

Community Council Elections 2025

The 4-yearly community council elections are due to take place in October and arrangements to elect around 300 community councillors have just got underway.

There is provision for 40 community councils in West Lothian. A full list of the community council areas can be found on the council's website by scanning the QR code below or by visiting www.westlothian.gov.uk/communitycouncils

If you are interested in getting involved, you will have to complete a nomination form. Your name and address must appear in the electoral register for the community council area.

The closing date for nominations is 5pm on Thursday 4th September 2025
