

ASN FAMILY NETWORK

For up to date information on everything ASN with West Lothian

Welcome

Welcome to the information newsletter for Education support services, ASN family network. Here you will find information on any up an coming events and networks & links to supports and services you can access as a carer to an ASN family memeber!

Who are we?

As a service our goal is to support children and young people with ASN to be educated in their local community with their peers.

This involves working along side schools, partners and families, to provide the best outcomes for them. We know that having a child or young person with ASN comes with a different set of challenges, and It is our goal to work together to achieve the best supports that helps them all be present, participating, achieving and supported.

We hope that this network will provide information, understanding and a sense of community, to our families.

We see you. You are not alone!

Upcoming Events

We have a few events coming up from now until the end of the year. please see what we have coming up and how you can be part of this event.
