

CIVIL PARTNERSHIP REGISTRATION IN SCOTLAND

(NOTES) to Form CP10

GUIDANCE NOTES TO HELP YOU COMPLETE THE CIVIL PARTNERSHIP NOTICE APPLICATION FORM CP10

(These notes are not part of the form CP10 prescribed under the Civil Partnership Act 2004)

If you are planning to register your civil partnership in Scotland, please read these notes carefully

NOTE 1 – HOW AND WHEN TO GIVE NOTICE (To help you complete Section A1)

Fill in your proposed date of civil partnership registration at A1. Remember that by law both parties to a proposed civil partnership registration must submit civil partnership notice forms to the registrar of the district in which the civil partnership registration is to take place, informing the registrar of their intention to do so. This means that both parties must be aware of the proposed civil partnership registration and independently complete and sign the declaration on the civil partnership notice form. Failure to give proper notice can result in a civil partnership registration being postponed or prevented from proceeding. Notice must be given in the three-month period prior to the date of civil partnership registration and NOT LATER THAN 29 DAYS BEFORE THE DATE OF REGISTRATION OF THE CIVIL PARTNERSHIP.

Timing is important. You must submit the notices early enough to enable the registrar to be satisfied that you are free to register a civil partnership. Normally notices should be in the registrar's hands about TEN to TWELVE weeks beforehand. The minimum period is 29 days before the date of the proposed civil partnership registration, but if you leave things as late as this you could be faced with the need to postpone your civil partnership registration. Only in exceptional circumstances will the Registrar General authorise a civil partnership registration to take place if 29 days' notice has not been given.

If you are having a religious or belief registration contact the religious or belief celebrant who is to perform the registration before completing the civil partnership notice. For a civil registration make advance arrangements with the registrar. This is particularly important if the civil partnership registration is to be in towns and cities, where large numbers of people may want to register civil partnerships at certain times of the year.

Although you need not both attend personally at the registrar's office to hand in your civil partnership notice, at least one of you may be asked to attend there personally before the date of the civil partnership registration. You will need, in the case of a religious or belief registration, to collect the Civil Partnership Schedule (see 11 below) or, in the case of a civil registration, to finalise arrangements with the registrar.

When you give notice you will be required to sign a declaration to the effect that the information given on your notice is correct. Do not delay giving notice simply because you are waiting for any of the documents mentioned at note 10 to come to hand. If time is getting short it is better to give notice first and then pass the documents to the registrar when they become available; but they must be made available to the registrar in advance of the civil partnership registration. Provided the documents are in order the civil partnership registration can proceed as arranged. As a safeguard against simultaneous marriage and/or civil partnership the Registrar General makes a subsequent check of the information.

NOTE 2 - PLACE OF CIVIL PARTNERSHIP REGISTRATION (To help you complete Section A2)

Each of you must submit a civil partnership registration notice, along with the required documents (see note 10) and the appropriate fee, to the registrar for the district in which the civil partnership registration is to take place.

You can obtain civil partnership registration notice forms, and information about what the civil partnership registration will cost, from any registrar of births, deaths and marriages in Scotland. You can get the address of your local registrar from the phone book or the NRS website www.nrscotland.gov.uk.

NOTE 3 – STATUS (To help you complete Section B)

Any two persons, regardless of where they live, may register a civil partnership in Scotland provided that:

- both persons are at least 16 years of age on the day they wish to register their civil partnership.
- they are not related to one another in a way which would prevent their registering their civil partnership (see the list at the end of the Civil Partnership in Scotland leaflet).
- each is unmarried or not already registered as a civil partner (any person who has already been married or registered as a civil partner must produce documentary evidence that the previous marriage or civil partnership registration has been ended by death, divorce, annulment or dissolution).
- they are of the same sex.
- they are capable of understanding the nature of what it is to register a civil partnership and of consenting to do so.

NOTE 4 - RESIDENCE

The registrar will require to see evidence of your usual residence.

NOTE 5 - IMMIGRATION CONTROLS

If you are subject to immigration controls you will have to provide extra documentation to that outlined in these notes. In particular, you will need to provide a Declaration of Immigration Status form which can be obtained from the registrar or the NRS website. Evidence to support the statement you make on the Declaration of Immigration Status form will also be required. If you are in any doubt about what is required, or if you need further information, you should consult the registrar or contact NRS.

NOTE 6 - ABOUT YOUR FATHER/PARENT OR MOTHER/PARENT (To help you complete Sections C and D)

In completing these questions, if you are adopted the details relate to your adoptive parents. In relation to same-sex parents "parent" is as defined by the Human Fertilisation and Embryology Act 2008. It also relates to same-sex adoptive parents. The use of "parent" is confined to these circumstances only and does not, for example, apply to "step-parent"

NOTE 7 – ABOUT YOUR PARENTS (To help you complete Section E)

The questions are asked to enable the registrar to insert your mother's maiden surname appropriately in your Civil Partnership Schedule.

NOTE 8 - THE CELEBRANT (To help you complete Section F)

A civil partnership may be registered by a district registrar or an assistant registrar or a religious or belief celebrant who has been authorised by the Registrar General for that purpose or whose religious or belief body has been prescribed in regulations under the Civil Partnership Act 2004.

NOTE 9 - OTHER PARTY TO THE CIVIL PARTNERSHIP (To help you complete Section G)

Each of you must complete a civil partnership registration notice to be submitted to the registrar.

NOTE 10 - DOCUMENTS YOU WILL NEED TO PRODUCE (To help you complete Section H)

When giving or sending the civil partnership registration notice forms to the registrar each of you must supply the following documents:

H27 Your genuine birth certificate, or, if you are adopted, your adoption certificate. An unauthorised photocopy is not acceptable. If you are unable to produce your birth or adoption certificate, state the reason.

H28 If you have been married or have been in a civil partnership before and the marriage or civil partnership ended in divorce, annulment or dissolution, a certificate of divorce or annulment or a certified copy decree or decree of dissolution. A decree of divorce granted outwith Scotland must be absolute or final — a decree nisi is not acceptable. If you have been married or have been in a civil partnership more than once, only the document relating to the termination of the most recent marriage or civil partnership is required. If you are unable to produce the official degree of divorce, annulment or dissolution, state the reason for not doing so. The registrar will require proof of the termination of the earlier marriage or civil partnership.

H29 If your former spouse or civil partnership is deceased, the death certificate of your former spouse or civil partner. If you are unable to produce a death certificate of your previous spouse or civil partner, state the reason for not doing so. The registrar will require proof of death.

H30 If you are in an existing civil partnership you should provide your civil partnership certificate. If you are unable to produce your civil partnership certificate, state the reason for not doing so. The registrar will require proof of your civil partnership.

If any document is in a language other than English, you must also provide a certified translation into English.

If you are domiciled outside the UK you must follow the normal procedure of giving notice to the registrar in Scotland, but you may have to provide extra documentation.

If you are in any doubt about what is required, or if you need further information, you should consult the registrar or write to the National Records of Scotland at the address shown at the end of these notes.

NOTE 11 - CIVIL PARTNERSHIP SCHEDULE

When the registrar is satisfied there is no legal impediment to the civil partnership registration, he/she will prepare a civil partnership registration Schedule from the information you have given. The schedule is a most important document – no civil partnership registration can proceed without it.

If a religious or belief celebrant is registering your civil partnership the Civil Partnership Schedule will be issued to you by the registrar. The Schedule cannot be issued more than seven days before the civil partnership and the registrar will advise you when to call to collect it. The Schedule cannot be collected on your behalf by a relative or friend – the registrar will issue it only to one or both of the parties to the intended civil partnership.

The Civil Partnership Schedule must be produced before the civil partnership registration to the person registering it.

Both parties must confirm that (to the best of their knowledge and belief) the particulars set out in the Schedule are correct and it must be signed by both parties, by the person registering the civil partnership and by the two witnesses. As the Schedule is a permanent record an appropriate permanent black liquid ink should be used when signing it – a ball-point pen should not be used. Thereafter you must arrange for it to be returned to the registrar within three days so that the civil partnership can be registered.

If a registrar is registering your civil partnership the registrar will not issue the Schedule to you in advance, but will have it available at the civil partnership registration for signature, and will subsequently register the civil partnership.

A fee for the civil partnership registration and, if applicable, for the attendance of an authorised registrar if the location is somewhere other than the registration office is payable to the registrar in advance.

NOTE 12 - CHANGE OF PLANS

Be sure to let the religious or belief celebrant or the registrar know if you change your plans or decide to postpone your civil partnership registration.

For Further information:

Contact any local registrar of births, deaths and marriages; or Marriage/Civil Partnership Section, National Records of Scotland, New Register House, Edinburgh EH1 3YT.

Telephone: +44 (0)131 314 4447 email: civilpartnership@gro-scotland.gsi.gov.uk

NOTE:- Forms and documents must be sent to the registrar in the local authority district where the proposed civil partnership registration is to take place.
