Charges

Uphall Station Institute Hall is available for hire to community groups, individuals and private functions.

Uphall Station Institute Hall is managed by a voluntary committee supported by West Lothian Council. The committee is made up of individuals who are either involved in groups and activities of the centre or who have an active interest in developing the hall as a focus for the community.

The Management Committee are committed to supporting local groups and organisations and endeavour to keep costs to a minimum. All money raised is used to develop the centre for the benefit of the community
