classroom as children may get bullied for many things, and in this case, coming to band or a club allows a positive escape for them, where they can actively take part in activities and not have to worry about being themselves.	Service Restructure of Adult Learning & Youth Services (general)	2. The respondent advised that they either did not agree or did not believe the council should consider the proposal.	The Council will continue to produce a statutory CLD plan, to be delivered through the learning community partnerships centred of non-denominational secondary schools, with a focus on partnership working between schools and the third sector. 7680	An individual	1e. Service Restructure of Adult Learning & Youth Services	Options are often limited for young people due to lack of training, if this provides them with more choices for reaching their goals and joining the workforce with confidence in themselves its a service worth having, Adult and second language learning are important as we have a wide and varied culture within West Lothian.	Service Restructure of Adult Learning & Youth Services (general)	1. The respondent advised that they agree with the proposal.	The proposals echo these sentiments.
7681	No Response	1e. 7682	An individual	1e. Service Restructure of Adult Learning & Youth Services	What consideration has been given to the fact that generally those most in need of specialist services are resistant to any form of social work involvement; therefore if this service is consolidated / amalgamated with social work resources this will not have the desired outcome of affording our most vulnerable members of society an opportunity for early intervention at the most crucial time of their lives.	Service Restructure of Adult Learning & Youth Services (general)	7. 7703	No Response	1e. Service Restructure of Adult Learning & Youth Services	Giving all young people the opportunity to gain experience of the self disciplines necessary for either employment or further education is very important both to the individual and to the community. I have no experience of the MCMC programme, but I do have experience of the StepsN2Work scheme - as utilised in the retail (specifically independent booksellers environment) and this has very successfully enabled several young troubled "school drop-outs" gain confidence and be inspired to go back into further education and be great examples of how the right combination of WLC sponsored scheme - yields great results. Similarly I have long (successful and rewarding) experience of employing Technical apprentices both in WLC (at Cameron/Wyman Gordon) and in several other companies within the UK - I would advocate these schemes - are key elements in a successful Youth Policy. 7707	An employee of West Lothian Council	1e. Service Restructure of Adult Learning & Youth Services	Whilst many adolescents are not staying in full time education or moving into employment EMA funding should not be paid just to entice these people to stay in education as they are not gaining from this and are draining the public purse. If people who do stay in further education need financial help then the way in which this cash is spent should be closely monitored as it's widely abused. Also it's all very well training for employment but the jobs are simply not there to be had.	Service Restructure of Adult Learning & Youth Services (general)	8. 7728	An employee of West Lothian Council	1e. Service Restructure of Adult Learning & Youth Services	Any ESL teachers should be properly qualified not solely in EFL/ESL, ideally to Degree standard in English (English Language or equivalent) if they are to be teaching English as a Second Language. This way the teaching can be effective and will not require to be "dragged-out" and repeated by individuals or groups who are often desperate to learn our language to be able to become integrated into society and feel part of the community as soon as possible. Using under qualified or ineffective ESL teachers is not conducive to effective learning to individuals, some of whom will be keen to participate and contribute to wider society and their own local communities. 7738	An individual	1e. Service Restructure of Adult Learning & Youth Services	This proposal fills me with consternation, particularly if adult lip-reading classes are to end. Personally I believe this is a health issue rather than an educational one however the powers at be think differently. Recent medical research has indicated that the onset of deafness in middle age is a major factor in the development of dementia (far greater than diet or lack of exercise). Such deafness leads to lack of social interaction which in turn can lead to dementia. As older people become progressively deaffer the effort involved in interacting socially and at work can become so great that many give up. Learning lip reading skills can delay or even stop this self-imposed this social isolation. Apart from the personal cost, the savings in delaying dementia say for 10 years are enormous. As someone who paid for lip reading before becoming aware of the Council's provision I am sure the many who attend would be willing to contribute towards the costs involved in keeping classes going. 7742	No Response	1e. 7747	An employee of West Lothian Council	1e. Service Restructure of Adult Learning & Youth Services	There is a significant number of young people who arrive in our schools and do not speak English. A number of years ago EAL provision was reduced and I worry if this is redcued again. It is very difficult for some of these young people to settle into mainstream education with the limited support that is currently available. Again teaching staff do their very best with these young people but more not less support is needed in this area especially given the commitment to re-settling refugee families within West Lothian. 7757	An employee of West Lothian Council	1e. Service Restructure of Adult Learning & Youth Services	Adults and youth who are not willing to work should not be given the opportunity for more money to be wasted on them. Courses such as English as a second language would be beneficial for people at a small fee because if they want to work/learn the language then they will do so. Lots of people have moved to the country and rely on their children to translate for them rather than go and get help themselves.	Service Restructure of Adult Learning & Youth Services (general)	5c. 7758	An employee of West Lothian Council	1e. Service Restructure of Adult Learning & Youth Services	Consider charging for adult classes, especially 'English as a Second Language'. Perhaps Management Committees could be asked to part fund these as many are sitting with significant sums of money in their accounts. 8145	An individual	1f. Rationalisation of Support to Parents & Carers	I don't not care about saving in this area. Increase taxes if necessary instead. If the consolidation into one team gives parent and carers better support then by all means do it. The aim here should be to improve the support parents and carers get, not to save money in this area. Again I believe any pound spent in helping parents and carers now is several pounds saved at a later date. 8302	An individual	1f. Rationalisation of Support to Parents & Carers	We should never become a call centre for members of the public. Directed to relevant departments is fine - but to tackle poverty there needs to be face to face. No matter your position within WLC if you are face to face with a member of public in their own home at any time they should be made aware of the services available within the council. We all need to look outside the box and think of a diagnostic service - not just what we are actually there to do at that time. An easy opt out referral would be a great idea.	Rationalisation of Support to Parents & Carers (general)	2. The respondent advised that they either did not agree or did not believe the council should consider the proposal.	Thank you for your response. Your comment has been noted
8303	An individual	1f. Rationalisation of Support to Parents & Carers	As I said above too many wasted resources costing too much money.	Rationalisation of Support to Parents & Carers (general)	7. 8304	No Response	1f. Rationalisation of Support to Parents & Carers	Pupil placement are already overworked and finding it hard to cope with the pressures at key times. Increasing their workload will only make it harder for them to meet targets and support parents and families.	Rationalisation of Support to Parents & Carers (general)	2. The respondent advised that they either did not agree or did not believe the council should consider the proposal.	The Council intends to implement the proposals whilst focusing on key priorities for pupils, parents/carers and staff. Amalgamating teams may provide additional resources during peak times.
8305	An individual	1f. Rationalisation of Support to Parents & Carers	Rationalising support to parents and carers must equate to a reduced service. 8316	An employee of West Lothian Council	1f. Rationalisation of Support to Parents & Carers	Make schools responsible for their own pupil placement and return the onus to them. Decide on permanent catchment areas and stick to these. Reduce the criteria for challenging decisions. I do not agree with reducing music provision into schools and feel other services should be removed first.	Rationalisation of Support to Parents & Carers (general)	2. The respondent advised that they either did not agree or did not believe the council should consider the proposal.	The placement process operated within West Lothian has resulted in very efficient budgeting in schools. It is not possible to plan physical resources and to make efficient allocation of staff and pupils in the absence of robust data, and an effective decision support system. If this ability is lost through inappropriate streamlining of procedures, the annual cost is likely to outweigh the anticipated saving. The Council has no control over parents statutory right to challenge decisions. Catchment areas must be capable of being changed to reflect development pressure. All pupils will experience Instrumental Music Tuition in Primary School through the Youth Music Initiative. It is proposed that some access to tuition will remain. All children will retain appropriate music, drama, sport and art provision through curriculum for excellence.

8326	An employee of West Lothian Council	1f. Rationalisation of Support to Parents & Carers	Whilst consolidating teams does promote more opportunities to share workloads, these teams are both currently extremely stretched and currently require overtime to process workloads. The range of tasks carried out by Education Customer Care team is wide and varied and involves a range of skills and knowledge, accumulated over many years, to deliver services efficiently and effectively, we have already streamlined many process to compensate for the staffing levels. Education Customer Services have taken on an increased workload over the past couple of years and take care of tasks from all areas of education that do not fall under any other area remit. The services delivered support schools, head teachers, heads of education, parents and pupils, MCMC, anti-poverty strategy, website, FOI's, complaints, school letting, education stats, amongst many other activities, with an already extremely small and dedicated team. Further cuts are extremely likely to affect staff morale and health detrimentally. I feel strongly this is an area that requires investment and not considered for cuts/savings streamlining. We should consider introducing charges for FOI's and SAR's in line with other authorities and stop Letting out primary schools, as the cost often outweighs the income generated when all costs are considered. This would increase Lets in our high schools, community halls, church halls and community centres, all of which benefit the wider community helping to the future of these premises. 8327	An employee of West Lothian Council	1f. Rationalisation of Support to Parents & Carers	Pupil Placement's procedures should be reviewed and streamlined. 8330	An employee of West Lothian Council	1f. Rationalisation of Support to Parents & Carers	Sensible, but we would have to look at the many tasks done by both teams in advance to consolidation to ensure that priorities are met, as I believe that tasks are being done just now that are not a necessity.	Rationalisation of Support to Parents & Carers (general)	6. This is a positive suggestion. Officers will consider how this could be developed.	It is obviously true that unnecessary tasks should not be undertaken. The process operated within West Lothian has, however, resulted in very efficient budgeting in schools. 8332	An employee of West Lothian Council	1f. Rationalisation of Support to Parents & Carers	I believe that Pupil Placement gather weekly data regarding births in West Lothian from NHS but this data would also be made known to us using household surveys. Perhaps a bit of overkill and I am unsure if a data sharing agreement is in place with NHS. In other local authorities parents are advised to apply for nursery by other means i.e. schools, social media etc...they certainly are not targeted directly with letters or application forms. I believe that Pupil Placement are entering data on their own system which is a duplication of what schools already have on SEEMiS. Perhaps looking at steps in their procedures could identify ways to save steps and time.	Rationalisation of Support to Parents & Carers (general)	6. This is a positive suggestion. Officers will consider how this could be developed.	Whilst all suggestions for improvement are welcome, the process described has resulted in early learning and childcare within west Lothian being amongst the most efficient in Scotland. It is not possible to plan and to make efficient placement decisions in the absence of robust data, and an effective decision support system. Household surveys have largely stopped, except in new build estates, as they are indeed duplication.

8350	An employee of West Lothian Council	1f. Rationalisation of Support to Parents & Carers	There appears to be two Customer Service areas within the Council. The respondent's comment was either not relevant to the question, inappropriate and/or contained personal and sensitive information.	The proposal is about merging two areas of education where synergies exist. The work of the customer contact centre is substantially different from the diverse range of duties undertaken by the Education Customer service Team.
8351	An employee of West Lothian Council	1f. Rationalisation of Support to Parents & Carers	Personally, I feel that there are two Customer Service areas within the Council and I cannot understand why Education Customer Service can't merge into the other Customer Service area within the Council to minimise duplication of work. Pupil Placement are run off their feet and working weekends as well as overtime during the week to keep up with the workload. Therefore, I can't see how merging these two would save any money.	Rationalisation of Support to Parents & Carers (general)	2. The respondent advised that they either did not agree or did not believe the council should consider the proposal.	The range of functions undertaken within the Education team differentiates it from the Central Council function.
8352	An employee of West Lothian Council	1f. 8353	An employee of West Lothian Council	1f. Rationalisation of Support to Parents & Carers	Seems to be a very big saving for rationalising two teams. Too much effort is spent on pupil placement for choosy parents. Kids should just go to their local school.	Rationalisation of Support to Parents & Carers (general)	5a. It is proposed that this suggestion is not taken forward because the council is required by law to deliver this work.	Managing parental choice legislation is a statutory function. Managing it efficiently is complex and time consuming. West Lothian Council cannot force parents to send their children to their local school, but must exercise its powers to ensure efficient use of education capital and revenue budgets.

8358	An employee of West Lothian Council	1f. Rationalisation of Support to Parents & Carers	1984 double speak Rationalisation = cuts = fewer people doing more work. 8359	An individual	1f. Rationalisation of Support to Parents & Carers	Parenting is the responsibility of the Parent. Don't have children if you are not prepared to support them. Yes circumstances can change but only those who can prove their situation is exceptional should be liable for support. End of.	Rationalisation of Support to Parents & Carers (general)	8. This suggestion is out with the responsibility of West Lothian Council. Where relevant, we will forward these comments to our partner organisations.	The Council has certain statutory duties in relation to supporting parents that are exercised by the Customer Care and Pupil Placement Teams including allocation of grants and administration of parental choice legislation.
8360	An individual	1f. Rationalisation of Support to Parents & Carers	Having first-hand experience of TWO placing appeals, you are literally bring money. 8371	An individual	1f. Rationalisation of Support to Parents & Carers	No needed the whole group. This should be part of the school and not an outside body that has no contact. Should be scrapped.	Rationalisation of Support to Parents & Carers (general)	2. The respondent advised that they either did not agree or did not believe the council should consider the proposal.	Managing parental choice legislation is a statutory function. Managing it efficiently is complex and time consuming. West Lothian Council cannot force parents to send their children to their local school, but must exercise its powers to ensure efficient use of education capital and revenue budgets.
8372	No Response	1f. Rationalisation of Support to Parents & Carers	I have no comments on this other than there are better ways to engage with parents on the placement of their children. There is lots of paperwork that could be much better managed if it is directly linked to back end systems through online forms (I appreciate that this isn't a one size fits all but please think about the technologies that can enable a simplification of the administration of lots of paper forms!)	Rationalisation of Support to Parents & Carers (general)	4. The council is already doing this.	The availability of online forms will be expanded for the 2018 intake with a major increase in use of electronic communication and processing anticipated.

8381	An individual	1f. Rationalisation of Support to Parents & Carers	Pupil Placement administration can be shambolic at times, with one part not talking to another at times, although I stress that the individuals I have dealt with have been as helpful as possible. 8382	An individual	1f. 8383	An individual	1f. Rationalisation of Support to Parents & Carers	Could technology not be used more effectively in this area? I had to complete a paper application form, then received at least three letters afterwards about my daughters place in nursery, then had the same for entry into P1. Online forms and emails would cut costs here. It might also help stop forms being lost as happened in my daughters case.	Rationalisation of Support to Parents & Carers (general)	4. The council is already doing this.	The availability of online forms will be expanded for the 2018 intake with a major increase in use of electronic communication and processing anticipated.
8384	An individual	1f. Rationalisation of Support to Parents & Carers	You would save a considerable amount of money if you linked your Web form for pupil placement directly to a database, rather than a spreadsheet which needs manually updated. If you cannot link the Web form to the database, Microsoft access can lift this from Excel by linking the spreadsheet to the access database. There's a big button that sets this up for you. I believe this is under the data tab. The current method is slow and I waited 6 weeks for my child to be placed. Most employers won't wait 6 weeks for childcare to be arranged. How many people lose job opportunities, and therefore don't pay council tax, because you can't link a spreadsheet to a database?	Rationalisation of Support to Parents & Carers (general)	4. The council is already doing this.	The availability of online forms will be expanded for the 2018 intake with a major increase in use of electronic communication and processing anticipated. The process is, however, somewhat more complex than simply transferring data from one place to another. Placement decisions have significant impact on the Council's revenue and capital budgets, and all decisions require to be taken within this context to ensure efficient use of the Council's resources.
8385	An individual	1f. Rationalisation of Support to Parents & Carers	Pupils should go to the nearest school unless it's full....simple	Rationalisation of Support to Parents & Carers (general)	5b. 8388	No Response	1f. 8401	An employee of West Lothian Council	1f. 8406	An individual	1f. Rationalisation of Support to Parents & Carers	This service is already poorly run so streamlining it will either make people up their game or they will be even less capable than now. Streamlining will only work if they improve their work and have further training.	Rationalisation of Support to Parents & Carers (general)	2. 8412	An individual	1f. Rationalisation of Support to Parents & Carers	Agree. If a parent wants his child to go to a certain school, move home, if at all possible, though I do accept that is something people often don't have any control over. All the more reason for the below.... The council should be spending their resources on improving all schools, not having to worry about "ghetto schools" because of this right to choose. When I was at school, even my primary serving mainly a council housing area, was as good as any in the council area. Parent choice has not levelled the playing field, but downgraded the expectations of parents whose children attend the less popular schools. A terrible policy to start off with in my view. By all means simplify and reduce spending in this area and spend it on the schools themselves.	Rationalisation of Support to Parents & Carers (general)	1. The respondent advised that they agree with the proposal.	Thank you for your response. Your comment has been noted

8416	An individual	1f. Rationalisation of Support to Parents & Carers	Can you not save more?	Rationalisation of Support to Parents & Carers (general)	3. The respondent advised that they had no comment to make.	The proposals to rationalise central support to schools seek to balance the important contribution of professional, support and managerial staff, all of whom make an important contribution to the service.
8417	No Response	1f. Rationalisation of Support to Parents & Carers	Pupil placement needs to be automated. Serious consideration should be given to partnering with a service provider to do the bulk of the repetitive tasks where a business case for the investment in appropriate automated systems can probably not stack up for the relatively small volumes being managed by one small local authority. Alternatively it could be a candidate for a quick win shared service with a partner council.	Rationalisation of Support to Parents & Carers (general)	4. The council is already doing this.	The process is highly automated, however the Council is committed to consider the individual circumstances of each applicant which requires human input. Not considering individual circumstances would lead to decisions being overturned at appeal which would be more expensive in the long run.
8418	An individual	1f. Rationalisation of Support to Parents & Carers	What does rationalisation and streamlining of activities actually entail? This is a very vague statement. I would support this if services are maintained without cuts.	Rationalisation of Support to Parents & Carers (general)	3. The respondent advised that they had no comment to make. 8419	An individual	1f. Rationalisation of Support to Parents & Carers	I fully support anything that increases the amount of young people in education, employment or training although the training and education need to be appropriate and of sufficient standard. Work supported through working between schools and community learning partners also good. Does this include disabled young people?	Rationalisation of Support to Parents & Carers (general)	1. The respondent advised that they agree with the proposal.	West Lothian's support for MCMC pupils has proved effective at increasing numbers progressing to a positive destination. 8424	An individual	1f. Rationalisation of Support to Parents & Carers	This is an outrageous proposal. These valued services should be increased instead of streamlined. They already have a near impossible task and cutting services to disabled and vulnerable children should be avoided. Streamlined and rationalisation is another word for cuts. 8443	An individual	1f. Rationalisation of Support to Parents & Carers	As above - lets have a root and branch review of the service and delivery. It isn't necessary to increase costs when efficiencies can be identified. A business approach is what is needed to ensure the correct spending on items needed is controlled. The respondent advised that they had no comment to make.	The pupil placement process is linked to workforce planning and planning of school budgets, planning of the school estate, and property development control, all of which have a major impact on the Council's capital and revenue budgets ensuring a sufficient annual workload.
8450	An individual	1f. Rationalisation of Support to Parents & Carers	This should be implemented. Also, parents who wish to send their child to a school outside their catchment area should be liable to organise and pay for transport. This cost should not fall on taxpayers. Further, when considering pupil placement perhaps consideration should be given to extending the walking distance to school. This would save money and increase health benefits to pupils.	Rationalisation of Support to Parents & Carers (general)	1. The respondent advised that they agree with the proposal.	The council is consulting on decreasing school transport.

8452	An individual	1f. Rationalisation of Support to Parents & Carers	More information required to comment as was my thought at most stages of this consultation unfortunately. Does this mean one team in a central location and not school based? This £300,000 saving could be made in the Council systems and structures as I believe this is a poor choice and will have a negative impact on children, especially those not reaching their potential during their time in education due to poverty and other family difficulties. 8455	An individual	1f. Rationalisation of Support to Parents & Carers	Please see my response to 1b. - I do not currently have a personal stake in education services and feel unable to comment on how things may be improved. Educational attainment is key in addressing inequalities and other social issues and I do not support any change that leads to fewer chances for young people in West Lothian. I therefore support rationalisation where this addresses duplication and achieves administrative efficiencies rather than measures that would cut activities of direct benefit to children and young adults	Rationalisation of Support to Parents & Carers (general)	1. 8456	An individual	1f. Rationalisation of Support to Parents & Carers	I disagree for this. I really disagree with everything in this book. I live in West Lothian and I'm very not happy with this. 8523	An individual	1f. Rationalisation of Support to Parents & Carers	I can't comment on this - if you were to say that teams were being reduced from 10 to 2, then that seems a bit drastic. If its 60 to 52 - that might work. I guess what I'm saying is that a % saving in all these questions rather than a monetary value would make it easier for people to comment. eg, by combining roles in the pupil placement and education customer care teams we could make an annual saving of 3%	Rationalisation of Support to Parents & Carers (general)	3. 8535	An individual	1f. Rationalisation of Support to Parents & Carers	You need to provide information on which services are going to be "rationalised" and "streamlined". Some could be vital! 8548	No Response	1f. Rationalisation of Support to Parents & Carers	This I agree with. As a parent of a child with additional needs I got hardly any support. Rationalisation of Support to Parents & Carers (general)	7. The respondent's comment was either not relevant to the question, inappropriate and/or contained personal and sensitive information. 8573	An employee of West Lothian Council	1f. Rationalisation of Support to Parents & Carers	1f The Pupil Placement Team and Education Customer Care team are already working flat out. While we are always looking for improvements, we also have increasing demands on these teams - the complexity of the pupil placement work has increased due to changes to pre-school education and will continue to increase with the expansion of Early Learning and Childcare. I strongly feel that a centralised Pupil Placement team is necessary to ensure efficient use of staffing in schools and a fair and consistent approach to allocations. The Education Customer Care team deals with policy development, FOI's, Subject Access Requests, complaints, the website, school benefits/anti-poverty strategy, school holiday lunch clubs, primary school letting, records management, licences for schools, and a whole range of other tasks and projects - e.g. the Objective Project. It is essential to have staff with the knowledge and experience of the service in order to deal with these varied tasks quickly, accurately and effectively. I don't think the proposed saving is realistic. Merging the teams would mean staff can work more flexibly which would be useful, but I do not think we can reduce the size of the teams, any reduction would mean not doing vital tasks. In the long term if more efficient ways of working can be identified, or if through policy changes we stopped delivering all of the services, perhaps we could make some reductions without impacting on our key activities.	Rationalisation of Support to Parents & Carers (general)	2. The respondent advised that they either did not agree or did not believe the council should consider the proposal.	Placement decisions have significant impact on the Council's revenue and capital budgets, and all decisions require to be taken within this context to ensure efficient use of the Council's resources. The customer care team discharges important statutory functions. These functions will be continued.

8589	An individual	1f. Rationalisation of Support to Parents & Carers	My understanding is both these teams, especially Education Customer Care is already a small team and have many areas of work outside 'customer care' given to them e.g. Holiday Lunch time and Activity Club which takes a great deal of time and administration. Customers are likely to suffer if there is a reduction to this team	Rationalisation of Support to Parents & Carers (general)	2. The respondent advised that they either did not agree or did not believe the council should consider the proposal.	Placement decisions have significant impact on the Council's revenue and capital budgets, and all decisions require to be taken within this context to ensure efficient use of the Council's resources. The customer care team discharges important statutory functions. These functions will be continued.
8590	An individual	1f. Rationalisation of Support to Parents & Carers	With an increasing population and nursery provision, there is likely to be increasing demands on these service areas and disinvestment is likely to lead to pressures leading to increased involvement by senior council officers to resolve issues and complaints. As pupil placement is an essential service, I am unsure the limited savings available in this area balance the potential negative impact to education service users. 8601	An individual	1f. Rationalisation of Support to Parents & Carers	If this consolidation does occur, it is essential that the service is run to the utmost of efficiency. 8855	An individual	1g. Workforce Arrangements	The council's terms and conditions are very generous compared to the private sector that I and many others work in. 8920	An individual	1g. Workforce Arrangements	Does the council require 3 offices for the political parties? Surely a cost saving would have the elected members hot desk and share an office?	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	7. The respondent's comment was either not relevant to the question, inappropriate and/or contained personal and sensitive information.	The council has a requirement to support the elected members and has delivered this service in as efficient a manner as possible whilst still facilitating elected members in the discharge of their duties to the electorate.
8921	An individual	1g. Workforce Arrangements	The council appear to employ more managers than staff. Too many team leaders and also people who have landed permanent positions through 4 years service. They are on higher paid contracts and but job tasks do not reflect the level they are paid. All staff in same job should be on same pay scale. Council hide staff behind job titles which don't exist. Welfare Rights Officers don't do anything different to Campaign Development Officers but they are paid higher?	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	4. The council is already doing this. 8923	An employee of West Lothian Council	1g. Workforce Arrangements	Locum bureau staff within social policy get paid lowest rate of pay - Cooks , Cleaners , Housing support assistants ALL get paid the minimum wage of Â£8.51 per hour regardless of what shift or day of the week , therefore it is difficult for the managers to fill shifts especially at weekends as there is no weekend enhancement and we have no choice but to use overtime . Perhaps if a small % was added for weekends more locum staff would be willing to work as they can get paid more for working in shops and restaurants at the weekend than they can for providing personal care etc. . Another thing that would help would be if the locum staff got paid weekly as currently they can wait up to 8-9 weeks to get paid for a shift - if they work a shift at beginning of September they wont get it paid till the end of October .St Johns nurse bank pay bank staff on a weekly basis - another suggestion would be to merge with the nurse bank ? 8931	An individual	1g. Workforce Arrangements	I do not support cutting payments and conditions for staff who are already suffering unfairly due to long running pay freezes and pay caps. Why not offer early retirement packages to reduce staff numbers as has been done in the past?	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	4. The council is already doing this.	The council has a Early Retirement/Voluntary Severance scheme which is available to all employees subject to a suitable business case being submitted within the set affordability criteria.
8932	No Response	1g. Workforce Arrangements	The council should be open to flexible and innovative management solutions. Managers are the highest paid staff in the council, so any reductions in the cost of providing management will have more effect than reductions of lower paid staff. If a management solution can be found at a reduced cost, by having senior staff share management tasks for a small uplift in their salary, combining the posts, it should be trialed and monitored for effectiveness.	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	1. The respondent advised that they agree with the proposal.	The council continually reviews the tiers of management and span of control across all service levels against a target 5 x 5 structure. This ensures that the council continues to operate with an effective and efficient managerial structure.
8933	An individual	1g. Workforce Arrangements	Council staff benefits and terms are very generous - in better financial times would expect this to attract staff from private sector, but as private sector seeing low wage growth, council jobs probably seen as gold mine. Encourages holding on to current job and difficult to find suitable next position, lose productivity increases from job-ability matching and reduces availability of junior positions. I realise this is a bit backwards as good public sector jobs are supposed to drive good private sector jobs but bad times!	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	8. 8934	An employee of West Lothian Council	1g. Workforce Arrangements	There are currently a number of areas within the council that are on skeleton staff and other areas that clearly have more than enough bodies to conduct the work required. Instead of looking at overtime costs you should look at the actual staffing problems as if there is enough staff then the overtime will be minimised. There are also officers who are clearly overqualified and underpaid for the work they do whilst others are paid substantially more for less work.	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	2. The respondent advised that they either did not agree or did not believe the council should consider the proposal.	The Council will focus on changes to overtime arrangements and allowances that meet service requirements whilst also delivering value for money.

8936	An individual	1g. Workforce Arrangements	If this is the largest cost to the council, surely this should be where the greatest savings can be made...? Many non council employees have watched their T&Cs be changed to provide savings to their employer, whilst councils seem to be immune to this. Unfortunately, you cannot expect people who are watching their real incomes being reduced continue to pay more and more council tax to ensure councils employees are relatively less affected.	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	1. The respondent advised that they agree with the proposal.	Thank you for your response. Your comment has been noted

8938	No Response	1g. Workforce Arrangements	If staff numbers are cut then remaining staff won't work extra if no overtime enhancements are offered. 8940	An individual	1g. 8942	An individual	1g. Workforce Arrangements	Fine, as long as no compulsory redundancies	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	1. The respondent advised that they agree with the proposal.	The council has been able to delivery significant budget reductions in the last 10 years without the requirement for compulsory redundancies. The scale of the further reductions required over the next five years will be challenging and the council will seek to use the existing range of workforce management and organisational change policies to deliver the required reductions in staffing numbers.

8945	No Response	1g. Workforce Arrangements	This is a great area for cutting especially at the estimated saving. Wage caps of no increase for 2-5 years I think would please people who are at risk of loosing jobs all together. I also think if overtime rates are reduced then this will also not affect people as much as what it would of there was no job at all and if it's saves on average even half of this cost then it is defiantly a more worth option to thousands facing unemployment when we are facing one of the biggest times of unemployment just now with many factory's and businesses closing in the area	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	8. The council is also reviewing the terms of the Redeployment Policy to offer greater opportunities for the redeployment of employees subject to suitable business need.
8947	An individual	1g. Workforce Arrangements	Sickness absence costs significantly. Implement better policy which does not pay people for 6 months whilst off and no payment for first 5 days of absence unless undergoing treatment for i. e. Cancer. Council policy encourages abuse. 1% cut for those earning above Â£300000 Reduce tier of senior management Generate own green energy for buildings	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	4. 8948	An individual	1g. Workforce Arrangements	Not paying staff properly or reducing their terms and conditions is the quickest way to a demotivated and demoralised workforce. Not what is needed at a time when staff numbers are reducing and working structures changing. Protect your staff and they will deliver the changes needed. Reducing pay or terms and conditions will likely mean that staff will need to access further benefits themselves in order to maintain standards of living with rising costs in daily life. Stop advertising posts and make do with the staff you already have, making sure the staff that are currently employed are actually efficient in their job, streamline the service and get the most out of your staff. 8984	No Response	1g. Workforce Arrangements	I do feel that focus on savings could be make on numbers of temporary contract staff situations engaged by the council, some of whom spent years on a specific project. An contracted employee spending many months often years on a line of projects surely justifies a permanent post? Potentially current valued council employees could take up such posts with perhaps necessary training and therefore be on the salary scale opposed to a contractor being paid premium rate over a time. Workforce Arrangements - (general)	5c. It is proposed that this suggestion is not taken forward because it is not consistent with the council's values and priorities.	The council cannot refuse to employee a former employee into another role at a later date simply because they have taken voluntary severance. The council is required by law to treat all candidate
8993	No Response	1g. Workforce Arrangements	Employ apprentices, train them up for future manager roles	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	4. The council is already doing this.	The Council already has a successful apprentice programme.
8994	An individual	1g. Workforce Arrangements	We absolutely need a strong authority. I firmly believe that we should be careful on staff reductions however we need to have a good look at sickness levels. If staff don't want to work and be proud to work for West Lothian Council, get rid of them.	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	1. The respondent advised that they agree with the proposal.	The council proposes to review pay enhancements and allowances to ensure that these continue to meet service requirements and are applied fairly and equitably whilst achieving value for money.
8995	No Response	1g. Workforce Arrangements	As the council still pays enhanced rates for overtime and allowances, I think a review of this area is well overdue. This should also be considered in the context of how normal it now is for individuals to work evenings and weekends as a matter or choice.	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	1. The respondent advised that they agree with the proposal.	The proposed review of terms and conditions would seek to review the use of overtime, allowances and enhancements, whilst at the same time consider the rates payable when used.
8996	An individual	1g. Workforce Arrangements	Cannot comment without more detail. Is this a plan to pay more for normal time working to reduce overtime?	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	3. The respondent advised that they had no comment to make.	The proposed review of terms and conditions would seek to review the use of overtime, allowances and enhancements, whilst at the same time consider the rates payable when used.
8997	An employee of West Lothian Council	1g. Workforce Arrangements	Staff already feel that wages are lagging behind inflation and as a result have a wage cut in real terms for as long as I can remember.	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	8. This suggestion is out with the responsibility of West Lothian Council. Where relevant, we will forward these comments to our partner organisations.	The council is subject to national pay bargaining and the salary scales for officers are determined nationally. The council is subject to national pay bargaining, and terms and conditions.
8998	An individual	1g. Workforce Arrangements	staff costs are always the main factor or outlay in any business. you need teachers to teacher, road men to work on roads you cant reduce them or nothing will get done	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	2. The respondent advised that they either did not agree or did not believe the council should consider the proposal.	The proposed review of terms and conditions would seek to review the use of overtime, allowances and enhancements, whilst at the same time consider the rates payable when used.
8999	An individual	1g. Workforce Arrangements	Steps should be taken to retain as many jobs in West Lothian as possible - even if it means changes to terms, conditions, pay enhancements, allowances, etc. Would rather have more people retaining their employment than increasing salaries at the moment with the current economic situation.	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	1. The respondent advised that they agree with the proposal.	The proposed review of terms and conditions would seek to review the use of overtime, allowances and enhancements, whilst at the same time consider the rates payable when used.
9000	An individual	1g. Workforce Arrangements	Agree - as long as staff involved are paid fairly. As someone who used to work for the authority these payments are crucial as most who receive this tend to be in the lower end of salaries, and this also helps staff achieve a salary similar to that of the private sector. Agree that all should receive a singular salary scale reflective of work tasks.	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	1. The respondent advised that they agree with the proposal.	The proposed review of terms and conditions would seek to review the use of overtime, allowances and enhancements, whilst at the same time consider the rates payable when used. The council is a living wage employer and staff on the lower grades receive a living wage supplement.
9001	An individual	1g. Workforce Arrangements	These changes need to be made fairly across all levels of the workforce. Our current economic climate rewards those who takes away from the rest.	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	1. The respondent advised that they agree with the proposal. 9002	No Response	1g. Workforce Arrangements	To be truthful we as carers who work in homes for the elderly or in their own homes definitely dont get any recognition for the hard work we put in ie.pay ect. We all do a very good job with all our hearts because we totally respect our elders? And they deserve it. We have worked for year's without a pay rise never complained in meantime daily living going up do you hear us complain NO? It disgusts me nobody seems to have respect for people who are doing a great job of looking after people who didn't asked to be sick,or get dementia or have a stroke that woul totally change their lives and their families lives and the only way to end their lives with total dignity and respect until the end?. Workforce Arrangements - (general)	7. The respondent's comment was either not relevant to the question, inappropriate and/or contained personal and sensitive information.	The council has a number of systems and processes in place which allow managers to monitor staff performance and efficiency.
9005	No Response	1g. Workforce Arrangements	If more staff were able to work flexitime, it should reduce the need for overtime all together. As for a review of terms and conditions, more information on what changes are to be proposed before I could post a view.	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	1. The respondent advised that they agree with the proposal.	Flexitime is available to staff where work tasks can be delivered in a flexible manner. The proposed review of terms and conditions would seek to review the use of overtime, allowances and enhancements, whilst at the same time consider the rates payable when used.
9006	An individual	1g. Workforce Arrangements	Give staff opportunity to reduce hours/job share	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	1. The respondent advised that they agree with the proposal.	The council has a number of policies which allow staff to apply to work reduced hours or to job share. Requests are considered and assessed against the needs of the service.
9007	An individual	1g. Workforce Arrangements	Overtime is nessecary in areas such as operational services. Has the council considered having cupulsary shut downs for none essential services at Christmas. Most people would not want to work over Christmas and most don't however buildings are still staffed/heated etc	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	6. This is a positive suggestion. Officers will consider how this could be developed.	Thank you for your response. Officers will consider how this can be developed.
9008	An individual	1g. Workforce Arrangements	Although I would like this not to be the case, I appreciate that changes need to be made to sustain a workforce. The council is a large employer in West Lothian and it is appreciated that they provide a service to communities by providing employment. Cutting the workforce drastically is not acceptable. I would rather continue with a pay increase cap of sorts - I feel it is more acceptable to offer employment at slightly more basic conditions and pay than to cut staffing, making more people unemployed. Having a higher unemployment rate is a major disadvantage to the community and the people's lives. Low paid jobs are not good but they're better than no jobs.	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	2. The respondent advised that they either did not agree or did not believe the council should consider the proposal.	The proposed review of terms and conditions would seek to review the use of overtime, allowances and enhancements, whilst at the same time consider the rates payable when used.
9009	An individual	1g. Workforce Arrangements	However, I am aware the Council has a no redundancy policy. While this is admirable in many ways, I feel that offering voluntary redundancy or severance across the council may address a workforce reduction better than enforcing cuts - allowing room for movement across services if co-ordinated properly.	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	1. The respondent advised that they agree with the proposal.	The scale of the further reductions required over the next five years will be challenging and the council will seek to use the existing range of workforce management and organisational change policies to deliver the required reductions in staffing numbers.
9010	An individual	1g. Workforce Arrangements	If this is going to done correctly that all levels of staff should be affected the same way. Taking Â£20 from one staff is not the same as taking Â£20 from some seniors managers who are on 6 figure sums with overtime and all the other benefits they get.	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	1. The respondent advised that they agree with the proposal.	The proposed review of terms and conditions would seek to review the use of overtime, allowances and enhancements, whilst at the same time consider the rates payable when used.
9011	No Response	1g. Workforce Arrangements	Staff are the back bone of all departments ,I feel if staff have been with the council over 25 years and are over the age of 55 they should be offered early retirement.	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	4. The council is already doing this.	The council has a Early Retirement/Voluntary Severance scheme which is available to all employees subject to a suitable business case being submitted within the set affordability criteria.
9012	No Response	1g. Workforce Arrangements	I also feel the council should be reviewing their sickness policy and procedures as that where overtime and deficits are created.	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	6. This is a positive suggestion. Officers will consider how this could be developed.	The council actively manages all absences in terms of its sickness absence policy, which is subject to constant review, in consultation with the recognised trade unions, to ensure that it is fit for purpose.
9013	An employee of West Lothian Council	1g. Workforce Arrangements	I think 3% increase is reasonable. The council should find ways to reduce the gap by itself. In a way the council need to be more like a private company. Right now supervisors can only open a disciplinary procedure if somebody is skiving or not doing their job and it is very difficult that person is going to change. In the private sector would be less burocracy and the person would be sacked after one warning the most. That is why unfortunately the council are inefficient.	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	1. The respondent advised that they agree with the proposal.	The council has a number of systems and processes in place which are essential to enable managers to monitor staff performance and efficiency. The council has policies in place which require managers to address issues of poor performance in staff.

9015	An employee of West Lothian Council	1g. 9017	An employee of West Lothian Council	1g. Workforce Arrangements	The job losses proposed are inevitable with the cost being such a large proportion of the budget. 9019	An individual	1g. The council proposes to review pay enhancements and allowances to ensure that these continue to meet service requirements and are applied fairly and equitably whilst achieving value for money
9021	An employee of West Lothian Council	1g. Workforce Arrangements	I agree overtime should NOT be paid at enhanced rates and overtime should not be offered where the staff have been off sick in the preceding week/month. This would offer more opportunity for employment of staff at flat rates, reducing unemployment and possibly securing more valued staff that are lost through zero hours contracts as they do not get enough hours.	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	1. The respondent advised that they agree with the proposal.	The council proposes to review pay enhancements and allowances to ensure that these continue to meet service requirements and are applied fairly and equitably whilst achieving value for money
9022	An employee of West Lothian Council	1g. Workforce Arrangements	Allowances should be minimal and not the norm. Paying 17.5 % for shift work is well out of line with the private sector. More job could be secured by paying more reasonable basic pay where it is deemed appropriate without the lure of enhancements.	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	1. The respondent advised that they agree with the proposal.	Thank you for your response. Your comment has been noted
9023	An employee of West Lothian Council	1g. Workforce Arrangements	maybe if we tackled the violence and aggression that is greatly impacting education by doing this we could reduce sickness, incidents, civil claims, HSE investigations and improvement orders crown prosecutions etc each year the council pays out between Â£3-500,000 in civic payments over 5 years this could be worth Â£2-2.5 million plus savings in staff sick pay, cover, hse costs, not to mention an improvement on moral and a feeling of being supported (which is not there at this time)	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	4. The council is already doing this.	The Council reviews reported incidents of Violence and Aggression to identify any measures which can be introduced to support staff in the workplace and provide them with the tools, skills and knowledge to deal with and remove themselves where possible from any violent or aggressive situation.
9024	An employee of West Lothian Council	1g. Workforce Arrangements	Offer packages to staff.	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	1. The respondent advised that they agree with the proposal.	The council has a Early Retirement/Voluntary Severance scheme which is available to all employees subject to a suitable business case being submitted within the set affordability criteria.
9025	An individual	1g. Workforce Arrangements	Do not agree. Look to savings for outside contracts, un needed paperwork costs time and money. Been cutting council staff regularly over the last few years. Council staff had no pay rise for years, so not costing more that it used to, in fact with all the cuts must be less wage bill. People cut and not replaced, staff overworked. Look to management and other areas to cut, keep the frontline staff who work for their pay and more	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	2. The respondent advised that they either did not agree or did not believe the council should consider the proposal.	Experience has demonstrated that the council can deliver a more effective and cost effective service through the centralisation of generic tasks, utilisation of technology and retention of specialist provision within service.
9026	An individual	1g. Workforce Arrangements	More job share positions. 2 posts could be met by 1.5 employees.	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	4. The council is already doing this. 9027	An individual	1g. Workforce Arrangements	Remember some of your workforce are also council tenants you are already proposing to increase rents by 3 or 4%. 9028	An employee of West Lothian Council	1g. Workforce Arrangements	Agreed, overtime should be looked at and reduced. I am aware that staff have bought extra holidays making a saving for the council, perhaps giving all staff that option would save money across the entire council?	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	1. The respondent advised that they agree with the proposal.	Staff are entitled to make a request to buy additional leave however, if accepted, this is a permanent change to the employee's contract. As with all requests for leave, this can only be granted if the needs of the service can accommodate the additional leave.
9029	An employee of West Lothian Council	1g. The council proposes to review pay enhancements and allowances to ensure that these continue to meet service requirements and are applied fairly and equitably whilst achieving value for money
9034	No Response	1g. Workforce Arrangements	I strongly feel again if staff are properly trained and absences addressed and restructure at higher levels this would be the biggest saving in workforce overall rather than cuts to everyday overall effectiveness of service the workforce providing frontline communications	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	1. The council actively manages all absences in terms of its sickness absence policy, which is subject to constant review, in consultation with the recognised trade unions, to ensure that it is fit for purpose. 9037	An employee of West Lothian Council	1g. Workforce Arrangements	Also, consideration should be given to a reduction in the standard working week from 36hrs to 35hrs (or less?) with a commensurate reduction in salary. Perhaps this could be voluntary for existing staff, but mandatory for new. By introducing this in line with the financial year, in April, the associated salary reduction would be offset by the annual pay award / increment and the impact on individuals minimised.	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	6. This is a positive suggestion. Officers will consider how this could be developed.	Thank you for your response. Officers will consider how this can be developed.
9038	An employee of West Lothian Council	1g. Workforce Arrangements	Holiday purchase scheme - could an automatic finding in favour of those seeking to purchase additional holiday be implemented for, say, up to two additional weeks? The impact of the above would be in part mitigated for individuals through savings in tax and NI, with the council also saving employer's NI. I'd expect the savings for the council to be substantial, with minimal impact / cost compared to mass redundancies or early retirements, and significantly greater than the Â£1.4m indicated.	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	4. The council is already doing this.	Staff are entitled to make a request to buy additional leave however, if accepted, this is a permanent change to the employee's contract. 9047	No Response	1g. Workforce Arrangements	A difficult area. The most important resources a Council has is its staff. Changes to working conditions can cause uncertainty, reduce morale and increase resentment. It is absolutely crucial that the Council ensures that staff are fully kept informed and on board with what's happening. I would not support any measure that unfairly disadvantages staff and expects them to undertake unreasonable additional duties to keep services running. The Council need to avoid such a situation arising.	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	1. The respondent advised that they agree with the proposal. 9056	No Response	1g. Workforce Arrangements	A more robust approach to sickness policy would be more appropriate than the talk of slashing over time and shift allowances. It is demoralising for a worker to read that a saving option could be to revert to shifts and also read that shift allowances will be one of the items looked at. 9058	An individual	1g. Workforce Arrangements	Work commitments are about working to the best of your ability and using time to work !! There are many times that overtime is not required but it looks like an easy way of easing pressure on services to deliver within timescales. Staff need to look at their responsibilities in a more positive manner and respect the fact they have a job.	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	1. The respondent advised that they agree with the proposal.	Thank you for your response. Your comment has been noted
9059	An individual	1g. Workforce Arrangements	Value for money is an easy term to use but a better criterion for delivery should be quality of service. Staffing cuts already mean slower response from Council officers and the rise of risk aversion and support from overworked officers.	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	1. The respondent advised that they agree with the proposal.	Thank you for your response. Your comment has been noted
9060	An individual	1g. Workforce Arrangements	No fixed term contracts - everyone should be permanent after a short time. Wastes money on recruitment and training.	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	5c. It is proposed that this suggestion is not taken forward because it is not consistent with the council's values and priorities.	The council regularly reviews the fixed term staff to identify any posts which should be made permanent.
9061	No Response	1g. Workforce Arrangements	How can you justify saying that you are committed to improving the employment rate in west lothian when you are currently employing most new staff on a fixed term basis, with a view to not renewing their contracts? You have stated that you WILL be reducing staff. With that in mind, are these two things not completely contradictory?	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	2. The respondent advised that they either did not agree or did not believe the council should consider the proposal.	UK legislation sets out the regulations on what remuneration and type of expenses elected members are entitled to claim for. Information on elected members claims are regularly reported in an open and transparent manner.
9062	An employee of West Lothian Council	1g. Workforce Arrangements	Would it be possible to supplement work by having almost an apprenticeship-styled scheme?	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	4. 9064	An employee of West Lothian Council	1g. Workforce Arrangements	Hopefully employees, unions ad staff associations will be able to engage in a meaningful and legally compliant consultation when the detail of these proposals are announced - sorry -DAD (Decide/Announce/Defend). Presumably, all employees will ONLY be expected to work their contracted hours and that workloads will be managed so that they are realistic and can be delivered by each 1 FTE per week.	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	1. The respondent advised that they agree with the proposal.	The proposed review of terms and conditions would seek to review the use of overtime, allowances and enhancements, whilst at the same time consider the rates payable when used.
9065	An employee of West Lothian Council	1g. Workforce Arrangements	It would be REALLY USEFUL if the council has a coherent and detailed workforce plan that details requirements for the future as part of this proposal (Remember: work force plan = numbers of staff along with the knowledge, skills expertise and qualifications required to deliver future services) - presumably this will be shared with unions and employees as part of the consultation on workforce arrangements.	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	4. The council is already doing this.	The Council has developed a Corporate Workforce Plan and Service specific workforce plans which monitor staffing requirements and ensure as far as possible that staffing complements and staff skills meet the service requirements.
9066	An employee of West Lothian Council	1g. Workforce Arrangements	Consider having only factor of 5x differential between lowest and highest paid WLC employees. e.g. lowest paid Â£10k annually => highest paid Â£50k annually. Consider alternative employment models - worker co-operatives (Bosch, JL partners etc.) or associates. Consider these along with removal of 'managers/supervisors - staff teams/cadres replacing the purpose (policing and enforcement) of managers and ensuring that all employees are demsnatrying concrete contribution to service delivery and that this contributes DIRECTLY to realisation of outcomes (and outputs). 9069	An employee of West Lothian Council	1g. Workforce Arrangements	A review of management at all levels should be carried out. Staff have left & not been replaced but the management levels remain the same! Staff are fewer, working harder, covering a wider variety of tasks.	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	4. The council is already doing this.	The council continually reviews the tiers of management and span of control across all service levels against a target 5 x 5 structure. This ensures that the council continues to operate with an effective and efficient managerial structure.
9070	An employee of West Lothian Council	1g. Workforce Arrangements	This makes sense but I do wonder if this could go further. As a relatively new member of staff in the Council, I do wonder if there is scope to evaluate, grade and then decide on staff cadres within areas of the Council - this does not always reduce productivity but can have a positive effect. There is also the obvious routes of inviting staff to volunteer for early severance with the Council being able to decide on the most cost effective outcomes from applicants.	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	4. The council is already doing this.	The council has a Early Retirement/Voluntary Severance scheme which is available to all employees subject to a suitable business case being submitted within the set affordability criteria.
9071	An employee of West Lothian Council	1g. 9072	No Response	1g. Workforce Arrangements	Again this looks like an exercise in increased workloads and the removal of protected contractual rights for already overstretched staff. It may not be cost effective when WLC may well find itself in a position where services are ineffective or unavailable for extended periods when stress related sickness, caused by increased workloads on existing staff, increases. 9076	No Response	1g. Workforce Arrangements	Important to get value for money from all staff , people not pulling their weight either not capable or not willing are costing the council money in all areas . It should be easier for managers to feel supported in dismissing such staff .Also good workers are not being recognised individually and often feel their efforts are measured only as a team therefor little incentive to perform. Workforce Arrangements - (general)	1. The respondent advised that they agree with the proposal.	Experience has demonstrated that the council can deliver an more effective and cost effective service through the centralisation of generic tasks and use of technology with the retention of specialist provision within service. This model still allows the opportunity for staff to engage with council officers on a face to face basis at the most effective and convenient level.
9080	An employee of West Lothian Council	1g. Workforce Arrangements	If people are happy and supported by their management and employer they will attend work. The Council has developed a Corporate Workforce Plan and Service specific workforce plans which monitor staffing requirements and ensure as far as possible that staffing complements and staff skills meet the service requirements.
9088	An employee of West Lothian Council	1g. Workforce Arrangements	The Council should consider a complete rewrite of the sickness absence policy to save money. Instead of targeting staff who have a run of bad luck after years of excellent attendance you should remove payment for the first three days of any period of absence. The council actively manages all absences in terms of its sickness absence policy, which is subject to constant review, in consultation with the recognised trade unions, to ensure that it is fit for purpose.
9089	An employee of West Lothian Council	1g. Workforce Arrangements	The Council should also review flexible / home working arrangements and move away from this dated approach of presenteeism. 9097	An employee of West Lothian Council	1g. Workforce Arrangements	It has already been determined that the staff on temporary contracts will be entitled to apply for jobs within the new team and if displaced, have the same entitlements in relation to redeployment. There is concern however on a number of fronts not only for temporary staff but permanent staff also in relation to the terms and conditions of being placed on the redeployment list. Given the number of staff cuts across the council, realistically where are staff on the list going to be redeployed to.	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	7. 9098	No Response	1g. Workforce Arrangements	I can't see how the council will reduce staffing costs without reducing staff. This saving seems to relate to removing overtime and/or allowances but surely we are not paying 1.4 million on these a year? If so, I'd question why we are having to budget this amount to achieve the work required. Also, this will impact IT Services who need to be able to work out of normal working hours to update technology and apply maintenance etc.	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	1. The proposed review of terms and conditions would seek to review the use of overtime, allowances and enhancements, whilst at the same time consider the rates payable when used.

Workforce Arrangements - (general)	8. This suggestion is out with the responsibility of West Lothian Council. Where relevant, we will forward these comments to our partner organisations. 9101	An employee of West Lothian Council	1g. Workforce Arrangements	Cut back on so many temp contracts and ensure there is enough full time/ permanent staff to minimise these and locum workers. Ensure part time workers hours suit the service too. There are too many workers working part time and their hours are hard to fit the shift pattern etc. For example someone working 8 hour shifts on a 20 hour / 30 / 17 hour contract is harder to manage as their is a short fall of hours which means they make their hours up when they are not always needed.	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	1. The respondent advised that they agree with the proposal.	The council regularly reviews the fixed term staff to identify any posts which should be made permanent. Fixed term contracts will continue to be used where this is appropriate to manage temporary, fixed term service requirements. 9104	An individual	1g. Workforce Arrangements	A more "private sector" view needs to be adopted generally as far as the workforce is concerned - the "protect the boys overtime" and "we have always done that" approach needs to be addressed and brought in line with accountable business models and responsibilities. An example would be - at a previous address I lived at - the buckets were emptied on a Saturday in overtime- - this wasn't a temporary measure until say an increase in the number of properties in the area increased - this has happened and - no surprise - the bin lorries still get the overtime!! 9105	An employee of West Lothian Council	1g. Workforce Arrangements	Whilst I appreciate that savings in this area are necessary, consideration should be given to paying the solicitors more money in line with other local authorities (ours is Â£32k-Â£37k when others are advertising for Â£35k-Â£39k). I would be willing to look at a reduction in flexi by half a day per month for more money as quite a lot of my flexi is lost anyway due to the number of hours worked and I can't always take this due to the high level of work. Given the turnover on solicitors, I think great consideration should be had into reviewing this area to include bringing back senior solicitor roles to retain staff and avoid people leaving to go to promoted positions in other local authorities; it seems such a loss to put so much time into that solicitor building up knowledge and experience, as well as good relationships with clients to lose it when they leave. If this is not considered, recruitment costs in this regard will remain high. In addition, there are currently just over 2 posts down in litigation. As a result, high costs are being met by the Council in terms of outsourcing cases which the current team does not have capacity to take. In addition, given that there will likely be a need to go back to statutory delivery of services following this consultation, it is very likely to be the case that litigation will be more busy as a support department. In order to be able to provide a buffer and support the various departments which are going to be under immense pressure, we need to be strong to support them. Consideration should also be had to employing trainee solicitors, who would have a valuable support role to solicitors and who would be able to take forward more simple cases themselves with support.	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	6. This is a positive suggestion. Officers will consider how this could be developed.	Thank you for your comment. 9117	An individual	1g. Workforce Arrangements	Councillors should look at their own status which seems to escape any review, rationalisation or streamlining and be ashamed of themselves with their attitude of self preservation at everyone else's expense. Local councillors are of course only some of the many political entities who survive on the backs of other people while purporting to be working for them. MSPs, MPs and MEPs and Peers added to local government give us five tiers of government who have structured the system to serve their own interests above those they govern. Not to forget the Civil Service feeding away in the background.	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	7. The respondent's comment was either not relevant to the question, inappropriate and/or contained personal and sensitive information.	Councillors are bound by a Code of Conduct. 9120	No Response	1g. Workforce Arrangements	Agree. but look at workforce spending and funding trips for Councillors on a Jolly!! and spending money on things like artefacts for museums. UK legislation sets out the regulations on what remuneration and type of expenses elected members are entitled to claim for. 9121	An individual	1g. Workforce Arrangements	This will no doubt have an impact on the low paid council employees.	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	2. The council has a number of systems and processes in place which support managers to monitor service performance and efficiency.
9123	An individual	1g. Workforce Arrangements	Agree this sounds like an area where change could represent savings. While this is the case as staff are one of the councils greatest assets this should be done as sensitively as possible using an evidence based approach	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	1. 9124	An employee of West Lothian Council	1g. Workforce Arrangements	Shorten the length of time providers contracts run for in order to ensure we always have the best price, instead of running years paying double for things other companies could provide us at half the cost. Using Facilities Management as a prime example of how to save money, they have gone from one admin, two managers to 5 area managers, 5 area co ordinators, god only knows how many cleaning co ordinators and cook co ordinators in the last 12 years.Now given that most of them are running in pairs, using pool cars surely this is not a 2-man operation? Also given the spare time the co ordinators appear to have...it doesnt take a genius to work out where costs can be cut here.	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	5b. It is proposed that this suggestion is not taken forward because it is likely that the costs of this proposal would outweigh the benefit.	For all procurement exercises, cost is not the only consideration. Quality is also a factor which is considered during the evaluation. All council contracts are subject to competition through the relevant procurement processes to ensure value for money.

9127	An individual	1g. Workforce Arrangements	You're all on db pensions. Virtually no one else is. Surely there's money that can be saved by bringing your pension policy to a dc scheme?	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	8. This suggestion is out with the responsibility of West Lothian Council. Where relevant, we will forward these comments to our partner organisations.	Pension costs have been rebalanced through an increase in employee contributions, and further national cost management changes to the Local Government Pension Scheme.
9128	An individual	1g. Workforce Arrangements	This sounds sensible. Important to have unions/partnership involvement to have staff input at every stage so staff opinions are at centre of decisions.	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	1. The respondent advised that they agree with the proposal.	The Council is consulting with staff , trade unions and stakeholders on the proposals.
9129	An individual	1g. Workforce Arrangements	People must not lose out . This is a priority!	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	1. The respondent advised that they agree with the proposal. 9130	An employee of West Lothian Council	1g. Workforce Arrangements	I would also like to add to the comments I am aware have been made by my colleagues regarding the sick absence payments which I feel need reviewed to stop payment for the first 3 days or even the first week of absence, this would of course need to consider implications for the staff who are justifiably absent with serious health issues. Regards	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	1. The respondent advised that they agree with the proposal.	The council actively manages all absences in terms of its sickness absence policy, which is subject to constant review, in consultation with the recognised trade unions, to ensure that it is fit for purpose.
9131	An individual	1g. Workforce Arrangements	This is down to the nitty-gritty. Almost inevitably the only ways for any Council to make savings is to either cut staff levels, cut services or raise taxes or a combination of all three. Once again I hope that the Council handles it sensitively with no compulsory redundancies and that the bulk of these will be by voluntary redundancy or natural wastage.	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	1. The respondent advised that they agree with the proposal.	The council has been able to delivery significant budget reductions in the last 10 years without the requirement for compulsory redundancies. The scale of the further reductions required over the next five years will be challenging and the council will seek to use the existing range of workforce management and organisational change policies to deliver the required reductions in staffing numbers.

Information on elected members claims are regularly reported in an open and transparent manner.
9136	No Response	1g. Workforce Arrangements	Introducing a redundancy policy again will allow people to leave and thus free up significant sums. There will be large numbers of staff who will willingly take redundancy if the package is good.	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	4. The council is already doing this.	The council has a Early Retirement/Voluntary Severance scheme which is available to all employees subject to a suitable business case being submitted within the set affordability criteria.
9137	No Response	1g. Workforce Arrangements	Whilst staffing can be costly there is no doubt that the fantastic outcomes and services that West Lothian Council delivers could not be achieved without the largely dedicated and motivated staff many services have. I would comment that many council employees work on a flexi system restricted to 8am and 6pm - increasing these flexi hours to say 7am to 7pm or beyond, and allowing more flexible use of the flexi system e.g. on agreement with line manager more than 1.5 days flexi leave in any period, would allow WLC to deliver the same, if not enhanced, services to communities whilst having a lower spend on overtime. E.g. evening work could be done under flexi time rather than paid at an enhanced overtime rate. Introducing more flexibility to the flexi system would allow staff and managers to meet demand at a lower cost to the council.	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	6. This is a positive suggestion. Officers will consider how this could be developed.	Thank you for your response. Officers will consider how this can be developed.

9140	No Response	1g. Workforce Arrangements	It is never nice to hear of people losing their jobs but the council is already stretched in terms of staff across many departments. 9144	An employee of West Lothian Council	1g. Workforce Arrangements	Sickness Absence is costly to WLC. I propose that the SA Policy is reviewed to give management more discretion (without discriminating) to apply discretion as to whether employees get 6 months full pay (long term absence) or/and remove full payment for short term absence. This will save money on those who abuse the system and where WLC have to pay overtime to deliver statutory services.	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	1. 9166	An individual	1g. Workforce Arrangements	There has been a lot of consolidation of council services I don't see how further consolidation will work. Putting extra responsibility onto existing staff and then reducing staff or not replacing them when they leave will only see an increase in stress in the workplace and time off due to sickness. Which leads to bad customer service. Mistakes being made, work not being completed.	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	2. 9179	An individual	1g. Workforce Arrangements	WLC should seek to reduce staffing costs wherever possible. It seems prudent that internal administration and management tasks, such as HR, are shared with other councils and public authorities to achieve efficiency savings. Where possible, the council should seek to offer professional services to other councils or businesses to further monetise existing services.	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	1. The respondent advised that they agree with the proposal.	The council has an existing shared service agreement with South Lanarkshire Council for a shared IT data centre and will continue to develop opportunities for further shared service arrangements with other public bodies. The council is also progressing with West Lothian College the provision of shared services opportunities across a range of service areas.

9180	An individual	1g. Workforce Arrangements	Strongly agree al other sectors are being targeted Council should be leading be example. There should be no need for overtime the working week should be aligned to meet needs and changed to suit seasonal demands. Enhancements and any allowances should be stopped as majority of private sector staff live on a salary with no perks. Percentage paid to pensions should be increased by the staff and the amount put in by council should be reduced. Police Scotland staff pay 14.5% off their salary with NO payment from other sources why should Council staff be treated different	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	8. This suggestion is out with the responsibility of West Lothian Council. Where relevant, we will forward these comments to our partner organisations.	The proposed review of terms and conditions would seek to review the use of overtime, allowances and enhancements, whilst at the same time consider the rates payable when used.
9181	An individual	1g. Workforce Arrangements	Time in Lieu should be the norm, and not overtime. Flexible working is more efficient. Expenses need to be examined and challenged in some cases. Staff sickness levels are too high, and this should be addressed properly.	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	1. The respondent advised that they agree with the proposal.	The proposed review of terms and conditions would seek to review the use of overtime, allowances and enhancements, whilst at the same time consider the rates payable when used. The council actively manages all absences in terms of its sickness absence policy, which is subject to constant review, in consultation with the recognised trade unions, to ensure that it is fit for purpose
9182	An individual	1g. Workforce Arrangements	I feel the council has bowed to the unions for too long, On looking at the council staffing structure it seems to be top heavy. I work in the commercial sector and our business regularly puts departments through consultation to changes hours/contracts. I see no reason why the council should not do the same	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	1. The respondent advised that they agree with the proposal.	The council continually reviews the tiers of management and span of control across all service levels against a target 5 x 5 structure. This ensures that the council continues to operate with an effective and efficient managerial structure.

9185	An employee of West Lothian Council	1g. Workforce Arrangements	We must be careful not to burn out staff without providing adequate recompense for their activities. If there is no benefit to doing things and taking on extra responsibility, people will not do so - leaving massive gaps in our middle and upper levels of management.	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	2. The respondent advised that they either did not agree or did not believe the council should consider the proposal.	The proposed review of terms and conditions would seek to review the use of overtime, allowances and enhancements, whilst at the same time consider the rates payable when used.
9186	An individual	1g. Workforce Arrangements	If shift allowance is part of a contract of work, it would be unfair to remove it. It will cause a lot of ill feeling from staff who get shift allowance because they work unsociable hours. Staff have stuck with WLC through previous reorganisations etc and their salaries should not be compromised.	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	2. The respondent advised that they either did not agree or did not believe the council should consider the proposal.	The proposed review of terms and conditions would seek to review the use of overtime, allowances and enhancements, whilst at the same time consider the rates payable when used.
9187	An individual	1g. Workforce Arrangements	Can foresee a lot of training required for staff to be fully competent at delivering digital services. In the move towards digital, should there not also be a move toward working from home for council workers especially if the contact with the customer is only digital, This would be another way to reduce overheads. And what provision will there be for that section of the community that won't do digital or cannot do digital.	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	4. The council is already doing this.	The council has an IT infrastructure which supports working from home and individuals working from various council sites throughout West Lothian. The opportunity to work on a mobile and flexible basis continues to be available to staff.
9188	An employee of West Lothian Council	1g. Workforce Arrangements	Without staff you might as well shut up shop. As stated earlier WLC has a fantastic multi skilled workforce that go above and beyond what is expected of them. Coupled with the fact that their wages have dropped in real terms over the past 8 years it is a testament to their commitment to their job and to the residents of West Lothian. The current services are running on next to no staff at all. Or is that the plan???	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	2. Workforce Arrangements - (general)	5c. It is proposed that this suggestion is not taken forward because it is not consistent with the council's values and priorities.	The Council is required to provide efficient and effective support for elective members and has reviewed the staffing complement to ensure that it is as efficient as possible whilst still providing appropriate support.
9190	An individual	1g. Workforce Arrangements	Disagree. Performance improvement measures will provide best value. Reward the right staff for the jobs done properly. Agree that you lose those under performing or lacking skills.	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	2. 9191	An employee of West Lothian Council	1g. Workforce Arrangements	I think people are already doing more for less so if we are letting staff go they should be given the redundancy package they deserve instead of being put on a redeployment list and then terminated at the end. It is a way of getting out of paying redundancy - again making staff feel undervalued.	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	4. The council is already doing this. The fact that you get a better hourly rate working for the coucil and better holidays etc is just inefficient, the coucil like private business must cut there cloth according and spend within its means. This is something I 100% support. The saying goes is enjoy it when times are good but when times are hard everyone shares the pain! 9209	An employee of West Lothian Council	1g. Workforce Arrangements	A review of internal policies may be a better are to focus attention. Managers and services should be allowed to take into account the larger picture when dealing with people who are off long term sick every other year or people who use special leave provisions as additional annual leave. Abuse of the policies is widespread and this not only comes at a huge cost to the council but also puts pressure on dedicated staff and reduces morale within teams. 9239	An individual	1g. Workforce Arrangements	I feel that if these savings do not in any way constitute job losses, it should be ok going forward.	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	1. The respondent advised that they agree with the proposal.	The proposed review of terms and conditions would seek to review the use of overtime, allowances and enhancements, whilst at the same time consider the rates payable when used. The council is a living wage employer and staff on the lowest grades receive a living wage subsidy.
9240	An individual	1g. Workforce Arrangements	As long as there is no forced redundancies.	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	1. The respondent advised that they agree with the proposal.	The council has been able to delivery significant budget reductions in the last 10 years without the requirement for compulsory redundancies. The scale of the further reductions required over the next five years will be challenging and the council will seek to use the existing range of workforce management and organisational change policies to deliver the required reductions in staffing numbers.
9241	An individual	1g. Workforce Arrangements	I think the Council Staff are currently overworked and an easy target. You will find Staff moving to other Employers who treat them better. You may end up with a Council with no Staff - great value for money	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	2. The respondent advised that they either did not agree or did not believe the council should consider the proposal.	The proposed review of terms and conditions would seek to review the use of overtime, allowances and enhancements, whilst at the same time consider the rates payable when used. The council is a living wage employer and staff on the lowest grades receive a living wage subsidy.
9242	An employee of West Lothian Council	1g. Workforce Arrangements	The HR policies need to be reconsidered. There are substantial allowances that the private sector do not provide i.e Special Leave for Care of ill dependents, time off to attend hospital appointments, discounted sickness leave during pregnancy etc. Although they were introduced in good faith I feel that some of them encourage staff to take time off work rather than use their holidays. The annual and flexi leave provision is already generous and there is also the addition of 7 public holidays per year. Consideration to reduce the flexi entitlement to one day per period would assist in staffing resource. Although the trade unions are pushing for higher pay increases I personally would prefer to stay on the same salary if it would protect posts. The public perception of the council manual workforce is not a good one and I think that this needs to be addressed as to the output compared to the costs that are incurred.	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	1. The respondent advised that they agree with the proposal.	The proposed review of terms and conditions would seek to review the use of overtime, allowances and enhancements, whilst at the same time consider the rates payable when used. The council is a living wage employer and staff on the lowest grades receive a living wage subsidy.
9243	An employee of West Lothian Council	1g. Workforce Arrangements	I think this review is long overdue. There remains too much unfair inconsistency in how different services (and even teams within services) are managed and treated in terms of overtime.	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	1. The respondent advised that they agree with the proposal.	Thank you for your response. Your comment has been noted
9244	An employee of West Lothian Council	1g. Workforce Arrangements	Flexible working within the council should be looked at in a more financially beneficial way. It is often seen as a perk or only put in place if someone requests it for childcare etc, however a more fundamental look at flexible and remote working could potentially bring about significant savings. Closing a building for a half-day or having staff work from home or another council location on a certain day can both benefit the employee and make savings. This should be looked at purely from a financial savings perspective rather than a family friendly one (although the end result may meet both requirements).	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	4. The council is already doing this.	The council has workforce management policies which allow consideration of flexible working arrangements. Opportunities to expand use of these approaches will be investigated. The council has an IT infrastructure which supports working from home and individuals working from various council sites throughout West Lothian. The opportunity to work on a mobile and flexible basis continues to be available to staff.

9245	No Response	1g. Workforce Arrangements	A large number of roles are currently filled by unpaid volunteers that is saving the council thousands of pounds.also the average council worker has not or had very little pay increases over the years.therefore it must be councillors and top-level managers that are costing the council these high costs.it would be obvious then that these roles are the first to be looked at and cut saving a huge amount. The ammount of times you see council vans parked up while driving around the county with the men inside doing nothing makes you wonder.On a regular basis there are four coucil vans parked overnight and over the weekend in the street I live who controls these vans and how the employees use them	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	7. 9248	An employee of West Lothian Council	1g. Workforce Arrangements	Long overdue. The current terms and conditions do not incentivise those individuals who continually perform well, meet outcomes and provide good service to the council, whereas others who may be problematic and are repeatedly off work for significant periods (leaving others to pick up with their work in their absence) receive the same remuneration. 9254	An employee of West Lothian Council	1g. Workforce Arrangements	Look at the out of hours service and providing a make safe option. In conjunction with a review of shift patterns for staff to do the work. Stop the 9 day fortnight at Building services - It is only beneficial to staff on this condition and not useful for others or customers - It also means that work is reduced every Friday and will impact on service delivery, customer satisfaction and costs (work not getting done and passed onto out of hours.) introduce time management. 9256	An individual	1g. Workforce Arrangements	I think that the value (not just monetary) delivered and created by your staff is the key issue. Do they feel ownership? How empowered are they? Are they encouraged to think creatively? Salaries are what show in the accounts, but that is only half the picture. (If that.) And can you draw further on their knowledge, experience and expertise? (There are stories about plants being thrown out because there is no-one to plant them, and machinery being binned rather than repaired for example - would better communication across departments help?) It sometimes feels that the accountants are driving the strategy. Really it should be the other way round.	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	7. 9279	An individual	1g. Workforce Arrangements	Staffing costs should be taken into account when balancing the books, and the profit that is made by private companies should go to funding staff costs rather than the tax payers paying for it, as the council covering staff costs encourages management and the higher ups in the organisations raising their own salaries rather than those who need it. 9284	An employee of West Lothian Council	1g. Workforce Arrangements	Staff shortages in key frontline services are an issue due to posts being left unfilled and also high levels of absence. The council must revise the absence policy - which is being "flexed" by some members of staff to a ridiculous level. Their colleagues tire of having to cover for these repeat offenders who work the policy to their advantage and always seem to take the maximum number of days before a trigger hits. Staff with genuine absence are not being supported properly as so much time is spent on people who take the maximum days off and special leave off a year. I think staff absence should be measured over a longer period than 12 months.	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	2. The respondent advised that they either did not agree or did not believe the council should consider the proposal.	The council actively manages all absences in terms of its sickness absence policy, which is subject to constant review, in consultation with the recognised trade unions, to ensure that it is fit for purpose.

9286	No Response	1g. Workforce Arrangements	It is not from the bottom staff that there needs to be cuts and changes as there has already been significant cuts by not replacing staff when other staff members leaving. Staff working with minimum staffing levels has also reduced costs. Services are running at the minute with low staff. There should be cuts to the management levels within WLC, there does not need to be team leaders and neighbourhood managers and also service development officers. 9290	An employee of West Lothian Council	1g. Workforce Arrangements	Any changes should be fair and proportionate, ideally with a period of adjustment or applied only to new contracts. 9293	An individual	1g. Workforce Arrangements	Community Consultation is vital at each step in the process! Individual communities should be able to stand up and voice their concerns about changes to services, some which may become irreversible. Employment is key to all proposals, the more people in good, well paid jobs equals rent being paid back into the local authority, council tax being paid, money being spent locally within the area. All this will generate revenue to keep our services. We have to invest now in our futures as the past 10 years have been shambolic due to an SNP administration that froze council tax to buy their way into power. They should have concentrated on the day job. We have gone from being UK Council of the year in 2006 to this. Cut backs. We need investment in encouraging businesses to have confidence in West Lothian. We need people in good jobs that in turn will spend money locally. We need the education back to where it once was. We need crime free streets, better health for young and old. We need to move with the times and get the fundamentals right. Our towns and villages are suffering as well. The infrastructure needs looked at. Once we were proud to walk around. The cut backs to roads and NETS is unnecessary. If it means increasing the council tax then so be it. Lack of investment now means we will all suffer later in life.	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	7. The respondent's comment was either not relevant to the question, inappropriate and/or contained personal and sensitive information. 9296	An individual	1g. Workforce Arrangements	A pitifully small saving on a wage bill of about Â£320 million. Include this in 1a.	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	1. The respondent advised that they agree with the proposal.	Thank you for your response. Your comment has been noted
9297	No Response	1g. Workforce Arrangements	Again are these cuts putting too much workload/pressure on already maxed out staff members?	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	1. The respondent advised that they agree with the proposal.	The proposed review of terms and conditions would seek to review the use of overtime, allowances and enhancements, whilst at the same time consider the rates payable when used. The council is a living wage employer and staff on the lowest grades receive a living wage subsidy.
9298	An individual	1g. Workforce Arrangements	Having had 2 family members work in local council I believe that there is a degree of inefficiency. While a very nice perk, things like flexi-time with hours being built up for extra days off are maybe a luxury which cannot be sustained in these difficult times.	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	1. The respondent advised that they agree with the proposal.	Thank you for your response. Your comment has been noted
9299	An individual	1g. Workforce Arrangements	Although this would not be a popular choice by employees, if this can be accommodated in a well thought out way without detriment to statutory services it appears to be a realistic saving. 9301	No Response	1g. Workforce Arrangements	Hope this will not mean the Council will stop it's support of the Living Wage which helps to end poverty in working people.	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	1. The respondent advised that they agree with the proposal.	The council is an accredited living wage employer.
9302	An individual	1g. Workforce Arrangements	How can you expect people to work for less, another joke.	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	2. The respondent advised that they either did not agree or did not believe the council should consider the proposal.	The proposed review of terms and conditions would seek to review the use of overtime, allowances and enhancements, whilst at the same time consider the rates payable when used. The council is a living wage employer and staff on the lowest grades receive a living wage subsidy.
9303	An individual	1g. Workforce Arrangements	The only savings in staffing costs should be in getting rid of upper management who get paid far too much.	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	5b. It is proposed that this suggestion is not taken forward because it is likely that the costs of this proposal would outweigh the benefit.	The council continually reviews the tiers of management and span of control across all service levels against a target 5 x 5 structure. This ensures that the council continues to operate with an effective and efficient managerial structure.
9304	An individual	1g. Workforce Arrangements	Has the council considered compulsory redundancies, and does it have a compulsory redundancy policy?	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	1. The respondent advised that they agree with the proposal.	The council has been able to delivery significant budget reductions in the last 10 years without the requirement for compulsory redundancies. The scale of the further reductions required over the next five years will be challenging and the council will seek to use the existing range of workforce management and organisational change policies to deliver the required reductions in staffing numbers.
9305	An individual	1g. Workforce Arrangements	There should be no changes to the existing! Salaries and terms/conditions should be improved!	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	2. The council is subject to national pay bargaining and the salary scales for officers are determined nationally. The council is subject to national pay bargaining, and terms and conditions.
9306	No Response	1g. Workforce Arrangements	I think the council is to top heavy with management also some of the staff could do with an intensive customer service course as most especially in the housing department are rude and obnoxious. Also the lack of accountability within the council is terrible	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	5b. It is proposed that this suggestion is not taken forward because it is likely that the costs of this proposal would outweigh the benefit.	The council continually reviews the tiers of management and span of control across all service levels against a target 5 x 5 structure. 9307	An employee of West Lothian Council	1g. Workforce Arrangements	Agree although no compulsory redundancies.	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	1. 9308	No Response	1g. Workforce Arrangements	Agree that the Council needs to review this area. 9309	An individual	1g. Workforce Arrangements	More flexibility should be given to public holiday - e.g. Easter Monday etc. Why do you not introduce a scheme where staff could buy extra holidays if need be? Let people who are not happy in the Council go - they only affect the good & hard working staff.	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	6. This is a positive suggestion. Officers will consider how this could be developed.	Thank you for your response. Officers will consider how this can be developed.
9310	An employee of West Lothian Council	1g. Workforce Arrangements - (general)	6. This is a positive suggestion. Officers will consider how this could be developed.	Thank you for your response. Officers will consider how this can be developed.
9311	An individual	1g. Workforce Arrangements	Like any organisation faced with reducing its overheads, maximising the voluntary route first before any forced changes are tabled would allow those staff that wish to leave do so and facilitate either a replacement at a lower staffing level or consumed within the organisation as a saving if the business need allows.	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	1. The respondent advised that they agree with the proposal.	The council has a Early Retirement/Voluntary Severance scheme which is available to all employees subject to a suitable business case being submitted within the set affordability criteria.
9312	An employee of West Lothian Council	1g. Workforce Arrangements	Although a review of terms and conditions may be required WLC should ensure that this does not prevent them from recruiting and retaining staff as some of these terms and conditions are the only reason that people join councils as often the salary scales are out of line with the private sector - time served trades people Maybe a more relevant review would be off internal policies and procedures. The sickness absence policy is often abused and is clear to see that some individuals take a long period of sick every second year. This is not only a huge cost to the council but can be demoralising for other staff and can have a knock on effect on other employees health due to increased workloads and so on	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	1. The respondent advised that they agree with the proposal.	The council actively manages all absences in terms of its sickness absence policy, which is subject to constant review, in consultation with the recognised trade unions, to ensure that it is fit for purpose.
9313	No Response	1g. Workforce Arrangements	Look at the executives pay before looking at the people who actually work their backsides off for a pittance of what the executives do who spend the majority of the day on their backsides in suits	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	8. The council is subject to national pay bargaining and the salary scales for officers are determined nationally. The council is subject to national pay bargaining, and terms and conditions.
9314	An employee of West Lothian Council	1g. Workforce Arrangements	This particular proposal is particularly vague with regard to reviewing staff terms, allowances etc. Are you referring to flexi time? If so, this is the only perk some staff have in an otherwise oppressive workplace so it would seem foolish to remove this.	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	7. The respondent's comment was either not relevant to the question, inappropriate and/or contained personal and sensitive information.	The proposed review of terms and conditions would seek to review the use of overtime, allowances and enhancements, whilst at the same time consider the rates payable when used. The council has no proposals to remove the flexi scheme.
9315	No Response	1g. Workforce Arrangements	Through not giving staff pay rises the council has engineered very low morale amongst the employees and further streamlining can only make it worse so think again.	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	2. The respondent advised that they either did not agree or did not believe the council should consider the proposal.	The council is subject to national pay bargaining and the salary scales for officers are determined nationally. The council is subject to national pay bargaining, and terms and conditions.
9316	An individual	1g. Workforce Arrangements	This should only be put forward with a clear benchmarking of other Local Authority Terms & Conditions. The current status, post Single Status, is a totally unsatisfactory mix of old Red/Green Book conditions and WL specific arrangements. A clearly standardises system should be applied across the council, backed up by comparisons with other Local Authorities to reduce the likelihood of strike actions, which given the bulk of those paid enhancements are within frontline operational services is a considerable risk.	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	1. The respondent advised that they agree with the proposal.	The proposed review of terms and conditions would seek to review the use of overtime, allowances and enhancements, whilst at the same time consider the rates payable when used. The council regularly benchmarks terms and conditions with other Scottish Local Authorities.
9317	An individual	1g. Workforce Arrangements	A change of view on true mobile working and home working should be taken at a senior level to reduce the waste of time and effort that is taken traveling between locations within and outwith West Lothian. It is proven that productivity improves in business where this approach is taken as opposed to a culture of presenteeism which is old fashioned, not in line with digital transformation, and not in customers best interests (as they would rather contact the council outside of the 9-5 for many services.	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	4. The council is already doing this.	The council has an IT infrastructure which supports working from home and individuals working from various council sites throughout West Lothian. The opportunity to work on a mobile and flexible basis continues to be available to staff.
9318	An individual	1g. Workforce Arrangements	The workforce are already underpaid, so a cut in staffing costs is unlikely to allow the same level of service to be delivered. Care must be taken to ensure that any changes are discussed and agreed with the workforce to avoid risk of industrial action, which would negate any savings.	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	1. The respondent advised that they agree with the proposal.	The proposed review of terms and conditions would seek to review the use of overtime, allowances and enhancements, whilst at the same time consider the rates payable when used. Any proposed changes will be discussed and consulted upon with staff and trade unions.
9319	An individual	1g. Workforce Arrangements	I think the effectiveness of decision making process needs a complete overhaul to enable the council and stakeholders to work in a far more agile way. The 'treacle' we go through to make things happen must be costing a fortune. If the structures and roles are changed but not the environment in which these new roles operate this will be a wasted effort in my experience.	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	7. The respondent's comment was either not relevant to the question, inappropriate and/or contained personal and sensitive information.	The council's Standing Orders and scheme of delegation are regularly reviewed to ensure that decisions are taken within the terms of the relevant legislation.
9320	An individual	1g. Workforce Arrangements	Remember staff are people with commitments. Goodwill only goes so far and in my experience is diminishing with every saving. We live in a society dependent on people spending as retail is the main employer. Reduced spending power of staff will negatively impact on the local economy. So far many of your savings look as if they will increase staff responsibility if not their workload and then you will in effect decrease their income. A moral dilemma?	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	7. The respondent's comment was either not relevant to the question, inappropriate and/or contained personal and sensitive information.	The proposed review of terms and conditions would seek to review the use of overtime, allowances and enhancements, whilst at the same time consider the rates payable when used.

9330	An individual	1g. Workforce Arrangements	It is my understanding that the council pays all staff their calculated living wage - Â£8.15 or abouts. This is way too generous for under 18s. Workforce Arrangements - (general)	1. The respondent advised that they agree with the proposal.	The council has been able to delivery significant budget reductions in the last 10 years without the requirement for compulsory redundancies. The scale of the further reductions required over the next five years will be challenging and the council will seek to use the existing range of workforce management and organisational change policies to deliver the required reductions in staffing numbers.
9360	An individual	1g. Workforce Arrangements	Stop using contractors in all areas. Stop using recruitment agencies which charge a fee. Do more direct advertising and use Job Centres. Stop wasting public money on expensive staff resources and middle men!	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	1. The respondent advised that they agree with the proposal.	The council will continue to use internal services to deliver services where possible. The Council engages external contractors or agencies where required for specialist works. This approach will continue to ensure best value use of resources available within the council.

9361	An individual	1g. Workforce Arrangements	As 1A - Excellent if all of the above are carried out. However on current personally experienced performance it will take a huge effort to even provide an improvement. Further why has the " efficiency and effectiveness" not been applied to current procedures. No real criteria to be reach is actually stated and the starting point for these " efficiency and effectiveness" upgrade to services is not evident. Vagueness in targets to achieve . How will residents know when this is achieved?	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	1. The respondent advised that they agree with the proposal.	The proposed review of terms and conditions would seek to review the use of overtime, allowances and enhancements, whilst at the same time consider the rates payable when used. The council has a flexible working policy and staff can request to work reduced hours, where this meets the needs of the service.

9365	An employee of West Lothian Council	1g. Workforce Arrangements	Could savings possibly be made by looking at management across the council? By looking at duplication of roles? Integration of services?	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	1. The respondent advised that they agree with the proposal.	Experience has demonstrated that the council can deliver an more effective and cost effective service through the centralisation of generic tasks, use of technology and retention of specialist provision within service. This model still allows the opportunity for staff to engage with council officers on a face to face basis at the most effective and convenient level. The council will continue to review opportunities for integration and modernisation of service delivery. The council continually reviews the tiers of management and span of control across all service levels against a target 5 x 5 structure. This ensures that the council continues to operate with an effective and efficient managerial structure.

9369	An individual	1g. Workforce Arrangements	It is important to recognise the need for front line staff in all service areas, and any loss of staff in any service area should be handled with appropriate emotional management for the staff facing job loss. There is no point in not acknowledging this aspect of the plan to save financially as the handling of interpersonal relations is more important than ever with the coming transformation. This really goes for all the areas reflected in the consultation so this is a general response to the overall savings proposed. Please see this link for some ideas: https://www.gsb.stanford.edu/insights/jeff-weiner-manage-compassionately-prepare-next-worker-revolution If many people are going to be facing job losses, there should be some consideration as to how they can be supported in finding alternative work, alternative trades, alternative education perhaps, as this will directly affect the council services in another regard, i.e. more people on benefits perhaps?	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	6. This is a positive suggestion. Officers will consider how this could be developed.	Thank you for your response. Officers will consider how this can be developed.
9370	An employee of West Lothian Council	1g. Workforce Arrangements	Also introduce options for employees to 'buy' additional annual leave.	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	1. The respondent advised that they agree with the proposal.	The council offers opportunity to work flexible hours, work part time or purchase additional holidays where this supports the needs of the service.
9371	An individual	1g. Workforce Arrangements	As an employee I would like to see our current flexi system remain in place.	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	1. The council has a flexible working policy and staff can request to work reduced hours, where this meets the needs of the service.
9372	An individual	1g. Workforce Arrangements	West Lothian Council is an accredited living wage employer, and has a responsibility as the largest employer in the local authority to remain so. While staff present the largest proportion of the council's budget, they're also responsible for everything positive that the council does in the local community. When allocating council funding, notice should be paid to social value, rather than cost. It would be impossible to evidence that any loss of jobs would have a positive effect on the local community, nor on the remaining workers required to pick up the created additional work, so the council should look to retain staffing numbers regardless of the budget gap. Any adverse change to terms and conditions of WLC employees would, I expect, be fiercely opposed by the recognised trade unions.	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	2. The respondent advised that they either did not agree or did not believe the council should consider the proposal.	The proposed review of terms and conditions would seek to review the use of overtime, allowances and enhancements, whilst at the same time consider the rates payable when used. Any service restructure will be undertaken in accordance with the council organisational change policy and in consultation with the recognised trade unions. The Council has developed a Corporate Workforce Plan and Service specific workforce plans which monitor staffing requirements and ensure as far as possible that staffing complements and staff skills meet the service requirements.
9373	No Response	1g. Workforce Arrangements	A Council wide "pay cut" is probably not great for staff morale - as a Manager it is always better to physically reduce numbers as opposed to cut everyone's pay. Its tough, but if handled correctly there can be a bounce back after redundancy. But a complete pay cut to everyone can be a very difficult plan to implement - with long standing resentments. However £1.4 million would equate to about 50 staff - but appreciate this on top of the reductions detailed above. Also not sure of the "one off cash cost" of such large redundancy numbers.	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	1. The respondent advised that they agree with the proposal.	The proposed review of terms and conditions would seek to review the use of overtime, allowances and enhancements, whilst at the same time consider the rates payable when used.

9375	An individual	1g. Workforce Arrangements	Obviously jobs will be lost and wages frozen or held back. Not sure you can achieve aims with reductions that are proposed. 9381	An employee of West Lothian Council	1g. Workforce Arrangements	one thing which might make working more efficient is to have all software updating carried out outwith 8am - 6pm. Currently software is often updated during these times resulting in lost production and staff with nothing to do. If the IT staff had contracts which required them to carry out this work out of normal office hours there would be less disruption to the rest of the staff. While this might mean giving some incentive to IT staff I think this would be more than compensated for by the periods when other staff are unproductive as this can amount to hundreds of man hours lost. 9388	An individual	1g. Workforce Arrangements	Perhaps time and money could be saved if all software upgrades etc were carried out after working hours. Recently CRM upgrades caused lost production time with a number of staff. If IT staff had changed contracts which required them to work out of normal working hours so that loss of productivity is kept to absolute minimum this could save money. 9390	No Response	1g. Workforce Arrangements	Perhaps savings could be made by insuring that all software upgrades made to either all staff of sections of staff could be carried out after the core working time. For example work was recently carried out on CRM which meant staff using this system could not work effectively or several hours. The number of man hours lost must have been greater than the cost of asking a few IT staff work out of their normal working time, even if overtime had to be paid. Most private sector businesses do not lose working time due to regular software upgrades, the contacts of IT staff are such that they are expected at certain times to work outwith core times to minimise or prevent any loss of time for other staff. 9391	An individual	1g. Encouraging staff to accept that services need to be provided outwith Mon - Fri 9-5 is important, especially as council constituents are already well aware of this themselves, with more and more people having to work weekends, evenings, nights, and holidays, without extra payments. 9395	An employee of West Lothian Council	1g. Workforce Arrangements	I understand the savings have to be found from some element of downgrading pay and conditions. However, there is widespread lack of consistency between how service managers, heads of service and HR view the current arrangements. The recent review of TOIL arrangements took place at some considerable effort to gather the data and nothing came from it - so once again an exercise was started and not completed. If the council actually insisted on these managers following the policies and guidance that is laid down, there would be little deviation and less waste. It seems that these things are viewed as too difficult to enforce - when in reality abiding by HR policy is part of managers role. There are savings to be made through enforcement of the existing policies.	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	1. The respondent advised that they agree with the proposal. 9402	An employee of West Lothian Council	1g. Workforce Arrangements	I think this is an area that is highly contentious. Most staff are already overworked, rather than cutting posts as and when someone leaves the authority, it would be more beneficial if there was more that could be done to discipline staff who are not meeting the needs of their client group or expectations of the service and terminating the employment of people who have terrible sickness records. this is where there is thousands of pounds being lost every year. 9405	An individual	1g. Workforce Arrangements	The staff are the most important commodity in west Lothian council. Staff have not had a decent and reasonable pay rise for far too long already and now you are proposing as a council to take reduce their current terms and conditions. I feel that if staff have any sense they should propose this and fight it through their union and legally dragging it out which will in the end make any saving much reduced from your proposal above. If you want to reduce staffing costs - get rid of some of your highest most senior management posts or make cuts to terms and conditions or salaries above £70,000 only, give them a reduced pay rise. Get rid of development posts and that will save money. Cutting allowances and overtime arrangements is only going to result in demotivated staff not willing to give any goodwill charging for every minute extra of their time. They will be resentful of giving any part of themselves and you will end up with higher sickness, lower retention, unmotivated, unproductive staff and those who will absolutely work to rule. 9408	An employee of West Lothian Council	1g. Workforce Arrangements	If pay cuts, loss of sleepovers, loss of shift allowance, loss of overtime is implemented then I would hope that this is from the top down...cutting pay for front line workers demoralises staff and could possibly lead to staff leaving Front line staff have a hard enough time trying to budget their salary without the stress of more cuts How about implementing the sickness policy and cutting staff who relentlessly play the system, 6 months full pay off sick and then magically cured of whatever illness they were off with !! and then back to work until they can take the 6 months off again	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	1. Better succession planning and knowledge transfer instead of staff creating niche posts for themselves.	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	1. The respondent advised that they agree with the proposal.	Any service restructure will be undertaken in accordance with the council organisational change policy and in consultation with the recognised trade unions. The Council has developed a Corporate Workforce Plan and Service specific workforce plans which monitor staffing requirements and ensure as far as possible that staffing complements and staff skills meet the service requirements.

9420	An individual	1g. Workforce Arrangements	The workforce is a key aspect of West Lothian Councils performance and success. Reducing staffing could significantly could have a negative impact on this but various services joining and working together may save additional staffing requirements. The proposed review of terms and conditions would seek to review the use of overtime, allowances and enhancements, whilst at the same time consider the rates payable when used. The council will continue to look for opportunities for services to work together to deliver efficiencies.
9421	An individual	1g. Workforce Arrangements	The key to all services operating within the council lies with the staffing roles. In order to keep their jobs I would imagine staff would rather take an additional responsibilities and work closely with others rather than loose their position within the council. If staff working with the council for a long period of time loose their job this would show the councils flaws of recruiting too much staff and not taking the budget into account in the first place.	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	1. The respondent advised that they agree with the proposal.	The council has introduced improved workforce planning and greater coordination of vacant posts, fixed term appointments and employees who have been displaced through organisational change. The council is also reviewing the terms of the Redeployment Policy to offer greater opportunities for the redeployment of employees subject to suitable business need.
9422	No Response	1g. Workforce Arrangements	Council staff have been on a pay freeze for a number of years. Given some of the specialised and professional jobs being done within the council, these are not well paid in comparison to private practice, yet the roles are becoming increasingly more difficult and increased pressure being put on staff and resources. Staff are now expected to give more and more, whilst receiving less and less in terms of salary and benefits. We are seeing higher staff turnover and are struggling to get and maintain staff as we are not able to be competitive. This will get worse over time due to the proposals. Given there is to be a 3% increase in council tax which staff resident in the area will require to pay to make up the shortfall in the budget, there is no such increase in salary for staff. What we need is trained, good quality staff that can be invested in and that is not what is happening, and will not happen in the future and higher staff turnover will cost the council more in the long term and impact on ability to provide services. 9424	An employee of West Lothian Council	1g. Workforce Arrangements	Which work is being considered for cross-council delivery? How will this work in practice? How many jobs are expected to be lost within West Lothian Council to generate an estimated saving of Â£10.4m? How will this affect the local economy? How will staff losses and cross-council delivery impact on service delivery? Who would WLC work with? COSLA? Neighbouring councils? What is the statutory basis for the cross-council delivery of services?	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	3. The respondent advised that they had no comment to make.	At this stage, detailed budget reduction measures have not been developed, therefore there is no specific information on how the savings will be achieved and the timescales for delivery. This will become clearer as the measures progress following the consultation process and approval of the council's budget strategy.
9425	An employee of West Lothian Council	1g. 9426	An individual	1g. Workforce Arrangements	I am not happy with this although I accept that it is essential. West Lothian Council shall have to work hard with the trade unions to deliver this. I am a supporter of "No compulsory redundancies" although I am realistic enough to accept that this position shall be very difficult to maintain.	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	1. The council is subject to national pay bargaining, and terms and conditions.
9427	No Response	1g. Workforce Arrangements	Staff are already under stress of trying to deliver the identified better outcomes of the council. As staffing levels digress the amount of work on the remaining workforce increases and staff are going off with stress and motivation is sinking. 9464	An employee of West Lothian Council	1g. Workforce Arrangements	The abolition of flexible working hours and a 9 to 5 hour day implemented. This would have a potential of increasing workforce effectiveness as a person would no longer have a potential to take an extra 18 days flexible leave in a year, on top of their 25/30 days. And no abuse of flexible working hours would be available to the workforce, along with less administrative work to do in correcting adjustments etc. An overview of how much overtime is actually needed and if constant overtime has been approved during weekends in certain areas surely a question should be asked as to "why this is needed". And if needed could this not be more effective to employ a fixed term employee to the required area.	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	6. This is a positive suggestion. 9465	An employee of West Lothian Council	1g. Workforce Arrangements	I am currently in a year to year fixed term position and have been since I started 4 years ago with continuous service recognised, I recognise I chose to accept these terms and conditions but it would certainly be better to have a contract running longer than year to year. I really enjoy my job and enjoy working in West Lothian supporting our young people but when my contract is due for renewal I do worry about whether I will have my contract extended year on year. I understand this is due to funding but would be less stressful to have a contract that runs longer than yearly.	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	1. The respondent advised that they agree with the proposal.	The council engages staff on fixed term contracts where this meets the needs of the service to Fixed term contracts will continue to be used where this is appropriate to manage temporary, fixed term service requirements.
9466	An individual	1g. Workforce Arrangements	The easiest way to use staff resources efficiently is to make them work a full 40 hour week and give them the statutory 28 days holiday per year. This will reduce your staff overhead by around 25% and provide massive savings. The cosy council job nonsense must stop if services are to be maintained and improved.	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	1. The respondent advised that they agree with the proposal.	The council is subject to national bargaining in relation to core terms and conditions.
9467	An employee of West Lothian Council	1g. Workforce Arrangements	Do away with agency staffing	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	1. The respondent advised that they agree with the proposal.	The council will continue to use internal services to deliver services where possible. The Council engages external contractors where required for specialist works. This approach will continue to ensure best value use of resources available within the council.
9468	An individual	1g. Workforce Arrangements	This appears generally sensible; in a society when many people cannot easily access services at the times they have traditionally been provided, the council has to consider broadening availability of services, something that many other businesses have taken on already.	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	1. The respondent advised that they agree with the proposal.	The proposed review of terms and conditions would seek to review the use of overtime, allowances and enhancements, whilst at the same time consider the rates payable when used.
9469	An employee of West Lothian Council	1g. Workforce Arrangements	We already have a top heavy management structure in place perhaps this would be a better place to start looking for savings?	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	1. The respondent advised that they agree with the proposal.	The council continually reviews the tiers of management and span of control across all service levels against a target 5 x 5 structure. This ensures that the council continues to operate with an effective and efficient managerial structure.
9470	An employee of West Lothian Council	1g. Workforce Arrangements	Is it not time to actively seek staff approaching retirement who are looking for a severance package?	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	1. The respondent advised that they agree with the proposal.	The council has an Early Retirement/Voluntary Severance scheme which is available to all employees subject to a suitable business case being submitted within the set affordability criteria.
9471	An individual	1g. Workforce Arrangements	There has been very little in the way of wage rises at one time the council was a good employer with wages being one of the benefits, now with the reduced wages no highly qualified person wants to work here as the staff cuts don't only mean you deal with the job you were taken on for you have to deal with other jobs on top. Other councils who are doing the same job have higher wages. With the wages being low and the bills rising on everything, the jobs are not appealing to the person you wish to have within your organisation. Council tax is going up 3% and the wages are not even near that. There are probably places you can still streamline and people that have been on the relocation scheme may have to be looked at. But for some sections there are just not enough people for the workload and for the professionalism that is required to be kept at a very high standard.	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	8. This suggestion is out with the responsibility of West Lothian Council. Where relevant, we will forward these comments to our partner organisations.	The council is subject to national pay bargaining and the salary scales for officers are determined nationally. The council is subject to national pay bargaining, and terms and conditions. The council has introduced improved workforce planning and greater coordination of vacant posts, fixed term appointments and employees who have been displaced through organisational change. The council is also reviewing the terms of the Redeployment Policy to offer greater opportunities for the redeployment of employees subject to suitable business need.
9472	An employee of West Lothian Council	1g. Workforce Arrangements	We have to be more efficient, there should be meaningful consultation with everyone through not just the unions.	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	1. The respondent advised that they agree with the proposal.	The council will consult with staff and trade unions on proposals which will result in changes to terms and conditions.
9473	An individual	1g. Workforce Arrangements	Maybe you should look at different things like Staff being of sick and being paid with only working 16 hours..	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	1. 9481	No Response	1g. Workforce Arrangements	The council makes a mockery of their statement of zero tolerance of any abuse of their staff when they won't protect their school staff, this is from top to bottom from cleaners and class room assistants to senior teachers.	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	7. The respondent's comment was either not relevant to the question, inappropriate and/or contained personal and sensitive information.	The council promotes a policy of zero tolerance to any violence against staff. The council is currently reviewing the information and messages which are issued to customers to ensure that this reinforces the zero tolerance position.
9482	An employee of West Lothian Council	1g. Workforce Arrangements	No redundancy and no changes to terms and conditions. Investment in staff key to motivating and retaining a highly skilled workforce to deliver wider council objectives.	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	2. The respondent advised that they either did not agree or did not believe the council should consider the proposal.	The proposed review of terms and conditions would seek to review the use of overtime, allowances and enhancements, whilst at the same time consider the rates payable when used. The council has been able to delivery significant budget reductions in the last 10 years without the requirement for compulsory redundancies. The scale of the further reductions required over the next five years will be challenging and the council will seek to use the existing range of workforce management and organisational change policies to deliver the required reductions in staffing numbers.
9483	An employee of West Lothian Council	1g. Workforce Arrangements	Review flexible working: for the many, the working window of 8am and 6pm is restrictive. Many of us work in open plan offices which can be noisy with lots of interruptions. Working later in the day/evening would benefit both staff and council: officers would be more productive as fewer disruptions and for some this could incorporate evening meetings and reduce the TOIL accumulated. Would also provide staff with a work/life balance: win/win!	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	6. This is a positive suggestion. Officers will consider how this could be developed.	Thank you for your response. Officers will consider how this can be developed.
9484	An employee of West Lothian Council	1g. Workforce Arrangements	Reduce the working week from 36hrs to 35. That would absorb the pay increases. Some services (social policy admin / revenues) appear to have a culture of staff working every weekend: these people are full time during the week so doing overtime at time and a half / double time. How often is this scrutinised? Is there a cheaper way of getting the work done.	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	1. The respondent advised that they agree with the proposal.	The proposed review of terms and conditions would seek to review the use of overtime, allowances and enhancements, whilst at the same time consider the rates payable when used
9485	An employee of West Lothian Council	1g. Workforce Arrangements	Sickness Absence; I'm not sure how we do it sensitively but reduce the amount of staff absences. Our service is sitting at over 9% on a regular basis and its crippling us. Our overtime budget is sky high and the amount of time which goes into compiling rotas, completing paperwork, hosting review meetings is ridiculous. And so many people seem to come back to work after 6 months.....?? Could the council meet with the NHS/GP's to ask why so many sicklines are for 2 weeks or more now. Never used to be like this? Could we work together to reduce absences?	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	1. The respondent advised that they agree with the proposal. 9499	No Response	1g. Workforce Arrangements	I am amazed that is taken a cost cutting exercise for Senior Management to realise that some Council Workers certainly do NOT demonstrate value for money. I can sympathise that due to the Council being run by Public money that some Council workers do get a tough time but there are other workers - in particular departments - that are renowned for NOT giving value for money. 9503	An individual	1g. Workforce Arrangements	This comment applies to many sections in this document - anywhere where the words 'redesign', 'rationalisation', 'restructure' 'streamlining' are included. The saving is given but not the current spend, or the cost required to achieve the 4 million, or the time for return on investment. I am puzzled that after 10 years of cuts the service is thought to still have enough fat to achieve this saving without impact on service. There is a lot of building going on in WL. If the current funding (even with the resulting increase in council tax) is not sufficient to cater for the increased population this expansion should be stopped, or the developers charged to cover the cost.	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	1. The respondent advised that they agree with the proposal.	Thank you for your response. Your comment has been noted
9504	An employee of West Lothian Council	1g. Workforce Arrangements	Rather than focusing on the terms and conditions of lower paid staff, more significant savings could be achieved by introducing a maximum wage, reducing the salaries of senior council officers. This aligns with the council commitment to the living wage and the endeavour to reduce poverty amongst local people.	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	8. The council is subject to national pay bargaining and the salary scales for officers are determined nationally.
9505	No Response	1g. Workforce Arrangements	Make sure that we have adequate staff to support the service and we are not requiring staff to constantly work overtime, also more requirement from back office staff to assist in emergencies - more support for front line services and less for back office, concentrating on delivering services bins getting emptied housing repairs street lighting education. Look at the supply and demand if service not required in an area why keep supporting it when other areas are struggling with staffing and resources	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	1. The respondent advised that they agree with the proposal.	Any service restructure will be undertaken in accordance with the council organisational change policy and in consultation with the recognised trade unions. The Council has developed a Corporate Workforce Plan and Service specific workforce plans which monitor staffing requirements and ensure as far as possible that staffing complements and staff skills meet the service requirements.
9506	An individual	1g. Workforce Arrangements	We should not be eroding workers rights but we need to also come in line with the private sector who are less generous to workers. 9507	An individual	1g. Workforce Arrangements	I thought consultant companies fees and temporary staffs were two of the biggest spend for the council? Increase flexibility for current staff such as working from home, real flexible hours (not pretend ones!) . . . etc would also be a way to save money on temp staff and help with parent and carer support. While many government companies (council, nhs, prison) are including these "agile" working options in their policies, I have found that on the ground many managers are very resistant to these changes and sometimes simply refuse to give their staff access to these options.	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	4. The council is already doing this.	The council has an IT infrastructure which supports working from home and individuals working from various council sites throughout West Lothian. The opportunity to work on a mobile and flexible basis continues to be available to staff.
9508	An individual	1g. Workforce Arrangements	Will that be for everyone including the chief executive. Pay the top 5% less and leave the lower paid staff alone! 9513	An employee of West Lothian Council	1g. Workforce Arrangements	Staff are not being replaced and further pressures on them with less resources is a pressure cooker waiting to explode. The absence policy is already very strict and can often result in hitting trigger levels if you only have one self certificated absence which results in 6 days and even a doctors line does not prevent triggers and if staff are stretched to the max and yet fall ill they still come to work due to this policy and the fear of hitting trigger levels only to infect others and put more pressure on staff when sickness spreads. Furthermore increases in cost of living and potential increases in taxes etc whilst wage rises are falling short of inflation will only mean more working people being put more on the path to poverty which is an issue (poverty) that government want to prevent but yet will be creating. 9528	An individual	1g. Workforce Arrangements	Why have you been wasting so much of our money up to this point?	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	1. The respondent advised that they agree with the proposal.	The proposed review of terms and conditions would seek to review the use of overtime, allowances and enhancements, whilst at the same time consider the rates payable when used.

9531	An employee of West Lothian Council	1g. Workforce Arrangements	6. Stop high level of Staff Skiving!!!!	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	1. The respondent advised that they agree with the proposal.	The proposed review of terms and conditions would seek to review the use of overtime, allowances and enhancements, whilst at the same time consider the rates payable when used.
9532	An employee of West Lothian Council	1g. Workforce Arrangements	This proposal will not improve employment in West Lothian and will do nothing to tackle poverty. As the biggest employer in the area, any erosion of therms and conditions will result in staff having less money to put into the local economy.	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	2. The respondent advised that they either did not agree or did not believe the council should consider the proposal.	The proposed review of terms and conditions would seek to review the use of overtime, allowances and enhancements, whilst at the same time consider the rates payable when used.
9533	An employee of West Lothian Council	1g. Workforce Arrangements	Staff are being asked to do more for less and senior management are also expecting staff to start earlier (than are contracted to), stay later and work out of office times. This is having a detrimental effect on staff morale. Staff are being "pit upon" more and more and I suspect that this will continue even more with further budget cuts.	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	2. The respondent advised that they either did not agree or did not believe the council should consider the proposal.	The proposed review of terms and conditions would seek to review the use of overtime, allowances and enhancements, whilst at the same time consider the rates payable when used.
9534	An employee of West Lothian Council	1g. Workforce Arrangements	Disgraceful that the council should discuss changing terms and conditions with the public rather than the recognised trade unions.	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	2. The respondent advised that they either did not agree or did not believe the council should consider the proposal.	The proposed review of terms and conditions would seek to review the use of overtime, allowances and enhancements, whilst at the same time consider the rates payable when used.

9538	An individual	1g. Workforce Arrangements	You can't put up rents, council tax etc and not pay your workforce the cost of living rate. How does that balance????????	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	2. The respondent advised that they either did not agree or did not believe the council should consider the proposal.	The proposed review of terms and conditions would seek to review the use of overtime, allowances and enhancements, whilst at the same time consider the rates payable when used. The council is a living wage employer and staff on the lowest grades are paid a living wage subsidy.
9539	An employee of West Lothian Council	1g. Workforce Arrangements	Look at people's jobs there are sometimes clerical staff typing up hand written documents this is a duplication on work if it was done directly to computer it would save time and money. There are also staff who are on a lower position payed during paperwork hours but this is not part of there job scope, if this could be reduced and only done the extra hours for staff meetings this would save money without losing jobs	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	1. The respondent advised that they agree with the proposal.	Any service restructure will be undertaken in accordance with the council organisational change policy and in consultation with the recognised trade unions. The Council has developed a Corporate Workforce Plan and Service specific workforce plans which monitor staffing requirements and ensure as far as possible that staffing complements and staff skills meet the service requirements.
9540	An individual	1g. Workforce Arrangements	I agree savings should be made here, if staffing costs represent the largest proportion of the councils budget, then maybe more than £1.4 million savings should be made!	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	1. The respondent advised that they agree with the proposal.	The proposed review of terms and conditions would seek to review the use of overtime, allowances and enhancements, whilst at the same time consider the rates payable when used.
9541	An employee of West Lothian Council	1g. Workforce Arrangements	More efficient deployment of staff would be a great idea. As a Council staff member, I believe that there is a lot of slack that could be fixed to save money. Particularly in office based environments; staff could be allocated more work.	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	1. The respondent advised that they agree with the proposal.	Experience has demonstrated that the council can deliver a more effective and cost effective service through the centralisation of generic tasks with the retention of specialist provision within service.
9542	An individual	1g. Workforce Arrangements	The council needs to be careful that it loses the good staff it has and some of the staff remaining may not be of the quality required to take the council forward. To deliver change effectively requires good and strong staff/managers to manage and deliver the change.	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	1. The respondent advised that they agree with the proposal.	The proposed review of terms and conditions would seek to review the use of overtime, allowances and enhancements, whilst at the same time consider the rates payable when used.
9543	An individual	1g. Workforce Arrangements	Simply reduce the number of highly paid managerial posts instead of those at the bottom level like cleaners etc.	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	5b. It is proposed that this suggestion is not taken forward because it is likely that the costs of this proposal would outweigh the benefit.	The council continually reviews the tiers of management and span of control across all service levels against a target 5 x 5 structure. This ensures that the council continues to operate with an effective and efficient managerial structure.
9544	An employee of West Lothian Council	1g. Workforce Arrangements	A more progressive working culture needs to be embraced with a greater level of home working and hot desking. Hot desking would free up space within existing building allowing rationalisation of buildings and potential income if office space can be let to other public sector organisations. This approach is proven at the Civic Centre and other Partnership centres in West Lothian. Given Livingston's proximity to Edinburgh this may be an attractive proposition to public sector bodies with expensive Edinburgh office space.	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	4. The Council is already doing this.	The Council has an IT infrastructure which supports working from home and individuals working from various Council sites throughout West Lothian. The opportunity to work on a mobile and flexible basis continues to be available to staff.
9545	An employee of West Lothian Council	1g. Workforce Arrangements	Consideration should be given to a proposal that staff would forgo pay rises to avoid redundancy. Lower pay grades would be exempt from this proposal.	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	8. This suggestion is out with the responsibility of West Lothian Council. Where relevant, we will forward these comments to our partner organisations.	The council is subject to national pay bargaining and the salary scales for officers are determined nationally. 9546	An individual	1g. Workforce Arrangements	Reduction in staff numbers is not the answer! any change to service may require an initial investment to make sure that what follows is fit for purpose, credible and has public support.	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	2. The respondent advised that they either did not agree or did not believe the council should consider the proposal.	Any service restructure will be undertaken in accordance with the Council organisational change policy and in consultation with the recognised trade unions. The Council has developed a Corporate Workforce Plan and Service specific workforce plans which monitor staffing requirements and ensure as far as possible that staffing complements and staff skills meet the service requirements.
9547	An individual	1g. Workforce Arrangements	Cost savings in this area can only be achieved through effective negotiation with trade unions. Any changes to salaries, overtime and allowances should be done for new entrants rather than existing staff as it would be too negative on staff morale and motivation, as well as increase the risk of strike action being taken.	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	1. The respondent advised that they agree with the proposal.	The proposed review of terms and conditions would seek to review the use of overtime, allowances and enhancements, whilst at the same time consider the rates payable when used.
9548	An individual	1g. Workforce Arrangements	If changes to working conditions limit access or increase costs to groups, then this may force some out of existence as there are no, or few alternative facilities in some communities.	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	2. The respondent advised that they either did not agree or did not believe the council should consider the proposal.	The proposed review of terms and conditions would seek to review the use of overtime, allowances and enhancements, whilst at the same time consider the rates payable when used.

9549	An employee of West Lothian Council	1g. Workforce Arrangements	Would not want to see conditions for employees changing as things such as flexi, the standard working week can really help families manage childcare and other responsibilities. One issue is why there is allowed to be a flexi debit? Surely staff should only be allowed to take flexi time if they have worked the time rather than the 10 hour deficit allowed - this is time lost to the Council.	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	2. The respondent advised that they either did not agree or did not believe the council should consider the proposal.	The proposed review of terms and conditions would seek to review the use of overtime, allowances and enhancements, whilst at the same time consider the rates payable when used.
9550	An employee of West Lothian Council	1g. Workforce Arrangements	I already feel that the sickness absence is already harmful in some cases as a lot of my colleagues feel they need to come to work when they are really sick for fear of the policy. Yes, it stops those who taken advantage but the genuine people who are sick, are then stressed about being off work sick and then end up even more ill.	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	1. The respondent advised that they agree with the proposal.	The council actively manages all absences in terms of its sickness absence policy, which is subject to constant review, in consultation with the recognised trade unions, to ensure that it is fit for purpose.
9551	An employee of West Lothian Council	1g. Workforce Arrangements	Suggest staff taking a reduction in salaries to protect services and jobs	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	8. 9552	An employee of West Lothian Council	1g. Workforce Arrangements	Unfortunately all inequalities related to payments made to staff have not yet been addressed, disappointing and extremely costly over the years, considering many of these were raise at Single Status and assurances were given to staff that they would be addressed. For example some staff have continued to get enhancements and payments with total disregard and unfairness to colleagues who have contributed comparable service/duties with no salary payments made (e.g. staff who take time back in lieu and do not claim overtime, e.g. staff who work outwith flexi hours to deal with reactive customer issues/demands, e.g. staff who do duties without additional payment that others in the Council do get additional payments for, e.g. staff who work 7day then 3day week rota to ensure consistent frontline service delivery and support every day to customers). When will all current inequalities be addressed and what saving is this estimated to make? Has a cost analysis already been completed that acknowledges the services that are Parks & Woodland provide a service across its Country Parks 7days a week, every week of the year. The demand for that service can be particularly heightened over weekends, public holidays and holiday periods placing significant pressure and responsibilities on a small number of staff and the service functions they oversee.	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	1. The respondent advised that they agree with the proposal.	The proposed review of terms and conditions would seek to review the use of overtime, allowances and enhancements, whilst at the same time consider the rates payable when used.
9553	An employee of West Lothian Council	1g. Workforce Arrangements	Disappointingly no detail has been given on what areas, services, teams this will affect. That would have been informative. We would also hope that WLC has a true understanding of what needs to be where to enable services to function. Will the current review of enhancements consider the variation in demand and responsibilities for our 7 day service and the existing staffing level available within that service to enable the service to function? Has a cost analysis been completed and what is the estimated saving? The cost in having the staff on winter standby for 6months of the year is unsustainable. It badly affects those small teams of staff that do not have a big enough complement of staff to cover the absence of winter standby staff. It is also grossly unfair to the majority of WLC employees, with the enhanced payments and generous time off. There are also examples quoted of winter standby staff turning up for work without being issued with PPE, mobiles, etc. that they need to do the task, not knowing who is managing what but being happy to "take the money" - the whole process needs a thorough overhaul on the basis of Health & Safety alone. There are members of staff who participate in winter standby who receive in excess of £10k a year on top of their normal salary! How is this quantifiable and justifiable, it is obscene. Surely there is a better way to deliver this service. If winter standby is part of a Job Outline then it is just that and should be included in the job outline with no additional "perks" or "bonuses". There are staff in the Council who cleverly manoeuvre themselves as they rely on and benefit unfairly on these enhancements. Is it clearly proven that there is an actual demand that warrants this level of payment for this long a period for these staff? Could other contractors/service agreements/working rota arrangements not be negotiated at a lower annual cost? Why does the WLC not include in its proposals the option for redundancy, can you explain this? Also explain why and when WLC would consider introducing a redundancy policy? Redeployment just one example that WLC needs to strengthen and apply policies that have been introduced e.g. redeployment, disciplinary process, driving policy.	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	3. The respondent advised that they had no comment to make.	The proposed review of terms and conditions would seek to review the use of overtime, allowances and enhancements, whilst at the same time consider the rates payable when used.

9554	An employee of West Lothian Council	1g. Workforce Arrangements	There are staff who should have been terminated on redeployment but they are still here and the disciplinary process needs to be much more rigorously applied.	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	7. The respondent's comment was either not relevant to the question, inappropriate and/or contained personal and sensitive information.	The council has introduced improved workforce planning and greater coordination of vacant posts, fixed term appointments and employees who have been displaced through organisational change. The council is also reviewing the terms of the Redeployment Policy to offer greater opportunities for the redeployment of employees subject to suitable business need.
9555	An employee of West Lothian Council	1g. Workforce Arrangements	Poor workforce planning has placed unfair pressure on existing managers and staff. Please remember that employers have a duty of care to its employees. -Seasonal staff (employed seasonally to target peak times when staff are required to assist the service achieve its targets, parks & Woodland have retained staff over a number of years building up their knowledge and skills base for them to become reliable employees but the annual recruitment process over the last few years has been disrespectful to managers and staff, chaotic and shambolic to say the least. Managers know that they need to recruit the skilled staff early, they want to retain and develop those staff have worked with us previously and are committed in wanting to return to us but they are stopped from doing this, leaving the service planning and staff cover in an unacceptable situation.	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	1. The respondent advised that they agree with the proposal.	The proposed review of terms and conditions would seek to review the use of overtime, allowances and enhancements, whilst at the same time consider the rates payable when used.
9556	An employee of West Lothian Council	1g. Workforce Arrangements	Managers are under unacceptable pressure to get shifts covered and tasks completed despite not have the staff in position. This is unsustainable. - Some seasonal staff within the Council were changed onto year contracts but others were not. Why was this not been applied fairly across all seasonal posts at the same time? Can we convert our seasonal Ranger commitment into 2year contract posts? It gives the impression to staff that certain sections of the Council have been given more "protection" than others, which would shameful if unfairly applied. - Parks & Woodland have not been able to recruit a permanent Access Ranger post (possibly because the post advertised was not permanent) and are left with no-one in position to address the access responsibilities of WLC. This may fall onto the shoulders of the Ranger Service which exists of x3 permanent and x1 Apprentice. It is not feasible that the Ranger Service can continue to cover all work tasks required including any new tasks with just 3 permanent staff, without committing to seasonal staff posts or converting seasonal allocation to fixed 1 or 2 year posts (that can then be extended) or a complete overhaul of their aims and objectives.	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	1. The respondent advised that they agree with the proposal.	The proposed review of terms and conditions would seek to review the use of overtime, allowances and enhancements, whilst at the same time consider the rates payable when used.
9557	An employee of West Lothian Council	1g. Workforce Arrangements	The council has avoided dealing with the widespread discrepancies in enhancements and allowances and this measure is long overdue. 9560	An individual	1g. Workforce Arrangements	Good staff should be paid appropriately, savings should be made in taking more things back in house. Don't pay a private company for road repairs etc they have to make a profit. Employ the staff yourself and do it not for profit. Don't outsource cleaning to contractors pay your own staff...you should be able to do it for less!	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	2. The proposed review of terms and conditions would seek to review the use of overtime, allowances and enhancements, whilst at the same time consider the rates payable when used. Workforce Arrangements - (general)	4. The council is already doing this.	The council reports on (and publishes) detailed financial information. This includes the allocation of financial resources to services, how council budgets are spent and the cost of providing services.

9570	An individual	1g. Workforce Arrangements	There are still a large number of staff who do not 'pull their weight'. The council should be more robust in dealing with officers who operate inefficiently. The council's sickness absence policy needs an overhaul. Officers who have four short periods of absence can find themselves on a final absence meeting while others can be sick for a year and return at Level 1 of the policy. This dissuades rather than encourages staff back to work.	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	1. The respondent advised that they agree with the proposal. 9572	On behalf of a Group/Organisation	1g. 9574	An individual	1g. Workforce Arrangements	Any changes to contracts will be met by the strongest protest. 9582	An individual	1g. Workforce Arrangements	Staffing is any employers biggest asset and staff who do not feel valued will not deliver the services that they need to. Whilst pay is not the only way that value is expressed, it is hugely significant and should not be seen as value for money to reduce this. Low paid staff must be protected and are you saying that current payments are not value for money? Councils often lead the way on fairness and equality (and at others lag painfully behind) so please do not lose this.	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	2. 9583	No Response	1g. Workforce Arrangements	Agree a review should take place but the council also needs to lead the way in demonstrating a fair pay for a fair days work. Reduction in staff though as much as possible should be through natural wastage rather than over the top redundancy handouts to the 'nearly retiring age, workers that have benefitted from organisational restructuring in the past. Not sure why pensions contributions or redundancy payments are not included in this review. Both are too generous and some cuts here would bring some substantial savings too. 9584	An individual	1g. Workforce Arrangements	Services should be provided during normal working hours. If service needed out with these times then should be chargeable.	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	1. The respondent advised that they agree with the proposal.	The council has introduced improved workforce planning and greater coordination of vacant posts, fixed term appointments and employees who have been displaced through organisational change. The council is also reviewing the terms of the Redeployment Policy to offer greater opportunities for the redeployment of employees subject to suitable business need.
9585	An individual	1g. Workforce Arrangements	The council trumpet their living wage policy - pay rates should be cut to minimum levels. Overtime and shift payments should be stopped. Again we live and work in a seven day society so pay rates should be the same for every day of the week and for each shift pattern.	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	1. The respondent advised that they agree with the proposal.	The proposed review of terms and conditions would seek to review the use of overtime, allowances and enhancements, whilst at the same time consider the rates payable when used.
9586	No Response	1g. Workforce Arrangements	The only proposal in this consultation that I can actually comment on (since the rest of the proposals are pretty vague). Which services and what pay levels will this affect? If this affects front line staff near the bottom of the pay scale? We don't have enough staff as it is to run the service and if you get rid of overtime or cut it to single time then no one will want to cover because it just won't be worth our time.	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	2. The respondent advised that they either did not agree or did not believe the council should consider the proposal.	The proposed review of terms and conditions would seek to review the use of overtime, allowances and enhancements, whilst at the same time consider the rates payable when used. 9587	On behalf of a Group/Organisation	1g. It is a clear feeling of total disregard for collection bargaining in our opinion.	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	7. 9588	An individual	1g. Workforce Arrangements	I am a resident of West Lothian and I also have contact with Council staff in my working life. From this contact I am aware that over a number of years the workforce has shrunk but the workload has not. There are instances of staff picking up a number of topics that previously had a staff member working on them full time. This is not tenable for either individual staff members or the effective delivery of areas of work that are deemed additions to already full job plans. I fully recognise the difficulties that the Council faces but further paring back of staffing costs for staff who are already over-subscribed in many respects does not seem likely to make the Council a good place to work or West Lothian a good place to live.	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	2. The respondent advised that they either did not agree or did not believe the council should consider the proposal.	The proposed review of terms and conditions would seek to review the use of overtime, allowances and enhancements, whilst at the same time consider the rates payable when used.
9589	An employee of West Lothian Council	1g. Workforce Arrangements	There are more ways to save money in relation to staffing costs. The councils policies on sickness absence, special leave and flexi to name 3 only, are not strict enough. Why does the council allow staff to have 15 hours debit apart from Friday of week 4. Has analysis been done on how many staff actually owe the council more than 2 days work in any given week. Reduce the debit allowed and only if you have the time for a flexi 1/2 or full day do you get it. The sickness absence policy encourages people to stay off. The change to 6 days 4 periods within 12 months was a good thing but why disregard absences if they are not excluded from our performance targets. Make every absence count towards moving through the stages. That way staff will return to work after hospital stays a bit quicker than they do now. Special leave has become an extension to some staff's annual leave in other words eg if they are coming up to the end of a rolling 12 month period and they have not exhausted their 5 days 'care of an ill dependent' you can almost be guaranteed that the need to take a day will arise. Again it would be useful to see how many staff within the council have had the need to use all of their special leave entitlement every year since the beginning of their employment. Make the policies work to encourage staff to actually be at their work and not take advantage of some additional leave because it makes no odds to where they find themselves in relation to sickness absence.	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	1. The respondent advised that they agree with the proposal.	The council actively manages all absences in terms of its sickness absence policy, which is subject to constant review, in consultation with the recognised trade unions, to ensure that it is fit for purpose.
9590	An employee of West Lothian Council	1g. Workforce Arrangements	I want to put a suggestion forward if there is not support for the increase. Freeze pay increases for the staff who will remain in employment after these savings are met. My understanding is that the 2 year 2% and the 3 year 1.5% wage increase has an estimated cost attached to it of £7m. That should meet some of the savings and I am sure those staff would be grateful that they were still in a job given the alternative	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	8. This suggestion is out with the responsibility of West Lothian Council. Where relevant, we will forward these comments to our partner organisations.	The council is subject to national pay bargaining and the salary scales for officers are determined nationally.
9591	An individual	1g. 9596	An employee of West Lothian Council	1g. Workforce Arrangements	The council requires to be competitive to be able to retain its staff that have been invested in. we need good quality staff that do not come through our doors and end up with high staff turnover. We need to consider the long term impact of poor pay and benefits being offered to staff. It affects staff motivation, commitment and willingness to work to capacity. In private practice pay levels are much higher and traditionally staff in local authority jobs have had reater benefits. thats has significantly reduced over time and now they are underpaid for high pressure professional jobs and the benefits that initially drew and kept staff are beign ebbed away gradually. We will end up in a situation whereby it is only the poor performing staff that are left with good quality staff leaving for other opportunities. Considering there will be a 3% increase in council tax (after a 3% increase for several higher bandings last year) and very little pay increases for all staff is a poor investment. care will also have to be taken to changing employemtn contracts and can be costly in the event that claims are made against the authority which reduce any potential saving to be made. Staff are being put under increasing pressure in their work with people leaving and resources reducing and not being replaced. This is putting existing staff under increased stress and is having an impact on attendance. this will ultimately be a trend that continues as resources and staff continue to be reduced. Reduction can only tak pace so far, it then begins to get more expensive again as services are unabelt o be provided and work is outsourced to external agencies costing more money to the council. 9609	An employee of West Lothian Council	1g. Workforce Arrangements	This council needs to seriously look at more home working, in line with most other authorities (e.g.; East Dunbartonshire have a minimum of 2 days working at home, Edinburgh Council Planning staff have just been told to work one day a week at home, Borders Council, again staff work a minimum of 2 days at home) and trusting staff to produce when not actually in a council building, rather than an obsession with being seen / available in the Civic Centre. This could lead to closure of a at least a whole floor and save on heating / electricity costs or lease out to others / commercial sector to generate a revenue stream It could also reduce the number of Pool cars > site visits / meetings ie staff would more effectively arrange multiple meetings / visits in one whole day out the office rather than spread over 5 days. Working time should be extended from 7am - 7pm as 8am - 6pm is too constrictive. This would allow staff to work a 35hr week (in reality most do 40 hrs) over 4 days ie 4 X 9 (or 9.5hr) days. (Do you realise some people are sleeping in their cars as they arrive at 7.30am and cant get in the east staff entrance !). Technology, properly rolled out to staff, would allow them to work just, if not even more so, effectively at home. This also reduces commuting time, reduces traffic on the roads that is a general environmental benefit and would be better for "work / home life" balance.	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	4. The council is already doing this.	The council has an IT infrastructure which supports working from home and individuals working from various council sites throughout West Lothian. The opportunity to work on a mobile and flexible basis continues to be available to staff.

9612	An employee of West Lothian Council	1g. Workforce Arrangements	Overtime should only be available where staffing shortages are identified. 9614	An employee of West Lothian Council	1g. Workforce Arrangements	It is important that terms and conditions are kept the same as far as possible, as most people rely on the flexi- time and adapted hours to suit their lifestyle. I do think, however that the sickness absence policy could be looked at more closely and I wonder if it would be possible to perhaps increase the length of time before new employees are considered for sickness pay - perhaps to 9 months. Additionally I think that perhaps the length that sickness pay is paid could be slightly reduced. If this saved jobs then I would be willing to have this as an option. Longer term or multiple absences from work perhaps would benefit from closer scrutiny.	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	4. The council is already doing this. 9615	An employee of West Lothian Council	1g. Workforce Arrangements	Feel that the sickness policy could be better managed, I feel that it should be looked as how many occasions you are off sick & not days, also if you have a doctors certificate unless occupational health can help to do something to help you get back to work then refereeing someone to them is not a good use of resources & the policy also encourages people to either come to work when they are genuinely ill which could mean other people get ill or come back to work before they are fit enough to return. also feel that overtime should only be in extreme cases and if required and should be as much as possible done on days the building is open, which saves the extra utilities	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	1. 9617	An employee of West Lothian Council	1g. I feel staff are going to be working with more severe policies and consequences. I believe the sickness absences have increased since the number of cleaning hours have been cut, our office can be very dirty and without proper, regular cleaning staff will become ill and then are subject to any reviewed sickness absence policy. At this stage, detailed budget reduction measures have not been developed, therefore there is no specific information on how the savings will be achieved and the timescales for delivery. This will become clearer as the measures progress following the consultation process and approval of the council's budget strategy. The council is conducting Equality Impact Assessment on the proposals to assess the impact on persons with protected characteristics.

9641	On behalf of a Group/Organisation	1g. Workforce Arrangements	One point I would raise is the man power levels of the council's workforce. There always seems to be extra men on work jobs whether it is gardening or road repainting. Also, every fourth or fifth vehicle on the road is either a council van or lorry. Both these points required to be studied to cut back on excesses.	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	7. The respondent's comment was either not relevant to the question, inappropriate and/or contained personal and sensitive information.	The council has a number of systems, processes and procedures in place which are essential to enable managers to monitor and manage staff performance and efficiency.
9642	An employee of West Lothian Council	1g. Workforce Arrangements	Terms and conditions review what does this mean and what will be looked at / considered.	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	3. The respondent advised that they had no comment to make.	The proposed review of terms and conditions would seek to review the use of overtime, allowances and enhancements, whilst at the same time consider the rates payable when used.

The council has an IT infrastructure which supports working from home and individuals working from various council sites throughout West Lothian. The opportunity to work on a mobile and flexible basis continues to be available to staff.
9645	An individual	1g. Workforce Arrangements	Cut the amount of WLC staff - the council is already bloated and people in jobs for life which is not appropriate in this day. 9647	An individual	1g. Workforce Arrangements	I do support increasing council tax but still think decreasing full time hours from 36hpw to 35hpw would be one of the best options. 9649	An individual	1g. Workforce Arrangements	No compulsory redundancies	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	4. The council is already doing this.	The council has been able to delivery significant budget reductions in the last 10 years without the requirement for compulsory redundancies. The scale of the further reductions required over the next five years will be challenging and the council will seek to use the existing range of workforce management and organisational change policies to deliver the required reductions in staffing numbers.

9652	An individual	1g. Workforce Arrangements	Are sick pay and absence rates under control to offer the tax payer value for every penny?	Workforce Arrangements - (general)	4. The council is already doing this.	The council actively manages all absences in terms of its sickness absence policy, which is subject to constant review, in consultation with the recognised trade unions, to ensure that it is fit for purpose. The proposed review of terms and conditions would seek to review the use of overtime, allowances and enhancements, whilst at the same time consider the rates payable when used.
9653	An individual	1g. Workforce Arrangements	How staff within Operational and Housing Services still get paid the OT rates they do is beyond anyone. Staff within offices don't get treated the same as though in a his vis. Why? They very often earn more anyway. Please review OT within these services.	Workforce Arrangements - Overtime & Allowances	4. The council is already doing this.	The council may authorise overtime payments in circumstances where there is a business requirement to undertake work outwith contracted hours. The council undertakes regular review of non basic pay across all service areas.
9654	No Response	1g. Workforce Arrangements	As a Council employee, this is very relevant to me. I feel that overtime is unnecessary for many roles, so a reduction in overtime offered would be a good idea.	Workforce Arrangements - Overtime & Allowances	1. The respondent advised that they agree with the proposal.	Thank you for your response. Your comment has been noted
9655	An employee of West Lothian Council	1g. 9656	An employee of West Lothian Council	1g. Workforce Arrangements	I also feel staff who are in deficit with their working hours/TMS OR who have been off sick in the week/month should not be offered overtime. Time over the 10 hours deficit permitted should be recouped from salary at the end of every 4 week period, encouraging staff to attend and work their core hours each week. 9659	An employee of West Lothian Council	1g. Workforce Arrangements	given the lack of detail about the possible changes to terms and conditions / changes to overtime arrangements it is difficult to comment - I am aware that many staff work "over and above" their agreed hours / contracts to ensure services are delivered therefore any changes need to be seen to be fair (and agreed by unions) or else this may result in staff feeling undervalued and withdrawing the additional hours / work they do at present for which they are not paid	Workforce Arrangements - Overtime & Allowances	1. 9662	An employee of West Lothian Council	1g. 9663	No Response	1g. Workforce Arrangements	While I can see the advantages of this - there should be heavy consideration for the benefits of overtime/allowance to the employee with already strained pay bands and the living wage. There is also a consideration about overtime being required to allow work to be completed out of normal business hours that would interrupt WLC Services if not completed out of hours.	Workforce Arrangements - Overtime & Allowances	1. The respondent advised that they agree with the proposal.	The Council will focus on changes to overtime arrangements and allowances that meet service requirements whilst also demonstrating value for money.
9664	No Response	1g. Workforce Arrangements	Do not pay a blanket % enhanced rate for weekend working - revert back to paying an enhanced rate for "actual" weekend working.	Workforce Arrangements - Overtime & Allowances	1. The respondent advised that they agree with the proposal.	The Council will focus on changes to overtime arrangements and allowances that meet service requirements whilst also demonstrating value for money.
9665	No Response	1g. Workforce Arrangements	It does not make sense for certain units to be open for overtime at the weekends. Opening buildings for a handful of staff is not cost effective - not only in wages but running costs of lighting/electricity etc. Perhaps look at a total ban on overtime for the units who are not face to face with customers rather than the continual mentioning of this. Staff who are not part of an emergency repair team or customer requirement should not have an option to do overtime.	Workforce Arrangements - Overtime & Allowances	1. 9669	An individual	1g. Workforce Arrangements - Overtime & Allowances	1. The respondent advised that they agree with the proposal.	The Council will focus on changes to overtime arrangements and allowances that meet service requirements whilst also demonstrating value for money.
9670	An individual	1g. Workforce Arrangements	Staff have been receiving a below average pay rise for a number of years, while every day living costs have increased. Pay enhancements are essential in keeping in line with the cost of living due to poor pay rises. The council should look closely at why overtime is needed and address this in each service. I am aware that staff shortages have put a strain on staff and they are being asked to do overtime as the council is not employing after staff have left.	Workforce Arrangements - Overtime & Allowances	1. The respondent advised that they agree with the proposal.	The council may authorise overtime payments in circumstances where there is a business requirement to undertake work outwith contracted hours. The council undertakes regular review of non basic pay across all service areas. However where work is non contractual there may be situations where individual is entitled to earn elements of overtime. The council will continue to monitor the cost, use and allocation of such activity.
9671	No Response	1g. Workforce Arrangements	This is a sensible plan. This should ensure that there is less work left until the weekend when certain employees are on enhanced rates. 9683	An employee of West Lothian Council	1g. Workforce Arrangements	Enhancements and bonuses are not fair or equal just now. I work long shifts as a senior social care worker with a 14% shift allowance. i work long stints without days off and work 3 weekends out of four, working hours start at 8am and finish at ten pm. Our night staff get 33% shift allowance which is huge! and kitchen staff get weekend enhancements even when on holiday! managers get 7% shift allowance but work mon/fri! Shift allowances shouldnâ€™t be paid when off sick and sick pay could be reduced. I work very hard and donâ€™t take sick time, my shift allowance is vital for my family needs and if my council tax rises then even more so. shift allowances, enhancements and sick pay need to be fair and even across the workforce, they are not just now. if all allowances are stopped the social care team will lose huge amounts of valued long term staff and find it difficult to recruit for future vacancies as staff will all want to work mon/fri if there are no enhancements for shift work	Workforce Arrangements - Overtime & Allowances	1. There should also be one rate for the duty officers and not one person earning far more than another when they are doing the same job. The council proposes to review pay enhancements and allowances to ensure that these continue to meet service requirements and are applied fairly and equitably whilst achieving value for money.
9686	An individual	1g. Workforce Arrangements	Yes all pay enhancements and allowances should be reviewed. Workforce Arrangements - Overtime & Allowances	1. The respondent advised that they agree with the proposal.	The council proposes to review pay enhancements and allowances to ensure that these continue to meet service requirements and are applied fairly and equitably whilst achieving value for money.

9710	An employee of West Lothian Council	1g. Workforce Arrangements	The council can not function without staff and needs to be careful that staff are not detrimentally disadvantaged. Can working patterns be changed so overtime requirements are minimised? Why is overtime required in the first place? If services have too much work and fewer staff then surely this needs to be addressed.	Workforce Arrangements - Overtime & Allowances	6. This is a positive suggestion. Officers will consider how this could be developed.	The council will review working patterns to minimise the requirement for staff to work overtime.
9711	No Response	1g. Workforce Arrangements	Is overtime really needed - look for savings and if this is actually required. 9713	No Response	1g. Workforce Arrangements	Cutting overtime payments will cause more stress, particularly in households who rely on this a part of their annual income. The proposed review of terms and conditions would seek to review the use of overtime, allowances and enhancements, whilst at the same time consider the rates payable when used.
9714	An employee of West Lothian Council	1g. Workforce Arrangements	The cost of work undertaken out of hours is far too high and a number of tasks that are done could wait. The long week, short week arrangement should be reviewed and put in place that will enable work to be undertaken off-peak at no additional cost. The rule which gives manual workers rest days when they work beyond a certain time out of hours should be reviewed and the deal either extended to other groups of workers or withdrawn altogether. 9719	An individual	1g. Workforce Arrangements	Overtime can be replaced by time back and is an effective way to achieve savings - but requires effective management. 9720	An employee of West Lothian Council	1g. Workforce Arrangements	WLC Currently depend on overtime/additional hours payments to maintain service delivery in many areas - any changes to pay enhancements may result in a reduction in staff willing to work additional hours. As long as absence ratios are in excess of the 3.6% target, we will continue to depend on the goodwill of our staff.	Workforce Arrangements - Overtime & Allowances	2. The respondent advised that they either did not agree or did not believe the council should consider the proposal. 9721	An individual	1g. Workforce Arrangements	Absolutely look at overtime arrangements. I met a worker one day emptying the dog waste bins on a public holiday and he was being paid triple time ! Triple time for absolutely no reason. All the dog waste bins are emptied very regularly and one day extra wouldn't have made a difference. And when the bin men 'forget' to empty a bin, they come round at the weekend - I assume that is paid at an overtime premium ? So cancel all non critical public holiday cover and weekend bin collections. Also why should some teams be offered 14% shift allowances for only working on average one weekend in 5 (Whole Family Support Service)? Should that not only by 7% maximum	Workforce Arrangements - Overtime & Allowances	1. The respondent advised that they agree with the proposal. 9727	An employee of West Lothian Council	1g. Workforce Arrangements	A change in overtime arrangements will result in a reduced workforce willing to work out of hours. IT Systems need constant out of hours work to reduce downtime for daily employees. A review of the change and conditions of employment I hope will be met with force from UNISON. How will this affect condensed working? Which is the employment rights act 1996. Can this be changed?	Workforce Arrangements - Overtime & Allowances	2. 9728	An individual	1g. Workforce Arrangements	Some staff already don't have enough time in their contracted time to complete the work they have to do - especially teachers. Removing any time that outside of their contracted time (e.g. school hours) is the wrong thing to do. Teachers are already doing much more than is expected of them and to take any paid time away from them would put them under a lot more stress and probably cause a drop in teacher numbers. This would probably deter potential teachers from thinking about doing this for a living.	Workforce Arrangements - Overtime & Allowances	2. It is proposed that this suggestion is not taken forward because it is not consistent with the council's values and priorities.	The council actively manages all absences in terms of its sickness absence policy, which is subject to constant review, in consultation with the recognised trade unions, to ensure that it is fit for purpose
9730	An employee of West Lothian Council	1g. Workforce Arrangements	Overtime. Certain people are and have been getting this for over 5 years in the same area, my understanding was overtime is a temporary arrangement, one person claiming 50 hours in a month over this period is ridiculous and a serious management issue. 9741	An individual	1g. Workforce Arrangements	With very low wage increases and increasing costs putting more of a burden on staff will lead to increased pressure and ultimately to lack of job satisfaction. Valued employees will have no option but to move on.	Workforce Arrangements - Overtime & Allowances	8. This suggestion is out with the responsibility of West Lothian Council. Where relevant, we will forward these comments to our partner organisations.	The council is subject to national pay bargaining and terms and conditions and the salary scales for officers are determined nationally.
9742	An individual	1g. Workforce Arrangements	Sometimes the overtime may be due to the fact that staff already overstretched within the working day and have no other option but to work later to met the target deadlines that they already have. If then reducing staff this surely will impact more on the overtime allocation.	Workforce Arrangements - Overtime & Allowances	2. The respondent advised that they either did not agree or did not believe the council should consider the proposal.	The proposed review of terms and conditions would seek to review the use of overtime, allowances and enhancements, whilst at the same time consider the rates payable when used.
9743	An individual	1g. Workforce Arrangements	I can imagine that this whole section will end up being overblown with negotiations with trade unions and never implemented. The proposals you have listed here are no different to what us workers in the private sector take for granted - overtime and allowances are things of the past for most of us and council workers should not be any different	Workforce Arrangements - Overtime & Allowances	1. The proposed review of terms and conditions would seek to review the use of overtime, allowances and enhancements, whilst at the same time consider the rates payable when used.
9744	An employee of West Lothian Council	1g. Workforce Arrangements	If new terms and conditions are imposed on the workforce morale will be badly affected. West Lothian Council is seen by many staff as a good employer and any diminution of terms and conditions will impact on that view. Staff will be more prepared to look elsewhere for employment and it will be more difficult to fill posts.	Workforce Arrangements - Overtime & Allowances	2. The respondent advised that they either did not agree or did not believe the council should consider the proposal.	The proposed review of terms and conditions would seek to review the use of overtime, allowances and enhancements, whilst at the same time consider the rates payable when used.
9745	An employee of West Lothian Council	1g. Workforce Arrangements	Feel this will have an negative impact not only on employees motivation and sense of feeling valued but also on the employees health and well being. Staff are already doing more for less and employees have set their household budgets on what they earn. To reduce their earnings by removing shift allowances could mean people lose their homes as they no longer have the income they were employed with and staff struggling with stress and anxiety as a result. I agree that OT should be reduced but to do this their has to be the right amount of staff employed to deliver the service that is being offered. It is surely more expensive to be paying OT that just paying the staff a salary as an employee.	Workforce Arrangements - Overtime & Allowances	2. The respondent advised that they either did not agree or did not believe the council should consider the proposal.	The proposed review of terms and conditions would seek to review the use of overtime, allowances and enhancements, whilst at the same time consider the rates payable when used.
9746	An individual	1g. Workforce Arrangements	I am not currently aware of what arrangements are in place for authorising overtime payments but I would expect that there is some mechanism in place to ensure that overtime is only offered as a last resort, to cover essential services when all other options of staffing have been exhausted. If not, this should be considered. It could be that there are some tasks currently undertaken by staff on a Sunday, attracting a higher rate of overtime, when these could be completed on another day or in the evening mid-week. In my opinion this should be closely managed to prevent misuse or missed opportunities for savings.	Workforce Arrangements - Overtime & Allowances	1. The respondent advised that they agree with the proposal.	The proposed review of terms and conditions would seek to review the use of overtime, allowances and enhancements, whilst at the same time consider the rates payable when used.
9747	An individual	1g. The proposed review of terms and conditions would seek to review the use of overtime, allowances and enhancements, whilst at the same time consider the rates payable when used.

9779	An employee of West Lothian Council	1g. Where the council is required to engage agency staff to meet a gap in staffing complements.
9783	An individual	1g. Workforce Arrangements	I feel that in many areas overtime seems to be used like an employee benefit and is almost expected. We would be better spending this morning developing and improving these areas to make them more efficient and effective so there would not be a need for overtime. With the exception of staff cover should we not be asking why are we not hitting our expectations/targets on a regular basis? This would provide significant savings going forward also. 9795	An individual	1g. Workforce Arrangements	To maximise the savings that can be generated from staffing costs the Council should examine this area closely. I believe excessive overtime is an indicator of inefficiency as the service can not be delivered in normal working hours. I acknowledge there are instances where overtime must be used but in a limited way. Innovate shift patterns should be encouraged or maximised. Please do not mistake this for flexibility. I believe the public sector has become too flexible with staff conditions and service delivery has been compromised over the last decade. The Council are here to provide a service to the public and that should always be the primary objective. Each decision must be for the benefit of the service and in certain situations staff conditions may become less attractive or not as flexible. Please remember that decisions cost money. Those staff who work set shift patterns that do operate through night time, must have greater say in what the work is done to review a service. What is proposed in place of overtime? Will staff still be expected to deliver the same service but only on a fixed salary? Will services be cut to core hours only? 9843	An employee of West Lothian Council	1g. Workforce Arrangements	Flexible working arrangements allocated to staff on overtime..	Workforce Arrangements - Overtime & Allowances	1. The respondent advised that they agree with the proposal.	The council is required by law to consider requests for part time or flexible working, and will grant this where it meets the needs of the service.
9844	An individual	1g. Workforce Arrangements	Most, if not all, teaching and non-teaching staff in schools work a substantial number of unpaid hours on a regular basis. This is not replicated in other areas of the Council where overtime appears to be readily available.	Workforce Arrangements - Overtime & Allowances	1. The respondent advised that they agree with the proposal.	The proposed review of terms and conditions would seek to review the use of overtime, allowances and enhancements, whilst at the same time consider the rates payable when used.
9845	An individual	1g. The proposed review of terms and conditions would seek to review the use of overtime, allowances and enhancements, whilst at the same time consider the rates payable when used.
9846	An individual	1g. Workforce Arrangements	I support this. The Council should aim to avoid reliance on overtime with more flexible rostering. However it should avoid split shifts. The proposed review of terms and conditions would seek to review the use of overtime, allowances and enhancements, whilst at the same time consider the rates payable when used.

9850	An employee of West Lothian Council	1g. Workforce Arrangements	First thought here is that overtime in all or most cases is necessary. A particular example here is maintenance weekends undertaken by IT Services staff about 4 over an annual period. This is crucial to upkeep and security on servers and systems. Non essential overtime of course is something that the council has addressed in recent years rightly so as this has demonstrated value for money.	Workforce Arrangements - Overtime & Allowances	2. The respondent advised that they either did not agree or did not believe the council should consider the proposal.	The proposed review of terms and conditions would seek to review the use of overtime, allowances and enhancements, whilst at the same time consider the rates payable when used.

9855	No Response	1g. Workforce Arrangements	The overtime process should be restricted to absolute business need rather than based on the times of clocking in and out. 9859	An individual	1g. Workforce Arrangements	I don't understand why you feel the need to enhance pay and allowances to make changes to overtime arrangements. Council staff already have better pay rates and pension provisions than anyone else in the private sector. They need to get real and realise just how good a deal they've got. 9870	An employee of West Lothian Council	1g. 9872	An individual	1g. Workforce Arrangements	Agree in principal however staff should be rewarded when they have anti social or out of hours roles as this is disruptive to their lives. I also feel very strongly that there are certain functions that require seasonal workers and these should not be taken as the 'easy option' as this has a serious affect on the ability to deliver the services required by the community. It would be far better to look at how the winter working is resourced and the vast amounts that certain members of staff are then taking home for providing and out of hours service. As stated above they deserve an enhancement but this should reflect what is actually worked! It would be far more effective to allow the front line teams to put forward suggestions related to the savings that that section if expected to make and assess the pros and cons for the various options. 9878	An individual	1g. Workforce Arrangements	Across the council there are historic inconsistent arrangements in relation to overtime and allowances. In some instances this means that some staff are being paid on an enhanced basis when it isn't clear that this is appropriate, there is no clear justification for it and there is no evidence that they are carrying out roles or functions which justify it. There must be equality of approach across the council to these issues. However, historically these payments will have been made to compensate and recognise that some functions attract additional payments because they are not reflected by salaries paid/hours worked. It is therefore critical that in any changes to overtime and allowances, there is a full and detailed review of those circumstances in which they are paid and the reasons for that, and a review of the roles and functions to be undertaken in the future, with appropriate grading considerations where necessary. Where there is a genuine need for overtime it must be ensured that either there is a uniform approach to it across the council, or if the intention is that it be limited, then it is essential to ensure that there are sufficient staff in posts to deliver services without the need of overtime. Working practices will need to be reviewed to ensure they are efficient and effective to support this and managers will require to properly and consistently manage staff in relation to this. Ensuring a uniform approach to overtime and allowances and achieving clarity as to when, how and why they are being paid can only be a positive outcome	Workforce Arrangements - Overtime & Allowances	1. The respondent advised that they agree with the proposal.	The proposed review of terms and conditions would seek to review the use of overtime, allowances and enhancements, whilst at the same time consider the rates payable when used.
9879	An employee of West Lothian Council	1g. Workforce Arrangements	A suggestion would be to reduce the enhancements and allowances etc. and give flexi instead. There is a problem with an ageing workforce, sickness, etc. Voluntary redundancies may be an option. Work that is being distributed out to others services or third parties could be brought back in house to save expense and this would provide more funds to pay employees.	Workforce Arrangements - Overtime & Allowances	1. The respondent advised that they agree with the proposal.	The proposed review of terms and conditions would seek to review the use of overtime, allowances and enhancements, whilst at the same time consider the rates payable when used.
9880	An employee of West Lothian Council	1g. Workforce Arrangements	I appreciate that all staffing teams and service areas are under pressure. In my service area we need to do work at weekends and in the evening to accommodate our service users and our ability to recruit. We would have to carefully consider how staff who are already under pressure are compensated for taking this additional responsibility on. There is already a tremendous reliance on staff's good will and this can't just be ignored or taken for granted. Staff fully appreciate the constraints on finances and budgets, but have a limit to how much good will they have if there is no benefit or acknowledgement and it is just expected of them.	Workforce Arrangements - Overtime & Allowances	2. The respondent advised that they either did not agree or did not believe the council should consider the proposal.	The proposed review of terms and conditions would seek to review the use of overtime, allowances and enhancements, whilst at the same time consider the rates payable when used.

9886	An individual	1g. Workforce Arrangements	Although the staffing levels and funding will shrink, WLC will still have an expectation to deliver similar services to that they have always done. 9894	An employee of West Lothian Council	1g. Workforce Arrangements	Our service currently offers overtime arrangements and there are a number of staff who undertake overtime on a regular basis. With overtime in place I feel the service is already stretched and staff are already under a lot of pressure. Therefore I feel if overtime was removed completely we would be under additional pressure to complete the same workload but with less time. I also feel more could be done in terms of sickness absence at a more preventative level. To reduce sickness I feel more time could be taken to reduce stress at work and also to reduce fatigue etc. For example providing classes on mindfulness or making use of the space in the West Lothian Council buildings and host exercise classes which in turn would boost both mental wellbeing and physical. The proposed review of terms and conditions would seek to review the use of overtime, allowances and enhancements, whilst at the same time consider the rates payable when used.
9895	An employee of West Lothian Council	1g. Workforce Arrangements	We are under increasing pressure at the moment with regards to our workload and are expected to spin a number of plates, multitask and meet performance targets when we have less staff due to them not being replaced and an increasing amount of work, and variety of work on a daily basis. Overtime is offered at the moment which helps with performance however if this was to be removed, or the rate reduced this would have a negative impact as not a lot of people would be willing to volunteer to work additional hours which would in turn increase the workload even more. More pressure leads to additional stress which may then lead to further sickness absence. I feel the sickness absence policy that we have is poor with regards to the number of days before triggering as in this day and age an illness can last more than a few days which again puts you under pressure, especially when working in an environment where bugs etc are easily circulated due to the air conditions that we work under. I do not feel there should be any further changes to the absence policy. Pay enhancements need to be reviewed as the cost of living is increasing all of the time in all aspects of day to day life. 9915	An employee of West Lothian Council	1g. Workforce Arrangements	Staff have been subject to real terms pay cuts over the last 10 years. In addition there are many positions that rely on the enhancements to augment their salary. Employees lives revolve around their take home pay and any reductions to that are likely to affect front line employees at the lower end of the pay scale. This in turn will have an impact on employee retention and moral. Whilst these changes will inevitably have to be made, they must be communicated and transitioned to reduce, where possible any negative effects.	Workforce Arrangements - Pay Enhancements	2. The respondent advised that they either did not agree or did not believe the council should consider the proposal.	The Council will focus on changes to overtime arrangements and allowances that meet service requirements whilst also delivering value for money.

9940	An employee of West Lothian Council	1g. Workforce Arrangements	Improving pay would help retain, and attract new, staff. Pay scales for middle/senior management are less well paid than, say, City of Edinburgh.	Workforce Arrangements - Pay Enhancements	8. This suggestion is out with the responsibility of West Lothian Council. Where relevant, we will forward these comments to our partner organisations.	The proposed review of terms and conditions would seek to review the use of overtime, allowances and enhancements, whilst at the same time consider the rates payable when used. 9941	An employee of West Lothian Council	1g. Workforce Arrangements	Without any detail it is almost impossible to comment on this. What precisely are 'pay enhancements and allowances'? The proposed review of terms and conditions would seek to review the use of overtime, allowances and enhancements, whilst at the same time consider the rates payable when used.
9942	An employee of West Lothian Council	1g. Workforce Arrangements	A review of pay enhancements and allowances is long overdue. The proposed review of terms and conditions would seek to review the use of overtime, allowances and enhancements, whilst at the same time consider the rates payable when used.
9943	An employee of West Lothian Council	1g. Workforce Arrangements	There is also a need to examine how, through outsourcing and or modernising working practices, the need for pay enhancements and allowances can be avoided.	Workforce Arrangements - Pay Enhancements	6. This is a positive suggestion. Officers will consider how this could be developed.	Officers will consider how to minimise the requirement for working overtime through modernised ways of working. It is not the council's intention to outsource services.
9944	An employee of West Lothian Council	1g. Workforce Arrangements	We are told our efforts are appreciated, and WLC is one of the top performing councils in the UK, but they refuse to give a pay rise above 1%. Employee pay must increase, if council tax is to increase by 3% they are making their own staff worse off. A yearly bonus scheme could be introduced for units that perform well and meet or exceed their targets.	Workforce Arrangements - Pay Enhancements	8. This suggestion is out with the responsibility of West Lothian Council. Where relevant, we will forward these comments to our partner organisations. Workforce Arrangements	A large number of manual employees receive a bonus but it doesn't improve the quantity of the quality of the work that is completed.	Workforce Arrangements - Pay Enhancements	1. The respondent advised that they agree with the proposal.	The proposed review of terms and conditions would seek to review the use of overtime, allowances and enhancements, whilst at the same time consider the rates payable when used.

The proposed review of terms and conditions would seek to review the use of overtime, allowances and enhancements, whilst at the same time consider the rates payable when used. The council is a living wage employer and staff on the lowest grades receive a living wage enhancement.
9949	An individual	1g. Workforce Arrangements	Agree. If the council do not have the money to pay existing staff then staff cuts need to be made, and remaining staff need to accept a cut in wages to keep their job (as happens in the private sector i.e. TATA steel) or find employment elsewhere. 9950	An employee of West Lothian Council	1g. The respondent advised that they either did not agree or did not believe the council should consider the proposal.	The proposed review of terms and conditions would seek to review the use of overtime, allowances and enhancements, whilst at the same time consider the rates payable when used.
9951	An individual	1g. Workforce Arrangements	While all organisations seek to minimise staffing overheads, consideration should be given to the quality of life of council staff. The public sector has traditionally paid lower than the private sector with the expectation that quality pensions provided balanced out this pay gap, but in recent years those pensions have been significantly cut and thus public sector staff are no longer well remunerated any sense. This will lead to loss of quality staff, and a poorer staff will lead to service failures. Cuts should not be made to low-mid income staff.	Workforce Arrangements - Pay Enhancements	2. The respondent advised that they either did not agree or did not believe the council should consider the proposal.	The council is subject to national pay bargaining and the salary scales for officers are determined nationally. 9956	An individual	1g. Workforce Arrangements	Really simple for me. A pay freeze for the next 5 years for all grades up to and including Councillors. If you think this is harsh, I am 66 years old, still having to work for the Civil Service and have had no wage increase for 5 years. It has only now been lifted as I'm sure you are aware. I'm still having to work because I failed to make adequate pension provisions in earlier life which I take personal responsibility for. This may be reflected in my other comments e.g.health care! 9985	An individual	1g. Workforce Arrangements	I think that pay enhancements should be reviewed, and also that across the council, travel expenses an other 'expenses' should be removed / drastically reduced. 9991	An individual	1g. 9995	An employee of West Lothian Council	1g. Workforce Arrangements	I think, and not alone in thinking, that cuts to pay and allowances and no pay enhancements has a much bigger effect on the 90% as opposed to the high earners at the top. The cuts to salaries or amount of staff should be on a means tested basis just like the tax system. It seems the top end on high salaries continue to be relatively unaffected in both job efficiencies and general pay enhancement reviews.	Workforce Arrangements - Pay Enhancements	8. 9998	An employee of West Lothian Council	1g. Workforce Arrangements	Pay enhancement restriction is a tricky one as Public Sector employees have been stretched in recent years. Many staff have already taken on additional tasks and responsibilities in recent years as team numbers have diminished - some staff not being replaced. This is fine, staff accept that these are challenging times and this is part of life. Continued use of flexible working hours is important here.	Workforce Arrangements - Pay Enhancements	1. The respondent advised that they agree with the proposal.	The proposed review of terms and conditions would seek to review the use of overtime, allowances and enhancements, whilst at the same time consider the rates payable when used.
9999	An individual	1g. Workforce Arrangements	By all means review staffing costs. Workmen working weekends...and presumably on overtime rates...is a particular bugbear of mine. Archaic overtime and pay rates, particularly those which discriminate mainly between traditional male and female jobs e.g. Roadworks as opposed to equally if not more challenging teaching assistant posts should certainly be reviewed. But council workers have probably suffered one of the longest stagnation on pay rises. Such a large proportion of West Lothian residents work in council services. Raising the Council tax and improving pay rates for those employees, with a fairer pay rate across the different jobs, will ensure the pay rates at least rise with inflation, the very least an employer should strive to do. However, DO feel that in comparison to other jobs, administration staff, certainly in non-managerial posts, ARE paid very well. Raise pay rates for those working with children, especially at the early stages please.	Workforce Arrangements - Pay Enhancements	1. The respondent advised that they agree with the proposal.	The proposed review of terms and conditions would seek to review the use of overtime, allowances and enhancements, whilst at the same time consider the rates payable when used.

10002	An employee of West Lothian Council	1g. 10007	An employee of West Lothian Council	1g. Workforce Arrangements	A full revamp on payments etc. is required to restore the Councils equality on how all staff are rewarded. Seems to have degenerated into a whole series of local agreements which benefit some while others have been left behind. This is leading to great resentment within the Councils workforce and needs sorted asap. I believe we should include in this section the cost of democracy. 10153	An individual	1h. General Balance of Savings to be Identified	Always a concern. Cutting staffing across the board for the sake of it should be avoided. Increased unemployment in west lothian will not benefit council funding. General Balance of Savings to be Identified (general)	8. This suggestion is out with the responsibility of West Lothian Council. Where relevant, we will forward these comments to our partner organisations.	The pension fund available to staff is determined and administered by the Lothian Pension Fund. The council does not pay bonuses to staff. Where an employee applies for voluntary severance or early retirement, there must be a robust business case demonstrating cashable savings for the council.

10168	No Response	1h. General Balance of Savings to be Identified	Would agree - this is something that is consistently mentioned but not taken forward.	General Balance of Savings to be Identified (general)	1. The respondent advised that they agree with the proposal.	The council has a proven track record of partnership working and would wish to build on this to continue providing local services. Through integration, and potentially sharing services with partners, it is expected that access and individual experiences will be improved. There would be less duplication and more streamlining of services.
10169	An employee of West Lothian Council	1h. General Balance of Savings to be Identified	Privatisation was and will be the best option for the service provides as Council will only pay for the service not for pay, insurance, equipment, offices etc...	General Balance of Savings to be Identified (general)	5c. It is proposed that this suggestion is not taken forward because it is not consistent with the council's values and priorities.	The council has a best value framework which requires the council to consider best value and all possible ways of delivering services, including use of external contractors. There are currently no proposals on the widespread outsourcing of council services to external providers.
10170	An employee of West Lothian Council	1h. General Balance of Savings to be Identified	Public should be made aware of exactly what reductions in service will happen as a result of changes to service delivery and staffing levels before it takes place, rather than staff having to deal with the fall out after a change has been made.	General Balance of Savings to be Identified (general)	6. This is a positive suggestion. Officers will consider how this could be developed.	Public consultation on changes to services is an integral part of the change management process to help identify alternatives and opportunities for service delivery. The council endeavours to fully consult with the public on all proposed changes to service delivery as part of the implementation process.
10171	An employee of West Lothian Council	1h. General Balance of Savings to be Identified	West Lothian has a reputation for sound financial planning so it is important that this continues and that politicians support the medium to long term aspirations. Short term planning does not support the strategic picture nor lay foundations for continuing effective service delivery through the change management process.	General Balance of Savings to be Identified (general)	1. The respondent advised that they agree with the proposal.	West Lothian Council agreed in February 2017 to a five year revenue budget strategy to support medium to long term planning. In developing the Corporate Plan and revenue and capital strategies, officers are focused on continuing to deliver sound financial planning.
10172	An employee of West Lothian Council	1h. General Balance of Savings to be Identified	As I pointed out previously, better to place emphasis on necessity not pay.	General Balance of Savings to be Identified (general)	6. This is a positive suggestion. Officers will consider how this could be developed.	All services will be reviewed based on the impact they have on priorities. It is proposed that future spending will be aligned to the priorities in the Transforming Your Council consultation document.
10173	An individual	1h. General Balance of Savings to be Identified	The Council has achieved a lot during the continued austerity period, but to be honest we need to pay for services so the Council tax needs to be reviewed. However, this cannot be a free for all and the money raised should be clearly as to where it is to be spent. No mention of removing twinning arrangements, stopping grants to various organisations etc.	General Balance of Savings to be Identified (general)	6. This is a positive suggestion. Officers will consider how this could be developed.	It is noted that you agree with officers' assumptions regarding a 3% increase in council tax. The council's aim is, and always will be, to ensure that West Lothian continues to be a great place to live, work, visit and do business. To achieve this aim we will continue to prioritise the money that we spend on services to make sure that our investment has the biggest and most positive impact on the community.
10174	An individual	1h. General Balance of Savings to be Identified	Support efficiency and productivity improvements	General Balance of Savings to be Identified (general)	1. The respondent advised that they agree with the proposal.	The council has a number of processes in place to monitor and report service performance and efficiency. Areas of low performance are reviewed and interventions applied where required.
10175	No Response	1h. General Balance of Savings to be Identified	This sounds very much like we will be expected to pay more for less service.	General Balance of Savings to be Identified (general)	3. The respondent advised that they had no comment to make.	As the council will have less overall resources, the number of services delivered will have to reduce with services being reviewed based on the impact they have on priorities. This will include changes to service standards and the way remaining services are delivered. It is proposed that future spending will be aligned to the priorities in the Transforming Your Council consultation document.
10176	An individual	1h. General Balance of Savings to be Identified	Yet again it will be those on the front line who will suffer	General Balance of Savings to be Identified (general)	3. This applies to all areas of the council from housing repairs to road repairs and maintaining high costing buildings. If something is broken, is it always best to fix it? Maybe it is time to start again.	General Balance of Savings to be Identified (general)	1. The respondent advised that they agree with the proposal.	The council's property asset management strategy and capital programme seek to identify planned maintenance to building fabric to minimise reactive maintenance going forward and maintain assets essential for the delivery of council services. The new ten year capital investment strategy will aim to maintain assets as much as possible within capital funding constraints to minimise the impact on revenue maintenance budgets.
10178	No Response	1h. General Balance of Savings to be Identified	It would be good to see what changes to service delivery will be proposed, i.e. what cut backs. I guess savings will be made via headcount and doing away with some services / reducing other services. That would be a real shame. Try and make savings through more collaborative working, working more efficiently and effectively.	General Balance of Savings to be Identified (general)	6. This is a positive suggestion. Officers will consider how this could be developed.	The council has a proven track record of partnership working and would wish to build on this to continue providing local services. 10179	An individual	1h. General Balance of Savings to be Identified	£10.4m seems far too aggressive a saving for something which, if I'm reading this right, is stuff you don't yet know what it is.	General Balance of Savings to be Identified (general)	3. The respondent advised that they had no comment to make.	The balance of savings is the value of savings to be identified to make sure that the council continues to have a balanced budget over the five years, as is required by law. Throughout the course of the five years more detailed savings proposals will need to be identified otherwise the council will not have a balanced budget.
10180	An employee of West Lothian Council	1h. General Balance of Savings to be Identified	Invest now	General Balance of Savings to be Identified (general)	4. The council is already doing this.	The council continues to invest in its assets through an extensive capital programme. Spend to save projects are considered where there is a robust business case.
10181	An individual	1h. General Balance of Savings to be Identified	Not really a proposal. It is a balancing figure without a plan	General Balance of Savings to be Identified (general)	3. The respondent advised that they had no comment to make.	The balance of savings is the value of savings to be identified to make sure that the council continues to have a balanced budget over the five years, as is required by law. Throughout the course of the five years more detailed savings proposals will need to be identified otherwise the council will not have a balanced budget.
10182	An individual	1h. General Balance of Savings to be Identified	First and foremost, the council should stop undertaking "fact finding" trips and limit travel to a level where it is strictly needed	General Balance of Savings to be Identified (general)	6. This is a positive suggestion. Officers will consider how this could be developed.	The council has relatively low travel costs compared to other local authorities. As outlined in the TYC consultation, the council is committed to reducing travel costs further.
10183	An individual	1h. General Balance of Savings to be Identified	Again, less resources, less service provision.	General Balance of Savings to be Identified (general)	3. The respondent advised that they had no comment to make. 10184	An individual	1h. General Balance of Savings to be Identified	If you can save £10.4 million then proceed with the stated service delivery and staffing levels changes. However, without further detail of the consequential impacts of the £10.3m savings it is not possible to comment further.	General Balance of Savings to be Identified (general)	1. The respondent advised that they agree with the proposal.	The balance of savings is the value of savings to be identified to make sure that the council continues to have a balanced budget over the five years, as is required by law. General Balance of Savings to be Identified (general)	6. This is a positive suggestion. Officers will consider how this could be developed. 10188	An individual	1h. General Balance of Savings to be Identified	Not a penny of council money, either direct or indirectly ,should be spent on twinning. There is no tangible benefit to a single person other than those who get a wee trip away. It is actually disgraceful that public money is given to the twining associations. Areas such as walking clubs and some of the 'nice to do but nobody really benefits' services need to stop. Most of these strange things take place in Social Policy and this money should be better spent.	General Balance of Savings to be Identified (general)	1. 10189	An individual	1h. General Balance of Savings to be Identified	Yep put more pressure on remaining staff and make more people unemployed that will solve lots of things.... Cut people cut services the short term cost saving is far outweighed by the long term knock on effect which will be far more expensive to resolve. But hey that will be the next administrations problem won't it.	General Balance of Savings to be Identified (general)	2. The respondent advised that they either did not agree or did not believe the council should consider the proposal. 10191	An individual	1h. General Balance of Savings to be Identified	Look at some of the disasters within Police Scotland and the move to merge forces. Everyone, everywhere is being asked to do more for less and we need to look at the bigger picture i.e. stopping brexit due to the disastrous consequences this is going to have. And voting on a load of lies is not democratic or a democratic process.	General Balance of Savings to be Identified (general)	8. This suggestion is out with the responsibility of West Lothian Council. Where relevant, we will forward these comments to our partner organisations. 10199	An individual	1h. General Balance of Savings to be Identified	This is again not clear what is meant. The council already works with other councils and public authorities. My concern is the amount of time lost in incessant meetings. A single management structure would help with such contracts - after the model of the armed forces when they are working with that of other countries.	General Balance of Savings to be Identified (general)	6. This is a positive suggestion. Officers will consider how this could be developed.	The council has a proven track record of partnership working and would wish to build on this to continue providing local services. 10200	No Response	1h. General Balance of Savings to be Identified	It is a difficult task to continually reduce budgets and deliver the same quality of service. 10202	An employee of West Lothian Council	1h. 10211	An individual	1h. General Balance of Savings to be Identified	It would be really worrying if the Council has Â£10.4 Million it can't account for because it has no idea of the rough value of it's investments & savings. 10222	An individual	1h. General Balance of Savings to be Identified	Quote - 'work with other councils and public authorities to deliver shared services' This begs the question why have so many separate councils in the first place ? Rationalise the number of separate councils - big savings must be possible here with the potential of drastic reductions in number of councillors and far fewer councillors could be tasked with what can be regarded as the same work covering a larger area. After all this is essentially what councillors are proposing across the board for all other public sector workers. Quote - 'The nature of medium to long-term financial planning means that it becomes increasingly difficult to identify with certainty expenditure, income and savings.' Even more so when you find yourself being paid less than you were promised when you took on a job of work.	General Balance of Savings to be Identified (general)	8. This suggestion is out with the responsibility of West Lothian Council. Where relevant, we will forward these comments to our partner organisations.	The overall structure of local government, including the total number of councils and councillors, is determined by the Scottish Government.
10223	An individual	1h. General Balance of Savings to be Identified	It is difficult to argue with this strategy as these appear to be the only options. However in taking these steps I would like to think that those who access the Services will be advised about the staep being discussed and the outcomes which will, inevitably, affect them also.	General Balance of Savings to be Identified (general)	1. The respondent advised that they agree with the proposal.	Public consultation on changes to services is an integral part of the change management process to help identify alternatives and opportunities for service delivery.
10224	An individual	1h. General Balance of Savings to be Identified	Sounds sensible if workload and changes to wages will not stress employees	General Balance of Savings to be Identified (general)	1. The respondent advised that they agree with the proposal.	As the council will have less overall resources, the number of services delivered will have to reduce with services being reviewed based on the impact they have on priorities. This will include changes to service standards and the way remaining services are delivered. It is proposed that future spending will be aligned to the priorities in the Transforming Your Council consultation document.

10226	An individual	1h. General Balance of Savings to be Identified	I thought that having all the services located under one roof was to be a cost saving for years to come?	General Balance of Savings to be Identified (general)	6. This is a positive suggestion. Officers will consider how this could be developed.	The council has delivered substantial savings through the introduction of partnership centres. Further opportunities to consolidate services both internally and with partners could be investigated.
10227	No Response	1h. General Balance of Savings to be Identified (general)	4. The council is already doing this.	All services will be reviewed based on the impact they have on priorities. It is proposed that future spending will be aligned to the priorities in the Transforming Your Council consultation document. 10228	On behalf of a Group/Organisation	1h. General Balance of Savings to be Identified	What does this saving mean? Again we have insufficient information relating to the specifics of this saving to make an informed decision on who this will affect and how. Has an equality impact assessment been completed for this saving.	General Balance of Savings to be Identified (general)	3. The respondent advised that they had no comment to make.	In line with established budget setting processes, all proposed reduction measures will be subject to an equality impact assessment.
10229	An employee of West Lothian Council	1h. General Balance of Savings to be Identified	We don't work effeciently in lots of departments, we don't stick to our service standards, and this results in further cost to us as a local authority, sometimes this is anything for an easier life for repeat customer's who just expect us to do anything they wish. The savings we have to make are now going to impact worse due to us not sticking to our service standards. .	General Balance of Savings to be Identified (general)	6. This is a positive suggestion. General Balance of Savings to be Identified (general)	4. The council is already doing this.	All services will be reviewed based on the impact they have on priorities. It is proposed that future spending will be aligned to the priorities in the Transforming Your Council consultation document.
10232	An individual	1h. General Balance of Savings to be Identified	This would depend on the amount of cuts being made. 10234	An employee of West Lothian Council	1h. General Balance of Savings to be Identified	Plans should be developed for these savings ASAP. It is important that long term plans are developed early to ensure changes are structured and not reactive.	General Balance of Savings to be Identified (general)	4. The council is already doing this.	The council recognises the importance of medium to long term financial planning. It provides certainty for stakeholders and makes sure that changes are implemented in a structured and robust manner.
10235	No Response	1h. General Balance of Savings to be Identified	As above if an outside agency can deliver the same service more cost effective this must be the correct move for the tax payers living within West Lothian	General Balance of Savings to be Identified (general)	4. The council is already doing this.	The council has a best value framework which requires the council to consider best value and all possible ways of delivering services, including use of external contractors.

General Balance of Savings to be Identified (general)	4. The council is already doing this.	The council currently uses national contracts for a number of items.
10237	An individual	1h. General Balance of Savings to be Identified	Consolidation of activity with other councils is a great idea but generally does not happen because jobs are put at risk.	General Balance of Savings to be Identified (general)	1. The respondent advised that they agree with the proposal.	The council has a proven track record of partnership working and would wish to build on this to continue providing local services. Through integration, and potentially sharing services with partners, it is expected that access and individual experiences will be improved. There would be less duplication and more streamlining of services. In addition to investigating partnership working, the council will continue to remove internal duplication and consolidate teams where appropriate.
10238	No Response	1h. General Balance of Savings to be Identified	Run it like a business!	General Balance of Savings to be Identified (general)	6. This is a positive suggestion. Officers will consider how this could be developed.	The council undertakes efficiency appraisals in the same manner as the private sector. The council is committed to reviewing service delivery and identifying efficiencies.
10239	An individual	1h. General Balance of Savings to be Identified	As a regular reader of the financial pages, it angers me that local government is being hit upon for mismanagement of the financial sector and lack of HMRC resources and targeting of progressive and corporate taxation. The amount of cumulative job losses FTE/PTE must be some of the highest of all employers in West Lothian and this should be made public so that the scale of cuts is public information. I am surprised at the lack of understanding about what is going on in the public sector in terms of cuts by acquaintances.	General Balance of Savings to be Identified (general)	4. The council is already doing this.	The proposed reductions will result in the reduction of staffing levels. West Lothian Council has always been committed to being honest and open regarding staffing reductions where robust information is available.
10240	An individual	1h. General Balance of Savings to be Identified	Im sure there are plenty of opportunities to save costs . again build a team that can look at all areas to identify these opportunities	General Balance of Savings to be Identified (general)	4. The council is already doing this.	The consultation document represents the culmination of significant work undertaken by the Corporate Management Team to review all service activities to identify savings. The savings identified were not done lightly and considered all options available.
10241	No Response	1h. General Balance of Savings to be Identified	Not balanced - get rid of the big money earners - too many of them sitting on fat cat salaries in the council and use the money more effectively. Look at job roles within the highest earners - are they worth it - what impact do they really make - do they provide value for money - are the necessary for the public purse - get them to justify themselves - if they can't get rid - because it always seems to be those on lower wages who suffer and those that are on high salaries don't.	General Balance of Savings to be Identified (general)	4. The council is already doing this.	The council continually reviews the tiers of management and span of control across all service levels. This ensures that the council continues to operate with an effective and efficient managerial structure.
10242	An employee of West Lothian Council	1h. General Balance of Savings to be Identified	I think that the staff need to understand the reality of the situation that the council faces and although budget briefings have been given there are some staff who still think that this does not impact them. Until proposals are put on the table of the services impacted and the specifics there will be some staff who have their heads in the sand.	General Balance of Savings to be Identified (general)	6. This is a positive suggestion. Officers will consider how this could be developed.	All services, including non statutory services, will be reviewed based on the impact they have on priorities. It is proposed that future spending will be aligned to the priorities in the Transforming Your Council consultation document. This document is the first stage of public consultation. Further public consultation on specific changes to services is an integral part of the change management process and will be undertaken as proposals are developed further.
10243	An individual	1h. General Balance of Savings to be Identified	Remove overhead costs and those associated with bureaucracy and award applications. The council employ a whole team of people in each service to polish badges by filling in application forms for awards. Holding the awards is kudos for the C Exec and politicians but delivers nothing to front line and is resented by those delivering the real service.	General Balance of Savings to be Identified (general)	6. This is a positive suggestion. Officers will consider how this could be developed.	The council does not employ any teams specifically for the purposes of applying for awards. The council does participate in quality management exercises and frameworks to facilitate benchmarking and help improve service delivery. The council is committed to reducing bureaucracy wherever possible without impacting on governance requirements.

10244	An employee of West Lothian Council	1h. General Balance of Savings to be Identified	Of course, the irony is that all this stems from more and more people living in West Lothian, having families, living longer, requiring more from our services, whilst having less and less money to deliver our services. If there is now less money to deal with more people, what we are looking at is for this council to basically become absolutely ineffective and redundant as we will be completely unable to offer any functioning service to the people that live here. Why is this seen as acceptable at any level? Where is the pushback for this?	General Balance of Savings to be Identified (general)	4. The council is already doing this.	The council regularly emphasises to the Scottish Government the need for a fair settlement for local government as well as working with COSLA (the body that collectively represents local government in Scotland) to emphasise this point.

General Balance of Savings to be Identified (general)	6. This is a positive suggestion. Officers will consider how this could be developed.	Given the level of previous financial savings, the next five years will require the council to fundamentally review and change how it delivers services.
10246	An employee of West Lothian Council	1h. 10253	No Response	1h. The council is already doing this.	The council has delivered balanced budgets each year since 1996. The budget gap faced by the council is a result of funding being insufficient to cover the increasing cost of delivering services due to factors such as population growth and indexation. The council is subject to rigorous external audit and both Audit Scotland and EY have confirmed, over a number of years, that the council has robust financial management.

10265	No Response	1h. General Balance of Savings to be Identified	There is a need for more accountability and openness from the council. Over the past 10 years the council has built new houses and schools, but there has been little to no money invested in old housing stock. Also do the council really need a new fleet of cars, vans, and lorries every 3/4 years? Also do the uniforms need to change colour every year at the tax payers expense.	General Balance of Savings to be Identified (general)	4. The council is already doing this.	Provision of council houses, including maintenance costs, is paid for from council house rents not council tax and general services which is the subject of this consultation. 10266	An employee of West Lothian Council	1h. 10267	An individual	1h. General Balance of Savings to be Identified	Front line services need to be protected. I would hope that social work services are not compromised as this area has undergone reductions in staffing in the past. If the Council decides to withdraw or reduce service delivery in certain areas of the local authority, I trust that they will explore opportunities that the service delivery could be substituted with third party providers. By doing this, it will maintain services to the public and encourage investment by private companies in the wider community.	General Balance of Savings to be Identified (general)	6. The budget gap faced by the council means that efficiency alone will not be enough to meet the projected budget gap and fundamental changes will be required to the way the council delivers services.
10273	No Response	1h. General Balance of Savings to be Identified	I think the Council should , as a priority, challenge the Scottish Government to explain how to make savings. They are going down the Income Tax route,rather than biting the bullet and removing the Council Tax cap. It is ridiculous that we are cutting so many valuable services to keep this Government in power!!!! Cutting staff is OK from time to time , but this is now ridiculous	General Balance of Savings to be Identified (general)	4. The council is already doing this.	Currently the Scottish Government only allows councils to increase council tax by a maximum of 3% annually. 10275	An individual	1h. General Balance of Savings to be Identified	Technology should enable staff to be much less office based thereby requiring less permanent office space in council buildings. If staff were expected/encouraged to work from home as a base with IT access there, this could provide an opportunity for office space to be rented out to other Agencies or buildings to be sold all together. This reduces maintenance costs and generates an income from rental. Some Services would need less admin support as practitioners are increasingly responsible for their use of IT and mobile phones would provide direct contact with practitioners/managers in their absence. Review buildings currently being used and consider if they the best way to operate a Service from. Some services use community centres to run groups from and this seems financially more sensible rather than a whole building being used for one Service to operate out of and the costs this entails. It would also enable groups to be located in the areas most in need and may reduce costs for parents to be transported by Services to attend.	General Balance of Savings to be Identified (general)	6. This is a positive suggestion. Officers will consider how this could be developed.	We will review our property assets and rationalise usage where possible taking into account the review and redesign of services delivered and investigating opportunities for coordinating availability of facilities. 10276	An individual	1h. General Balance of Savings to be Identified	I deplore the cuts to council budgets made by the UK government since 2010. 10280	An employee of West Lothian Council	1h. General Balance of Savings to be Identified	As WLC is the largest employee in West Lothian this could have catastrophic effects on the local economy. In my view the council should be looking at ways of bringing money in, protect jobs, protect services.	General Balance of Savings to be Identified (general)	6. This is a positive suggestion. Officers will consider how this could be developed.	The scope for charging will be considered, taking account current charges, the position in other local authorities and the impact of charges on vulnerable people and the availability of concessions. The council currently generates income from providing a range of services to partners and organisations. Further opportunities to expand this could be investigated.
10281	An individual	1h. General Balance of Savings to be Identified	As 1A - Excellent if all of the above are carried out. However on current personally experienced performance it will take a huge effort to even provide an improvement. Further why has the "efficiency and effectiveness" not been applied to current procedures. No real criteria to be reached is actually stated and the starting point for these "efficiency and effectiveness" upgrade to services is not evident. Vagueness in targets to achieve. How will residents know when this is achieved?	General Balance of Savings to be Identified (general)	4. The council is already doing this.	The budget report will clearly set out in detail measures to balance the budget including the potential impact on equality and performance. The council has a robust approach to monitoring financial performance during the year with reports provided to Council Executive. All of these reports are available to the public on COINS, the committee system.

Throughout the course of the five years more detailed savings proposals will need to be identified otherwise the council will not have a balanced budget. 10294	An individual	1h. No more pointless quangoes and jobs or those who cant get real jobs - put the money into educating our young people as they are our future. Better management of finances rather than cutting spending on key services please.	General Balance of Savings to be Identified (general)	2. The respondent advised that they either did not agree or did not believe the council should consider the proposal.	West Lothian Council does not have any Gaelic signs. The budget gap faced by the council is a result of funding being insufficient to cover the increasing cost of delivering services due to factors such as population growth and indexation. 10296	An employee of West Lothian Council	1h. General Balance of Savings to be Identified	The focus seems to be on staffing and education - two areas that will have long-term negative effects on the council area. Parents will be made redundant or have hours or overtime reduced, thus potentially falling into poverty; the cycle of which is increasingly difficult to break. This will impact children's education which will then lead them into poverty and it's not like they'll be able to get a job at the council or an apprenticeship as things will be so slimline by then or every human job will be replaced by 'efficient use of technology' but don't worry, they can use the MCMC services provided!	General Balance of Savings to be Identified (general)	2. The respondent advised that they either did not agree or did not believe the council should consider the proposal.	The council currently has a priority to minimise poverty, the cycle of deprivation and promote equality. The new anti-poverty service will allow the council to deliver this priority. 10300	No Response	1h. 10301	An employee of West Lothian Council	1h. 10303	No Response	1h. General Balance of Savings to be Identified	The reason for all of this saving is the ridiculous cap on Council budgets. Nobody with any sense would put a freeze on public spending for this long. 10304	An individual	1h. General Balance of Savings to be Identified	The delivery of various services has been impacted already by cost cutting measures in the past - you need only look at the state of the roads, the multitude of weeds growing from drains at the kerbside, reduction in snow clearing measures, residential care home fees etc - exactly how far can these cuts go?	General Balance of Savings to be Identified (general)	2. The respondent advised that they either did not agree or did not believe the council should consider the proposal. 10305	No Response	1h. General Balance of Savings to be Identified	Go back to the government & say these are unreasonable targets. The population in West Lothian has grown with the number of new houses being built in recent years & staff are needed to do their jobs to be a successful community & it can't happen on thin air. Again the spongers in society should be made to pay there way as they are bleeding the system dry.	General Balance of Savings to be Identified (general)	4. The council is already doing this.	The council regularly emphasises to the Scottish Government the need for a fair settlement for local government as well as working with COSLA (the body that collectively represents local government in Scotland) to emphasise this point.
10306	An individual	1h. General Balance of Savings to be Identified	In many of your proposals the wording is very general and the meaning quite hidden. The allocation of costs associated with shared service delivery would be agreed in advance with relevant partners.
10313	An individual	1h. General Balance of Savings to be Identified (general)	6. This is a positive suggestion. Officers will consider how this could be developed.	The council commissions the majority of services delivered by the third sector, therefore funding is committed on a competitive basis for services delivered. 10333	An individual	1h. General Balance of Savings to be Identified	This, says the Council will make a further saving of £10.4million but we do not know where the saving will be made. How can one give an opinion on this? Also, again, why is this not part of 1a. In addition if your financial forecasting is so poor, how believable can the rest of your budget proposals be? Perhaps some new modelling is needed or a new financial dept....which could save money.	General Balance of Savings to be Identified (general)	4. The council is already doing this.	The balance of savings is the value of savings to be identified to make sure that the council continues to have a balanced budget over the five years, as is required by law. Throughout the course of the five years more detailed savings proposals will need to be identified otherwise the council will not have a balanced budget. As these savings have not yet been identified they will not necessarily be through service redesign (1a). The council has delivered balanced budgets each year since 1996. 10335	An individual	1h. General Balance of Savings to be Identified	this is what I would expect you to be doing, there is no painless way to modernise and increase efficiency, you could try zero based budgeting.	General Balance of Savings to be Identified (general)	4. The council is already doing this.	The council uses zero based budgeting for staffing budgets, which is the largest component of the council's budget. The council continues investigate ways to consolidate, modernise and better coordinate activities to allow streamlining of operations and removal of duplication. This will help ensure that activities are completed and managed in the most effective way.
10336	An individual	1h. General Balance of Savings to be Identified	A restructuring of the council to negate the use of consultants; private contractors and a reduction in overtime could potentially save money. A reshuffle in council personnel to make better use of resources without having to diminish staffing numbers and potential redundancies should be considered.	General Balance of Savings to be Identified (general)	4. The council is already doing this.	The council makes limited use of consultants. Private contractors are used where best value is demonstrated, with the number of private contractors being used diminishing.
10337	An individual	1h. General Balance of Savings to be Identified	Not 10 years ago, west Lothian council made a big deal of not raising council tax rates for 3+ consecutive years. This short-sighted boast has contributed if not created this budget deficit. I'm sure that many residents wouldn't have minded paying an extra £10 a month to avoid the current situation. I would urge the council to make proper efficiencies but also to be true to honest financial projections in order that residents contribute appropriately and evenly.	General Balance of Savings to be Identified (general)	4. The council is already doing this.	For the past nine years the Scottish Government restricted councils' ability to raise council tax through the financial settlement. In 2017/18 councillors froze council tax. The budget gap faced by the council is a result of funding being insufficient to cover the increasing cost of delivering services due to factors such as population growth and indexation. The council is subject to rigorous external audit and both Audit Scotland and EY have confirmed, over a number of years, that the council has robust financial management.

10346	An individual	1h. General Balance of Savings to be Identified	It is very sad if staff lose their jobs, particularly in key areas of our communities. I suggest reducing the number of councillors.	General Balance of Savings to be Identified (general)	8. This suggestion is out with the responsibility of West Lothian Council. Where relevant, we will forward these comments to our partner organisations.	The number of councillors for each council area is determined by statute by the Scottish Parliament.
10347	An individual	1h. General Balance of Savings to be Identified	1h when will key council officers stand up and oppose they cut backs strongly and publicly denounce these efficiency measures. For too long the provision of services have been a political football amongst the electorate and unquestionably agreeing to national government policy. Elected officers and their officers were put in place to best represent the interest of their constituents, not to implement drastic cutbacks without real and public objection, to the cost to population and employees.	General Balance of Savings to be Identified (general)	4. The council is already doing this.	The council regularly emphasises to the Scottish Government the need for a fair settlement for local government as well as working with COSLA (the body that collectively represents local government in Scotland) to emphasise this point.
10348	An individual	1h. General Balance of Savings to be Identified	Why have you been wasting so much of our money up to this point?	General Balance of Savings to be Identified (general)	2. The respondent advised that they either did not agree or did not believe the council should consider the proposal.	The council has delivered balanced budgets each year since 1996. The budget gap faced by the council is a result of funding being insufficient to cover the increasing cost of delivering services due to factors such as population growth and indexation. The council is subject to rigorous external audit and both Audit Scotland and EY have confirmed, over a number of years, that the council has robust financial management. External audit and regulation provides no evidence of reckless spending.
10349	An individual	1h. General Balance of Savings to be Identified	I believe there is always scope for review of staffing so long as service levels are at least sustained or better still, improved	General Balance of Savings to be Identified (general)	1. As the council will have less overall resources, the number of services delivered will have to reduce with services being reviewed based on the impact they have on priorities. It is proposed that future spending will be aligned to the priorities in the Transforming Your Council consultation document.

10351	An employee of West Lothian Council	1h. General Balance of Savings to be Identified	Perhaps the council should consider the specialist team to look into the £40m+ money owed in council tax from citizens of WL area as well as other debt owed and written off??	General Balance of Savings to be Identified (general)	4. The council is already doing this.	The council actively pursues all debt, including council tax, community charge, rent and commercial debtors arrears. The council will investigate other ways to improve debt collections including strengthening corporate debt management activity. The council currently has a Corporate Debt Management Team.
10352	An employee of West Lothian Council	1h. General Balance of Savings to be Identified	Why isn't the Council transparent and open in saying there will have to be redundancies and major cuts to services? Why is the Council wasting money on a sham consultation when managers have already been told that decisions have been taken and elected members are also saying that the consultation exercise is a sham?	General Balance of Savings to be Identified (general)	2. The respondent advised that they either did not agree or did not believe the council should consider the proposal.	The proposals in the consultation document are officer measures. Decisions on whether these proposals are implemented will be made by elected members in February 2018. The council will consider every comment received as part of this consultation exercise.
10353	An employee of West Lothian Council	1h. General Balance of Savings to be Identified	The council should set out in the budget report which areas will be explored for these further savings. It would be good to look further at income generation opportunities, scope for property rationalisation, more use of digital technology, and potential for shared services.	General Balance of Savings to be Identified (general)	4. The council is already doing this.	The budget report will include information on areas and ideas to be investigated to meet the balance of savings to be identified.

10358	An employee of West Lothian Council	1h. General Balance of Savings to be Identified	I take it from the 5 year plan you know your block grant for the next 5 years, it seems a bit premature to be planning for 5 years if you don't have the correct figures, will you be doing another re-design when the scot gov block grant is less that you anticipated, which it inevitably will be.	General Balance of Savings to be Identified (general)	5c. It is proposed that this suggestion is not taken forward because it is not consistent with the council's values and priorities.	The council currently only receives one year settlements from the Scottish Government however the council is still required to produce medium to long term financial plans. The council's financial forecasts are based on the most up to date information available and predictions from bodies such as the Fraser of Allander Institute.
10359	An individual	1h. This will help ensure that activities are completed and managed in the most effective way.
10360	An individual	1h. General Balance of Savings to be Identified	Can't help but think in some instances this will reduce the quality of care further which has already suffered in some cases.	General Balance of Savings to be Identified (general)	2. The respondent advised that they either did not agree or did not believe the council should consider the proposal.	The council's aim is, and always will be, to ensure that West Lothian continues to be a great place to live, work, visit and do business. To achieve this aim we will continue to prioritise the money that we spend on services to make sure that our investment has the biggest and most positive impact on the community. As validated by external auditors and other inspection bodies, West Lothian Council continues to perform well against key performance indicators and activities. This will continue to be monitored and reviewed.
10361	An individual	1h. General Balance of Savings to be Identified	As above - lets have a root and branch review of the service and delivery. It isn't necessary to increase costs when efficiencies can be identified. A business approach is what is needed to ensure the correct spending on items needed is controlled. 10368	No Response	1h. General Balance of Savings to be Identified	So not £25.3 million savings identified as declared in your opening statement, only £14.9 million, leaving 41% of the projected total savings still to be found. Come on, you really need to be doing better than that. What about a review of all the council houses that people live in, but actually don't. They are not too hard to spot. Just take your dog for a walk around your local community. What about more mobile libraries and libraries and community education centres being amalgamated reducing premises costs and streamlining community services. What about more support for local businesses who try to keep our town centres vibrant. Investment can generate income, employment, improved local environments, all key priority areas you identified.	General Balance of Savings to be Identified (general)	6. This is a positive suggestion. Officers will consider how this could be developed.	Thank you for your response. 10369	An individual	1h. General Balance of Savings to be Identified	A full and proper review of roles, functions and services will highlight saving opportunities as the programme develops and officers and staff become engaged in the process of modernisation. Effective use of technology will support this. The level of saving required may have been identified but should not be approached as a financial puzzle to be solved by accountants, savings can only follow and be aligned to review of functions, ensuring appropriate staff are in post and that working practices are aligned to corporate priorities. If the process is driven only by financial considerations then doubtless savings can be made but there will be less certainty over whether they have been achieved in a manner which ensures continuing staff and service sustainability and development	General Balance of Savings to be Identified (general)	4. The council is already doing this.	The council has established a priority based approach to budgeting which was approved by councillors. All services will be reviewed based on the impact they have on priorities. General Balance of Savings to be Identified (general)	1. The respondent advised that they agree with the proposal. 10384	An individual	1h. General Balance of Savings to be Identified	Why does cost cutting always come down to staffing!!! Often it is a case that there are too many chiefs and not enough Indians and it is the Indians that are always on the receiving end of staff cuts. Is every council in the same situation, sharing best practice often provides an insight into new ideas, sharing of resource and better planning. Priority should surely go to teaching and health, look at the other council's workforce and see where costs can be shared.	General Balance of Savings to be Identified (general)	2. The respondent advised that they either did not agree or did not believe the council should consider the proposal.	The council continually reviews the tiers of management and span of control across all service levels. 10387	An employee of West Lothian Council	1h. General Balance of Savings to be Identified	It is very important that good levels of staffing are maintained within front-line services. There are lots of houses empty that have lay empty for years these houses should be cleaned by criminal so that family can move in. Everyone should be given a compost bin free to save waste. There far to many drugs all over. Sometimes you can smell it if you pass a house or a building. This should be looked at by police. To save money the council should get rid of some street lighting. 10403	An individual	1h. General Balance of Savings to be Identified	We need to make changes with the amount of people claiming benefits and disability allowance. 10404	An employee of West Lothian Council	1h. General Balance of Savings to be Identified	What I would say is we probably need to review and redefine what the council requires (essential services) to provide and be empowered to say no to = requests that do not meet the essential criteria/statutory provision. As someone who lives, works and has a family in West Lothian I make these comments with concern & sincerity.	General Balance of Savings to be Identified (general)	4. General Balance of Savings to be Identified (general)	6. This is a positive suggestion. Officers will consider how this could be developed.	The council is committed to reducing bureaucracy wherever possible without impacting on governance requirements.
10417	An individual	1h. General Balance of Savings to be Identified	We should not be spending money nearing the end of the financial year just to ensure it is spent but it should be transferred over to other services where need is required	General Balance of Savings to be Identified (general)	4. The council is already doing this.	The phasing of spending on all budgets will reviewed and if spending is higher towards the year end this will be investigated. The council balances the budget over all services with underspends conserved to cover overspends in other areas.
10418	An individual	1h. General Balance of Savings to be Identified	If decreasing things there will be less jobs and people out of jobs. It is already hard to get a job so more people will go on benefits and you will lose even more money. The money goes into society so you may not be able to keep your family happy safe and healthy creating problems with everyone around about you which is wrong due to setting children up to fail. This is making it worse for children lifes.	General Balance of Savings to be Identified (general)	2. 10420	An individual	1h. General Balance of Savings to be Identified	Again indicated that over the next 5 years £10.4 million will be putting people out of jobs surely this is a backward step. We should be increasing the workforce to meet the needs of the people in West Lothian and no selling yourselves to the highest bidder(private sector) who seem to make a profit form the services they provide. If they can do it so can West Lothian Council.	General Balance of Savings to be Identified (general)	2. The respondent advised that they either did not agree or did not believe the council should consider the proposal.	As the council will have less overall resources, the number of services delivered will have to reduce with services being reviewed based on the impact they have on priorities. 10422	An employee of West Lothian Council	1h. General Balance of Savings to be Identified	More Tax funds should be used for this.	General Balance of Savings to be Identified (general)	1. The respondent advised that they agree with the proposal.	Currently the Scottish Government only allows councils to increase council tax by a maximum of 3% annually. The council will consider your suggestion however it would have to be raised with the Scottish Government.
10423	No Response	1h. General Balance of Savings to be Identified	Work should be identified before budgets allocated. the current system of receiving a budget first then trying to achieve spend is bad financial management in my view? 10424	An individual	1h. General Balance of Savings to be Identified	Would ask to see detailed breakdown of revenue sources & expenditure so that this can be reviewed for potential savings. Would be good to see calculations that led to forecast of 16.9m budget gap.	General Balance of Savings to be Identified (general)	4. The council is already doing this.	Full details of how the council allocates its resources to individual services is provided in the annual activity budget which is available on the council's website. A summary of key areas of spend are included in the council tax leaflet which is provided along with bills.
10425	No Response	1h. General Balance of Savings to be Identified	Basically it will mean either redeployment of staff, or cutting staffing - why don't you just say this instead of saying increasing efficiency etc. How budgets are spent create inefficiencies, how budgets are worked throughout the year create inefficiencies - why when there is an underspend on a particular budget can it not be moved to a budget that it struggling - in accounting terms this is called virement, rather than saying oh we must spend this money on what it was allocated for and then spend it on something just for the sake of it.	General Balance of Savings to be Identified (general)	4. The council is already doing this.	As the council will have less overall resources, the number of services delivered will have to reduce with services being reviewed based on the impact they have on priorities. The pension fund available to staff is determined and administered by the Lothian Pension Fund.
10428	An employee of West Lothian Council	1h. General Balance of Savings to be Identified	We have an expanding population and WLC wants to cut back on buildings/services/staff? Is this not short sighted. The financial structure needs to change - why not have a WLC lottery to supplement services such as ENBALE and any area that is able to receive such funding.	General Balance of Savings to be Identified (general)	5a. It is proposed that this suggestion is not taken forward because the council is required by law to deliver this work.	The council is required by law to have a balanced budget. The budget gap faced by the council is a result of funding being insufficient to cover the increasing cost of delivering services due to factors such as population growth and indexation. As the council will have less overall resources, the number of services delivered will have to reduce with services being reviewed based on the impact they have on priorities. This will include changes to service standards and the way remaining services are delivered. It is proposed that future spending will be aligned to the priorities in the Transforming Your Council consultation document.

10492	An individual	1h. General Balance of Savings to be Identified	This not clear and sounds like waffle. A general comment on the whole of this document: there is a lot of very vague descriptions of what might be done. There is no detail about what services / facilities are actually going to be cut or reduced and what are the likely impacts of these. The council should be exposing the likely results of these proposed cuts - this document does not give any real examples or details about what is proposed it is general waffle rather than practical examples. 10571	An individual	1h. General Balance of Savings to be Identified	Within a 5 year budget plan there would be a great degree of flexibility to allow central government to be able to fund projects that become more priority in turn, possibly creating more financial hits on West Lothian Council. Frontline services no matter how the public think they are funded, expect first class accountable outputs where every pound has to be accounted for, it is therefore in my opinion that all the spare fat has been trimmed and it will boil down as to how you can get a workforce providing the same expected level of service without the same level of funding, this in turn creates uncertainty, morale problems. The workforce more than ever need security (jobs) a wage commensurate with inflation and a commitment from management that jobs etc are not on the line however I'm sure everyone and everything to save money must be considered. 10573	On behalf of a Group/Organisation	1h. General Balance of Savings to be Identified	Not clear what services this proposal is affecting. 10575	On behalf of a Group/Organisation	1h. General Balance of Savings to be Identified	Procurement could be pooled with other councils to maximise savings. Current standards of service delivery need to be met. The SLA needs to be comprehensive and enforced.	Procurement (general)	1. The respondent advised that they agree with the proposal.	The Council already utilises national frameworks for procurement of contracts where this is the best method of procuring goods and services.
10576	An individual	1h. General Balance of Savings to be Identified	If you don't pay a good wage you won't get good well trained staff who won't to do a good job & stay in it. There should be one buying authority for the whole of Scotland rather than individual councils.	Procurement (general)	1. The respondent advised that they agree with the proposal.	The Council already utilises national frameworks for procurement of contracts where this is the best method of procuring goods and services.
10577	An employee of West Lothian Council	1h. General Balance of Savings to be Identified	5D) A look at the council's Procurement department is needed as the current PECOS system is time consuming, overpriced and sometimes the materials that we are forced to purchase are substandard.	Procurement (general)	1. The respondent advised that they agree with the proposal.	West Lothian Council has to comply with national and EU legislation and competitive methods are employed. All appropriate suppliers can bid and contracts are tendered taking into consideration price, quality and total cost for all products contained within the contract. It is always possible to identify what seems a better price but staff costs in sourcing, ordering and administration of other suppliers may negate any perceived saving. The system used by the council for ordering goods is PECOS.
10578	An individual	1h. General Balance of Savings to be Identified	Make sure we get the best out of contracting with others. Are the contracts tight enough. Are there enough experienced lawyers at the council to do this.	Procurement (general)	1. The respondent advised that they agree with the proposal. 10579	An individual	1h. General Balance of Savings to be Identified	How is procurement managed? Any options to come together with other councils or health boards to improve the contracts secured? Can more of the contact with the council be managed online? Income generation opportunities in the buildings, parks, etc owned/operated by WLC? Outsourcing doesn't always provide the best service and unless the contract is iron clad will result in ad hoc payments being made.	Procurement (general)	4. The council is already doing this.	The Council already utilises national frameworks for procurement of contracts where this is the best method of procuring goods and services.

10581	An individual	1h. General Balance of Savings to be Identified	Council is one of the largest buyers in the area , when a contract goes out you should be making sure we are getting the best value for money with clauses in contracts to advise if they don't supply on time at the right time then contracts will be ended and new suppliers will be sought	Procurement (general)	1. 10582	An individual	1h. General Balance of Savings to be Identified	Ridiculous to even suggest that citting staff makes everything better. A lot of West Lothian are employed by council, you are just moving the debt around, less in work means less council tax etc coming in from people unemployed through cuts. Look to savings on buying goods and services in, better deals. Go in with the other councils to bit for goods and services in a bulk capacity, more people putting in to purchase means more savings. So many little things that could save a lot and save jobs. All this restructuring costs money!	Procurement (general)	4. The council is already doing this. 10591	An employee of West Lothian Council	1h. General Balance of Savings to be Identified	We are wasting a lot of money in our budgets. Personally, I work in a school within the council. Recently I was forced to buy books at a higher price through our supplier instead of buying them cheaper from another one simply because we had a contract. This is frequently the case with the cost of stationary, packet of pencils from Consortium is 20p, while they are Â£1.00 from Lyreco. Lyreco have the contract so we pay the higher price, to detriment of our budgets and education systems. Schools, hospitals and all council services should be free to buy from the cheapest supplier and not the preferred one. 10595	An employee of West Lothian Council	1h. General Balance of Savings to be Identified	All staff involved in procurement exercises should be given training in advance, not just on procurement legislation but also tactics of private sector firms and the whole culture that they are being exposed to. Many staff are naïve about intentions of firms they are engaging with, and the overarching message around EU procurement regs doesn't empower managers to make good long-term decisions. Process improvement recommendations through this initiative need to be taken on board by relevant managers rather than seen as an option to be considered. Procurement (general)	1. The respondent advised that they agree with the proposal.	Thank you for your response. Officers will consider how this can be developed.
10627	An individual	1h. General Balance of Savings to be Identified	Not paying more than needed just because its not on a contract, haggle, get good deals put in joint bids for goods and services. So many silly small things that add up to a lot of money!	Procurement (general)	1. The respondent advised that they agree with the proposal.	West Lothian Council has to comply with national and EU legislation and competitive methods are employed. All appropriate suppliers can bid and contracts are tendered taking into consideration price, quality and total cost for all products contained within the contract.
10628	An individual	1h. General Balance of Savings to be Identified	Avoid giving contracts to "friends and family" of Councilors and staff, publish contract details (easily done without exposing sensitive material) stating why this firm was chosen over that one. A more expensive firm might offer better value somewhere else. People need to see this otherwise it's brown envelope territory again.	Procurement (general)	7. The respondent's comment was either not relevant to the question, inappropriate and/or contained personal and sensitive information.	West Lothian Council has to comply with national and EU legislation and competitive methods are employed. All appropriate suppliers can bid and contracts are tendered taking into consideration price, quality and total cost for all products contained within the contract.
10629	An individual	1h. General Balance of Savings to be Identified	False economy savings. Outsourcing to the lowest bidder with the best service delivery plan sounds like a sound idea however when that provider then decides to, for example, cut their staffing levels half way through the contract in order to make cost savings to give themselves a better financial return the service delivery may still make the bare minimum requirement to maintain the contract however the service delivery becomes substandard.	Procurement (general)	2. The respondent advised that they either did not agree or did not believe the council should consider the proposal.	The council regularly monitors supplier performance to ensure that contracts continue to deliver efficient and effective goods and services to the council.
10630	An individual	1h. General Balance of Savings to be Identified	I don't oppose this increase but I do think that there are some simple steps that West Lothian could do to start to close the budget gap. Forcing employees to order through the PECOS system means that we spend more on goods than if we searched ourselves. Whilst each person's savings would not be huge, as a total the council would get much more goods for its pounds making it more efficient.	Procurement (general)	1. The respondent advised that they agree with the proposal.	West Lothian Council has to comply with national and EU legislation and competitive methods are employed. All appropriate suppliers can bid and contracts are tendered taking into consideration price, quality and total cost for all products contained within the contract. It is always possible to identify what seems a better price but staff costs in sourcing, ordering and administration of other suppliers may negate any perceived saving. The system used by the council for ordering goods is PECOS.
10631	An individual	1h. General Balance of Savings to be Identified	You currently pay how much to be a member of Scotland Exel? Don't pay it and get a better deal on all the contracts they are meant to be saving you! Or get rid of your procurement team as the task of exel is to get best value for all councils which to be honest isn't happening looking around some of your buildings	Procurement (general)	5b. It is proposed that this suggestion is not taken forward because it is likely that the costs of this proposal would outweigh the benefit. 10635	An employee of West Lothian Council	1h. General Balance of Savings to be Identified	Ensure the tenders don't allow for adhoc charges to be applied on top of agreed unit costs.	Procurement (general)	1. The respondent advised that they agree with the proposal.	The council's Corporate Procurement Unit works with Services to deliver contracts which provide best value for the council and to avoid introduction of clauses which permit ad hoc charges to be applied.
10636	An individual	1h. General Balance of Savings to be Identified	Review procurement policies.	Procurement (general)	4. The council is already doing this.	The council regularly reviews procurement policies and procedures to ensure that they support effective delivery of the procurement function.
10637	An individual	1h. General Balance of Savings to be Identified	This is of course a huge savings. I wish to point out that working "with other councils and public authorities to deliver shared services" raises alarm bells with me, and I would insist on assurances that West Lothian Council would not be subsumed and overwhelmed by Edinburgh Council, resulting in services being 'migrated' to Edinburgh. This would be detrimental and a huge loss both in practical terms eg travel times and costs; as well as being a threat to our local 'identity', which arises from, inter alia, long-established local organizations, deeply rooted in the community, and attuned to the specific social and economic needs of the West Lothian population.	Shared Services	6. This is a positive suggestion. Officers will consider how this could be developed.	The council has a proven track record of partnership working and would wish to build on this to continue providing local services. Through integration, and potentially sharing services with partners, it is expected that access and individual experiences will be improved. There would be less duplication and more streamlining of services. Access to services would be an essential consideration in the development of any plans to consolidate activities with partners. Any partnership arrangement would need to contribute to the council's agreed priorities.
10638	An employee of West Lothian Council	1h. General Balance of Savings to be Identified	LOOK AT DISBANDING LOCAL SERVICE AND GOING IN WITH EDINBURGH OR CENTRAL'S SERVICE	Shared Services	5c. It is proposed that this suggestion is not taken forward because it is not consistent with the council's values and priorities.	Whilst maintaining local services the council has a proven track record of partnership working and would wish to build on this to continue providing local services. Through integration it is expected that access and individual experiences will be improved. There would be less duplication and more streamlining of services.
10639	An employee of West Lothian Council	1h. 10640	An employee of West Lothian Council	1h. General Balance of Savings to be Identified	It is very important that all local authorities look at shared services. It is talked about but never really pursued. It is important for each local authority to be brave enough and hand-over control of some of its services to another authority if they do it better/more efficiently.	Shared Services	1. 10641	An employee of West Lothian Council	1h. General Balance of Savings to be Identified	this is so general it is impossible to comment on - it is unclear what work would be shared with other councils - I would have concerns that shared services resulted in people having to travel further / being unable to access services - for example currently DWP assessments are not carried out within West Lothian and claimants have to travel to Edinburgh - for clients that require to be accompanied this results in staff spending several hours escorting a client to / from Edinburgh - another example would be the Challenging Behaviour GP practice which again is based in Edinburgh which has resulted in clients who are not able to travel unaccompanied / whose lives are too chaotic being left without a GP	Shared Services	6. This is a positive suggestion. Officers will consider how this could be developed.	The council has a proven track record of partnership working and would wish to build on this to continue providing local services. Through integration, and potentially sharing services with partners, it is expected that access and individual experiences will be improved. There would be less duplication and more streamlining of services. The services highlighted in the comment are not delivered by the council but by the national government and health. Access to services would be an essential consideration in the development of any plans to consolidate activities with partners.
10642	An individual	1h. General Balance of Savings to be Identified	Sharing of services between Councils would appear to be a sensible means of saving costs and avoiding duplication. 10643	An individual	1h. General Balance of Savings to be Identified	Look to outsourcing some areas to reduce costs and get best value	Shared Services	5c. It is proposed that this suggestion is not taken forward because it is not consistent with the council's values and priorities.	The council has a best value framework which requires the council to consider best value and all possible ways of delivering services, including use of external contractors. There are currently no proposals on the widespread outsourcing of council services to external providers.
10644	An individual	1h. General Balance of Savings to be Identified	Shared services are attractive but having seen some of this in effect with many other councils, there is a risk to efficiency and prioritising work depending which is the lead authority. 10646	An employee of West Lothian Council	1h. General Balance of Savings to be Identified	Shared service delivery has not been a very successful model to date. Perhaps there is scope within corporate and support services elements, but not in terms of frontline delivery services. Reductions in staffing to provide budget savings will have to be honestly reflected in reductions in service delivery.	Shared Services	1. The respondent advised that they agree with the proposal.	The council has a proven track record of partnership working and would wish to build on this to continue providing local services. Through integration, and potentially sharing services with partners, it is expected that access and individual experiences will be improved. 10647	No Response	1h. General Balance of Savings to be Identified	The delivery of shared services has been mentioned often in the past but there doesn't appear to have been much progress. 10649	An individual	1h. General Balance of Savings to be Identified	Collaborations don't always work and quite often don't realise the savings expected. WLC were formerly part of Lothian Region which was split up in the 1990's, bigger doesn't always mean better. Shared services and resources clearly means a reduction in staff numbers. 10650	An individual	1h. General Balance of Savings to be Identified	Fine. I think working with other councils is good practice to share services and buy in specialised expertise when required. 10652	An employee of West Lothian Council	1h. General Balance of Savings to be Identified	I think this makes complete sense. Delivering shared services such as IT, HR and payroll to name but a few seems the way forward. Reducing duplication throughout WLC would also make sense. As it stands WLC currently have Housing (via housing officers), the Corporate Advice Team, The Corporate Debt Team and the Advice Shop all tackling similar issues.	Shared Services	1. 10656	An individual	1h. General Balance of Savings to be Identified	Again, this could significantly impact jobs but I can't see any other options but to share services with other councils to reduce your costs. 10657	An individual	1h. General Balance of Savings to be Identified	Shared services across local authority boundaries appears to function successfully. So far this survey makes no mention of revenue generating activities. Given the huge range of services a council delivers and the skills and equipment in-house, it should be capable of selling some of these services externally throughout the region.	Shared Services	6. This is a positive suggestion. Officers will consider how this could be developed.	The council currently generates income from providing a range of services to partners and organisations. Further opportunities to expand this could be investigated.
10658	No Response	1h. General Balance of Savings to be Identified	This could work well. Some service areas aren't top heavy with staff already in West Lothian. 10661	An individual	1h. General Balance of Savings to be Identified	It's time to modernise the council and get rid of the old DLO workforce. Huge savings could be made by going out to tender and replace the workers that have been wrapped in cotton wool for the last 15 years.	Shared Services	1. The council is subject to rigorous external audit and both Audit Scotland and EY have confirmed, over a number of years, that the council has robust financial management and delivers best value in the use of public resources. 10664	An individual	1h. General Balance of Savings to be Identified	Over 20 years ago, re-regionalisation resulted in a huge improvement in the services provided in West Lothian. Previously, Edinburgh spent much of its revenue from all the Lothians on Edinburgh. They were also autocratic in their approach opposed to the democratic approach that W Lothian practised. It would to West Lothian's demise to revert back the original system. However, it would be an advantage if WL joined services with Midlothian.	Shared Services	6. This is a positive suggestion. 10667	An employee of West Lothian Council	1h. General Balance of Savings to be Identified	A Scotland wide Freedom of Information Agency could be set up to deal with the numerous requests that come mostly from political parties and newspaper reporters. If all 32 Scottish local authorities are dealing with the same requests - surely time could be saved by taking the same approach rather than 32 people trying to work out what exactly is being asked for.	Shared Services	8. This suggestion is out with the responsibility of West Lothian Council. Where relevant, we will forward these comments to our partner organisations.	Scotland wide agencies are identified and created at Scottish Government level. 10682	An employee of West Lothian Council	1h. 10683	An employee of West Lothian Council	1h. General Balance of Savings to be Identified	This is a no brainer and should, like many other potential efficiencies, have been delivered as part of the Christie commission/public sector reform agenda many years ago. There is no need (other than political ego) for 32 local authorities in a country as small as Scotland with such a small population. 7 regions would probably suffice (as long as this protected democracy through very localised 'community councils' - such as those across France, Norway, Germany etc.) The historical centralisation of staff and services in west Lothian has not served democracy well - nor citizens. The importance of local govt in the eyes of the electorate is clearly diminished when looking at trends and turnout in (all) elections referenda etc. As a resident, the frequency and quality of services have already diminished significantly, the creation of pseudo ALEO has been a complete farce, obviously poorer roads, paths and greenery/parks maintenance is going to be more expensive in the medium and long term.	Shared Services	8. This suggestion is out with the responsibility of West Lothian Council. Where relevant, we will forward these comments to our partner organisations.	The structure of local government is determined at a national level. The council would be looking for opportunities to work closer with partners and other local authorities to deliver some services.
10684	No Response	1h. General Balance of Savings to be Identified	Centralising or moving work between / working alongside other councils is good and well as long as the necessary knowledge and experience is shared. Through integration, and potentially sharing services with partners, it is expected that access and individual experiences will be improved. 10685	An individual	1h. General Balance of Savings to be Identified	Do not lose control or become subservient to other councils if this happens - our proximal councils are pretty powerful and bossy?!? Estimation bit big and very vague - get with it!	Shared Services	1. The respondent advised that they agree with the proposal.	The council has a proven track record of partnership working and would wish to build on this to continue providing local services. Any partnership arrangement would need to contribute to the council's agreed priorities and outline service delivery levels.
10686	No Response	1h. General Balance of Savings to be Identified	If services can be provided then seem good idea to have cooperation between other bodies.	Shared Services	1. The respondent advised that they agree with the proposal.	The council has a proven track record of partnership working and would wish to build on this to continue providing local services. Through integration, and potentially sharing services with partners, it is expected that access and individual experiences will be improved. 10687	An individual	1h. General Balance of Savings to be Identified	Shared services and out sourcing provided it is properly costed us a great idea.	Shared Services	1. The respondent advised that they agree with the proposal.	The council has a proven track record of partnership working and would wish to build on this to continue providing local services. Consideration would be given to the level of savings that could be generated from any shared services arrangement before implementation.

10693	An employee of West Lothian Council	1h. General Balance of Savings to be Identified	Looking at the bigger picture to establish positive means of sharing services could be successful - however it would depend which other councils we would be reaching out to... For example, if we linked up with Edinburgh council we probably wouldn't have a lot of say in important matters due to the size difference of the authorities.	Shared Services	1. The respondent advised that they agree with the proposal.	The council has a proven track record of partnership working and would wish to build on this to continue providing local services. Any partnership arrangement would need to contribute to the council's agreed priorities and outline service delivery levels.

10695	An individual	1h. General Balance of Savings to be Identified	Do not agree that there should be shared services, as above the ability to manage staffs time would solve this problem. General Balance of Savings to be Identified	WLC should be looking to be at the forefront of change and performance to ensure shared service provision provides job security for existing employees, if we can do it better then we can take work from other local authorities, not lose staff and work to others. 10697	An individual	1h. General Balance of Savings to be Identified	Shared practice is not a negative thing can have very positive rewards. Think council would need to look very clearly at what expected, outcomes, responsibilities and ensuring that staff have a good work and home-life balance.	Shared Services	1. The respondent advised that they agree with the proposal.	The council has a proven track record of partnership working and would wish to build on this to continue providing local services. Any partnership arrangement would need to contribute to the council's agreed priorities and outline service delivery levels.
10698	An individual	1h. General Balance of Savings to be Identified	If you are going to pay outside companies to do repairs, building, admin etc when there are people who are already trained to do these roles within the council then there is no point in them being employed so either make them redundant which will have a HUGE affect on the citizens of West Lothian or STOP PAYING OUTSIDE COMPANIES TO DO THE WORK COUNCIL EMPLOYEES ARE TRAINED TO DO!! For example, putting building work out to tender to other companies?! There are people being paid by the council who are trained to do this work and are being paid regardless of whether they are doing this work or not, surely there is a saving to be made there? Also, stop charging the council as separate departments and services - everyone works for the same organisation so why does one department have to charge another to use their services?	Shared Services	6. This is a positive suggestion. Officers will consider how this could be developed.	The council is subject to rigorous external audit and both Audit Scotland and EY have confirmed, over a number of years, that the council has robust financial management and delivers best value in the use of public resources. All services will be reviewed based on the impact they have on priorities. It is proposed that future spending will be aligned to the priorities in the Transforming Your Council consultation document. The council is required to make sure that all expenditure demonstrates best value therefore the council is required to put specific projects out to tender in the competitive market.

10702	No Response	1h. General Balance of Savings to be Identified	Similar to previous reply. There are probably areas where expensive equipment ie grass cutting, specialised medical equipment etc can be shared between councils and hospitals.	Shared Services	6. This is a positive suggestion. Officers will consider how this could be developed.	The council has a proven track record of partnership working and would wish to build on this to continue providing local services. Through integration, and potentially sharing services with partners, it is expected that access and individual experiences will be improved. 10705	An employee of West Lothian Council	1h. General Balance of Savings to be Identified	Shared services seems to take for ever to get anywhere. We need to let go of ego and internal politics to make any headway.	Shared Services	1. The respondent advised that they agree with the proposal.	The council has a proven track record of partnership working and would wish to build on this to continue providing local services. Through integration, and potentially sharing services with partners, it is expected that access and individual experiences will be improved. There would be less duplication and more streamlining of services.
10706	No Response	1h. General Balance of Savings to be Identified	Shared services is something we have been doing for a number of years and has its benefits. However, it also has problems, in particular where different objectives are identified by each service. Myself and colleagues are very keen to secure savings and believe we have the skills to do so, by setting up contracts, rather than wasting valuable resources trying to manage poorly awarded frameworks that do not meet the needs of our services.	Shared Services	1. The respondent advised that they agree with the proposal.	The council has a proven track record of partnership working and would wish to build on this to continue providing local services. Any partnership arrangement would need to contribute to the council's agreed priorities and outline service delivery levels. Council procurement activity is determined through European legal requirements and directives.
10707	An individual	1h. General Balance of Savings to be Identified	Shared services is undoubtedly the way to go. I'm only surprised that no serious work has been done on this area already.	Shared Services	1. The respondent advised that they agree with the proposal.	The council has a proven track record of partnership working and would wish to build on this to continue providing local services. Through integration, and potentially sharing services with partners, it is expected that access and individual experiences will be improved. There would be less duplication and more streamlining of services.
10708	An employee of West Lothian Council	1h. General Balance of Savings to be Identified	I can't imagine how this would work or what it would look like. When there are already huge wait times on most services, cutting these down and merging them together doesn't sound like it is going to make it easier for more people to be seen.	Shared Services	2. The respondent advised that they either did not agree or did not believe the council should consider the proposal.	As the council will have less overall resources, the number of services delivered will have to reduce with services being reviewed based on the impact they have on priorities. This will include changes to service standards and the way remaining services are delivered. It is proposed that future spending will be aligned to the priorities in the Transforming Your Council consultation document.
10709	An individual	1h. General Balance of Savings to be Identified	Yes to looking outwith the Council for examples of good and efficient practice.	Shared Services	1. The respondent advised that they agree with the proposal.	The council currently benchmarks with both public and private sector service providers. This helps the council to incorporate best practice and ensure that resources are used to deliver best value.
