5. No person apparently under the age of 15 years shall be admitted to any exhibition at which there is to be shown any film which has received a "15" certificate from the British Board of Film Classification.
6. No person apparently under the age of 12 years shall be admitted to any exhibition at which there is to be shown any film which has received a "12" certificate from the British Board of Film Classification.
7. Notwithstanding the conditions herein before contained, a film may be exhibited or persons or any class of person, may be admitted thereto if the permission of the licensing authority is first obtained and any conditions of such permission are complied with.
8. A representation or written statement of the terms of any certificate given by the British Board of Film Classification shall be shown on the screen immediately before the showing of any film to which it relates, and the representation or statement shall be shown for long enough and in a form large enough for it to be read from any seat in the auditorium.
9. There shall be prominently exhibited at each public entrance whenever the premises are open to the public a notice indicating in tabular form and in clear bold letters and figures –
 - (a) the title of each film to be shown on that day, other than trailers and films of less than 5 minutes duration;
 - (b) the approximate times of commencement of each such film;
 - (c) whether each such film has received a "U", "PG", "12", "15" or "18" certificate from the British Board of Film Classification; and

- (d) the effect of such “U”, “PG”, “12”, “15” or “18” certificates in relation to the admission of persons under the age of 18 years.
10. The nature of any certificate received in respect of a film from the British Board of Film Classification shall be clearly indicated by the letter “U”, “PG”, “12”, “15” or “18” in any advertisement of the film displayed at the premises.
 11. No advertisements displayed at the premises of a film to be exhibited at the premises shall depict as a scene or incident in the film any scene or incident which is not included in the film as certified by the British Board of Film Classification or approved for exhibition by the licensing authority, as the case may be.
 12. Where the licensing authority has given notice in writing to the licensee of the premises objecting to an advertisement on the ground, that, if displayed it would offend against good taste or decency or be likely to encourage or incite to crime or to lead to disorder or to be offensive to public feeling that advertisement shall not be displayed at the premises except with the consent in writing of the licensing authority.
 13. Where the licensing authority has given notice in writing to the licensee of the premises prohibiting the exhibition of a film on the ground that it contains matter, which, if exhibited, would offend against good taste or decency or would be likely to encourage or incite to crime or to lead to disorder or to be offensive to public feeling, that film shall not be exhibited in the premises except with the consent in writing of the licensing authority.
 14. No animals shall be permitted in the premises during the exhibition of a film except guide dogs and hearing dogs. The licensee shall not refuse admission to patrons with guide dogs or hearing dogs.
 15. Any fire officer, police constable or authorised officer of the Council shall be permitted free access to the whole of the premises at any time and all reasonable directions and requirements of such officers must be complied with.
