Management Plan 2022/23

An introduction to the Management Plan from the Heads of Education Services

The Management Plan is a key planning document that will explain how the service will support in the delivery of the council's eight priorities in 2022/23.

Through the provision of school based education and community learning Education Services is leading in the delivery of the council's strategic priority to improve attainment and positive destinations and is also delivering positive outcomes, including reducing the poverty related attainment gap and early interventions for early years through the provision of high quality early learning and childcare.

The service has a COVID recovery and renewal plan, which seeks to improve the health and wellbeing and resilience of children and young people, and to support children and families through targeted holiday activity programmes, counselling and mental health support, and support to adult and youth learners.

The service works in partnership to deliver the Children's Plan, Getting it Right for Every Child including care experienced children and young people. The service also promotes positive outcomes on health through health programmes in schools, including tooth brushing and immunisations, and physical education, activity sport, music and culture in schools and the community.

Education Services is making a contribution to reducing crime and improving community safety, including working with partners in health and the police to reduce drug use amongst young people, improving health and community safety outcomes. Through Curriculum for Excellence (CfE) the service promoted actions to support sustainability.

Corporate Priorities 2018/23 | The council re-committed to eight ambitious priorities following a large public consultation in 2017/18. We believe these priorities will continue to support improvement in the quality of life for everyone living, working and learning in West Lothian and will be the focus for council services, resources and staff in the next four years.

In support of the Corporate Plan 2018/23 and the eight priorities we will continue to strive to improve the quality and value of council services. As well as ensuring effective governance and compliance, Education Services will maintain a clear focus on delivering Best Value, whilst empowering school communities and other stakeholders to have their say on how council services develop and transform. This management plan sets out how the service will use its resources to deliver positive outcomes for West Lothian.

Transforming Your Council

How Education Services will transform over a five year period

The council is entering the final year of an ambitious programme of transformation in order to support the delivery of services that are accessible, digital and efficient. The Transforming Your Council programme is intended to deliver over £65.3 million in savings and will fundamentally change the way that council services are delivered.

Transformational change within Education Services will be grouped around three main themes – adult learning, culture and sport; schools; and early learning and childcare and central services. Projects within Education Services will achieve over £8.273 million over a five year period. During this period, however, the budget of Education Services will benefit from significant additional funding £16 million to support the expansion of early learning and childcare and also to reflect the growing population of children and young people. Education Services has received £10.167 million from the Scottish Government for COVID recovery. A separate £1.432 million has been received to distribute funds to childcare providers to help with implications of COVID restrictions, and this also includes a £400 payment made to teachers. In addition, Operational services received a separate £1.686 million in COVID recovery grant funding that was used in schools.

Transformation in the service will be grouped around three key themes.

Adult Learning, Culture and Sport

The Adult Learning service will concentrate on adult literacy and English as a second and other language and promote digital inclusion.

Community arts will focus on developer funded public art, and the arts programme at Howden Park Centre.

Charging was introduced for instrumental music tuition in school session 2018/19, but removed again in session 2021/22 following receipt of targeted funding from the Scottish Government.

Sport provision will focus on Active Schools and Community Sport.

Together these changes will save £2.341 million.

Schools

The budgets provided to schools will empower schools to focus spending on the things that best meet the needs of their learners.

Each school will consider how to make efficiency savings, including from training allocations, supplies, administration and clerical allocations, and pupil support worker allocations,

Together these changes will save £6.693 million.

Early Learning, Childcare and Central Services

Efficient use is being made of existing early learning and childcare places.

Teachers have been replaced by other qualified professionals in early learning and childcare, and all Council-nurseries are now under the management of primary Headteachers.

Central staffing is being made more efficient. Other savings will be achieved through fees and charges and more efficient partnership working.

Together, these changes will save £2.532.

Engagement Methods

Throughout the period of this plan, Education Services will continue to engage and consult with customers, employees, partners and stakeholders on the effectiveness of the services that we provide and also, any changes that are proposed to the offering. Details of planned engagement and consultation methods will be provided in the annual update to the Management Plan.

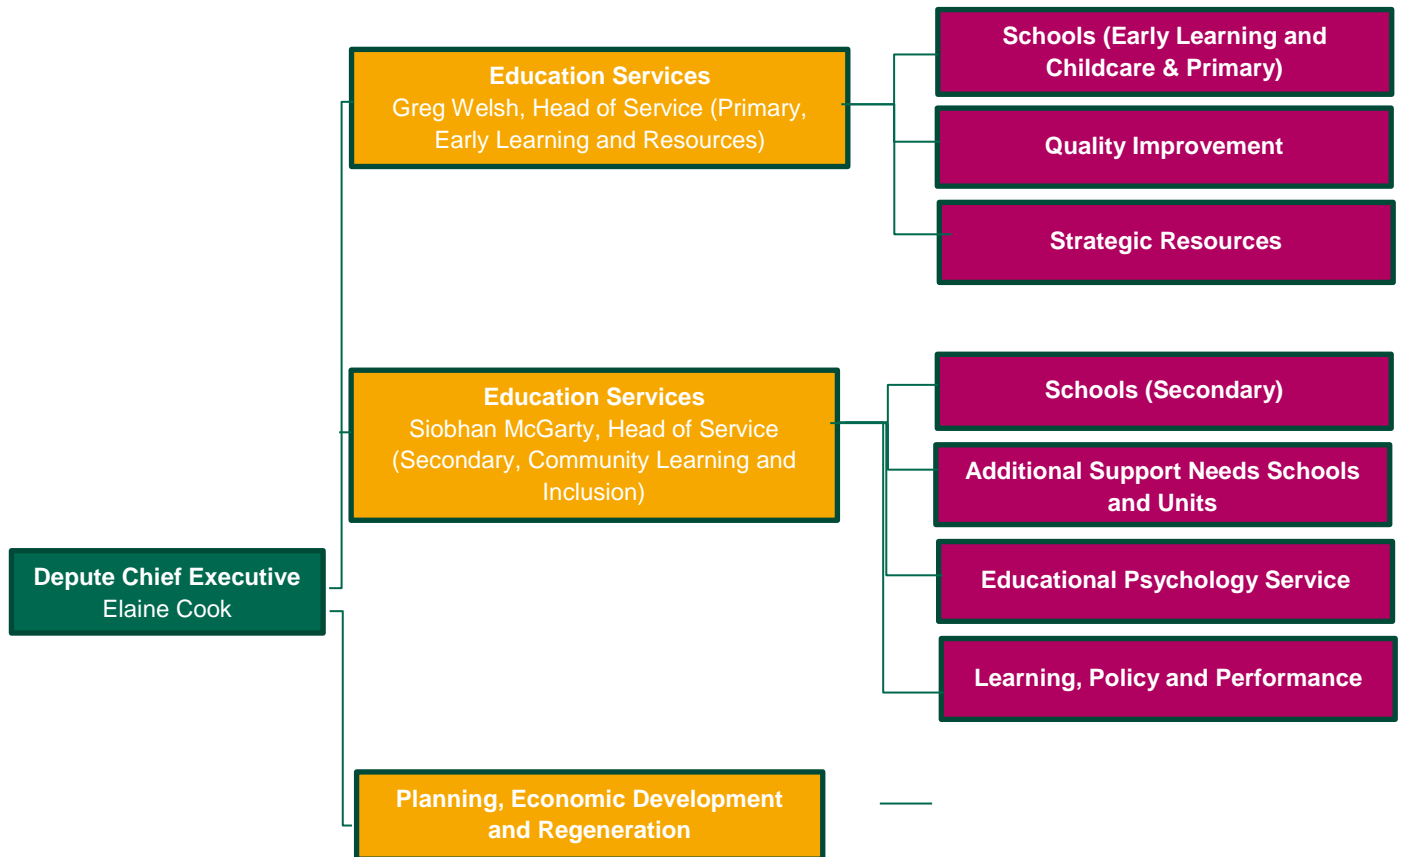

Education Services make the following commitments to customers, employees and partners:

- ◆ Involve and engage employees, customers and partners in service improvement and transformation activity through a range of appropriate methods;
- ◆ Ask customers about the quality and effectiveness of the services that we provide through regular consultation and surveys and use their views to inform decision making in the service.

Service Activity

The Education, Planning and Regeneration Services directorate is focused on the delivery of services that will support our community to grow and develop with better outcomes in early years, education and employability.

The main focus of activity within Education Services is the delivery of school based education. Schools are supported by teams dealing with quality improvement, education psychology, inclusion and wellbeing, resources, policy and performance. Services are also provided to children, young people and the wider community through arts, cultural and sport services and community learning and development.

Education Services is made up of primary and secondary schools, early learning and childcare establishments, and additional support for learning establishments and units, and five services, known as West Lothian Assessment Model (WLAM) units, under the direction of the two Heads of Education Services.

The following section provides more information on the activities and resources of schools and each WLAM unit.

Employee Engagement

Education Services has a total of 4225 employees (3,479.59 full time equivalent) delivering our services.

Motivation and commitment are key drivers of employee performance and the service aims to effectively engage and develop employees through improved communication and increased participation. The service uses the council's employee engagement framework, ensuring that employees have access to the information and support they need to succeed, also that there is constructive, regular two-way communication throughout the service.

The schedule of engagement that will take place in each of our WLAM units is outlined in the table.

Risk Management

Risk can be defined as the effect of uncertainty on an organisation's objectives.

The council aims to mitigate risks to its objectives by implementing robust risk management procedures which enable managers to effectively manage their risks.

Significant risks to Education Services' objectives are set out in the council's corporate risk register. These risks are regularly monitored by managers and are reviewed on a monthly basis by the service management team to ensure that appropriate and effective control measures are in place.

Education Services is currently managing the following risks considered to be high:
