The personal information we collect

We will collect personal information about you. This information will be:

- Your address – our system holds all addresses in West Lothian, but without further details of residents at that address.
- Your email address for the Postcode Lookup Service. This is to provide information on recycling, bin collection days, and to subscribe to email reminders.
- If someone at your address is eligible for an assisted take-out, requires a clinical waste uplift, or requires additional waste capacity, we will record that these are required at this address.
- The information you provided as part of any enquiry or survey, such as your address, telephone number and email address.
- Video images may be captured in passing CCTV recordings. These are used to ensure a safe collection service is being delivered.

How we get your personal information and why we have it.

Most of the personal information we process is provided to us directly by you for one of the following reasons:

- To allow us to deliver scheduled or one-off recycling & waste collections at your property.
- To allow us to provide assisted take outs and additional capacity bins
- To allow us to manage any enquiry you make.

We use the information that you have given us in order to provide the services you request and, if necessary, to contact you about those services.

We may also use your information to assist us to plan future services.

Under data protection law, the lawful bases we rely on for processing this information are:

We have a contractual obligation.

We need it to perform a public task.

Who we will share your information with?

In processing a request to collect hazardous waste such as household chemicals, paint, mineral oil, etc., we are required to share your address and contact details with:

-  LOWMAC, our hazardous waste collector*

*Please note that our contractor may change in the future

In the processing of the Postcode Lookup Service to check your bin collection days, and to subscribe to email reminders, we will share your email address with:

- GOSS Interactive, our website provider*

*Please note that our web provider may change in the future

Access to CCTV recordings day-to-day will be restricted to staff who operate the system. CCTV recordings will only be disclosed if there is a legitimate reason to disclose them. Records may need to be disclosed for the following reasons:

- To the police, for the prevention and detection of crime;
- To a court for legal proceedings;
- To a solicitor for legal proceedings;
- To insurance companies for claims management

Where recordings have been disclosed or viewed by an authorised third party the council will keep a record of:

- When the images were disclosed;
- Why they have been disclosed;
- Any crime incident number to which they refer;
- Who the images have been viewed by or disclosed to.

Your information will not be shared with the public.

How long do we keep your information?

We will keep your information for a period of six years after resolution of your enquiry to help us with reporting and planning in the future.

CCTV Images will be kept for a maximum period of 28 days, unless they are required for investigation purposes. Should this be the case they will be kept for three years.

Email addresses for the Postcode Lookup Service will be kept until customers no longer require email reminders and they unsubscribe from the Postcode Lookup Service.

Your rights

Under data protection law, you have rights including:

Your right of access - You have the right to ask us for copies of your personal information.

Your right to rectification - You have the right to ask us to rectify personal information you think is inaccurate. You also have the right to ask us to complete information you think is incomplete.

Your right to erasure - You have the right to ask us to erase your personal information in certain circumstances.

Your right to restriction of processing - You have the right to ask us to restrict the processing of your personal information in certain circumstances.

Your right to object to processing - You have the the right to object to the processing of your personal information in certain circumstances.

Your right to data portability - You have the right to ask that we transfer the personal information you gave us to another organisation, or to you, in certain circumstances.

You are not required to pay any charge for exercising your rights. If you make a request, we have one month to respond to you.
