1	Theme 1: Increase Efficiency and Developing New Ways of Working	1a - Introducing the use of artificial intelligence (AI) to improve customer service and to provide the Council with enhanced systems to better understand service needs and performance.	I think the council should look at the structure of services and combine certain things, and redirect money to the front line. There are whole teams dedicated to performance and improvement, but you can't improve things if you don't have experience of the actual service provision. I would cut back on those areas and add some more frontline officers with additional duties for statutory reporting / process development. I would look at management structures and try to reduce without spreading too thin. I'd also look into AI for first-time communication, chat bots on the webpage that can answer simple questions etc. I'd look at system efficiencies, improving workflow, increase training and competency in staff so decisions can be made more efficiently at a frontline level rather than going through multiple stages of approval	Corporate Policy and Resources	1. The respondent advised that they agree with the proposal.

Agree that AI can and should be used to help streamline and hopefully this can allow for much more joined up working and shared access to relevant data. As much as a review of learning is being used here for savings but this actually could create some very needed opportunities to fix huge flaws in the system that allows for much better ways of learning. This could allow WLC to really invest in the health and wellbeing of pupils allowing the massive benefits that can come to a young persons physical and mental health which in turn can have hugely positive impacts on their ability to achieve. There is a huge concern with the current state of schools that are not providing a safe and secure environment and the current state of the system is not working. 318	Theme 1: Increase Efficiency and Developing New Ways of Working	1a - Introducing the use of artificial intelligence (AI) to improve customer service and to provide the Council with enhanced systems to better understand service needs and performance.	Avoid using AI to replace services. Their costs are expected to rise, negating potential savings, not to mention the cost to implement the systems in the first place. They also do not provide reliable results and may end up misleading people.	Corporate Policy and Resources	2. The respondent advised that they either did not agree or did not believe the council should consider the proposal.
319	Theme 1: Increase Efficiency and Developing New Ways of Working	1a - Introducing the use of artificial intelligence (AI) to improve customer service and to provide the Council with enhanced systems to better understand service needs and performance. 322	Theme 1: Increase Efficiency and Developing New Ways of Working	1a - Introducing the use of artificial intelligence (AI) to improve customer service and to provide the Council with enhanced systems to better understand service needs and performance.	West Lothian needs basics done first. In Livingston I rarely see tree clearance or footpath cleaning, there are portions of the road where you cannot see traffic signs because of untrimmed trees and recycling centre access is limited. Missed tasks go unaddressed. Savings should come from management and waste, not cutting frontline standards. What I suggest is - • Keep assisted - digital for vulnerable users to avoid failure demand.	Corporate Policy and Resources	2. The respondent advised that they either did not agree or did not believe the council should consider the proposal.
323	Theme 1: Increase Efficiency and Developing New Ways of Working	1a - Introducing the use of artificial intelligence (AI) to improve customer service and to provide the Council with enhanced systems to better understand service needs and performance. 324	Theme 1: Increase Efficiency and Developing New Ways of Working	1a - Introducing the use of artificial intelligence (AI) to improve customer service and to provide the Council with enhanced systems to better understand service needs and performance. 325	Theme 1: Increase Efficiency and Developing New Ways of Working	1a - Introducing the use of artificial intelligence (AI) to improve customer service and to provide the Council with enhanced systems to better understand service needs and performance.	I'm just not keen on the use of AI in customer service roles. It's an area where interacting with a person rather than an AI response is far more beneficial to so many people	Corporate Policy and Resources	2. The respondent advised that they either did not agree or did not believe the council should consider the proposal.
326	Theme 1: Increase Efficiency and Developing New Ways of Working	1a - Introducing the use of artificial intelligence (AI) to improve customer service and to provide the Council with enhanced systems to better understand service needs and performance. 327	Theme 1: Increase Efficiency and Developing New Ways of Working	1a - Introducing the use of artificial intelligence (AI) to improve customer service and to provide the Council with enhanced systems to better understand service needs and performance.	Regarding 1A, I caution dependency upon AI services. While there may indeed be a saving now this would likely be eroded, and perhaps even become more costly, as the years pass. I suspect this as you will no doubt be utilising a third party's service to run the queries / prompts. They will increase prices as organisations become dependent upon them, I have seen it done numerous times in the past with technology in my role. If you are to go down this route please at the very least ensure you agree a long term agreement with suitable exit clauses should the service be subpar or if they try to increase costs beyond a reasonable level.	Corporate Policy and Resources	2. The respondent advised that they either did not agree or did not believe the council should consider the proposal.
328	Theme 1: Increase Efficiency and Developing New Ways of Working	1a - Introducing the use of artificial intelligence (AI) to improve customer service and to provide the Council with enhanced systems to better understand service needs and performance.	If the AI saving is based on reducing staff then that is a very dangerous proposal. I am also concerned that there will be significant job losses, which will have a detrimental impact on the local and national economy. A Keynesian model would be far better.	Corporate Policy and Resources	2. The respondent advised that they either did not agree or did not believe the council should consider the proposal.
329	Theme 1: Increase Efficiency and Developing New Ways of Working	1a - Introducing the use of artificial intelligence (AI) to improve customer service and to provide the Council with enhanced systems to better understand service needs and performance.	Please don't invest in AI. It isn't saving anything like the amount that it promises. If in the future there are advantages to it, it won't matter if we're late to it. Let the bubble burst and don't put any public money in it. Speak to engineers and actual users, not salespeople.	Corporate Policy and Resources	2. 332	Theme 1: Increase Efficiency and Developing New Ways of Working	1a - Introducing the use of artificial intelligence (AI) to improve customer service and to provide the Council with enhanced systems to better understand service needs and performance.	I do not believe any cuts should be made to points 1a and 1c. The introduction of AI will not benefit the residents of West Lothian as a vast number of residents either do not have access to online services or lack the capability therefore prefer to speak to someone face to face or on the phone. The number of council employees should not be reduced as departments are already understaffed and over worked. If there were to be cuts to staff levels then this would negatively impact the service provided to West Lothian residents.	Corporate Policy and Resources	2. The respondent advised that they either did not agree or did not believe the council should consider the proposal.
333	Theme 1: Increase Efficiency and Developing New Ways of Working	1a - Introducing the use of artificial intelligence (AI) to improve customer service and to provide the Council with enhanced systems to better understand service needs and performance.	Definitely not use AI. Impersonal and I've never found it able to solve any of my problems and have always had to be referred to a real person to sort out my problems. If you do use it you should add a skip button direct to a human	Corporate Policy and Resources	2. The respondent advised that they either did not agree or did not believe the council should consider the proposal.
334	Theme 1: Increase Efficiency and Developing New Ways of Working	1a - Introducing the use of artificial intelligence (AI) to improve customer service and to provide the Council with enhanced systems to better understand service needs and performance.	I agree in principle that the Council should seek efficiencies and new ways of working, but I think this should be carefully managed. Savings should come from genuine streamlining and smarter working — not from reducing vital services, increasing workloads for staff, or removing important in-person support for those who need it. "Digital first" should not mean "digital only."	Corporate Policy and Resources	2. The respondent advised that they either did not agree or did not believe the council should consider the proposal.

342	Theme 1: Increase Efficiency and Developing New Ways of Working	1a - Introducing the use of artificial intelligence (AI) to improve customer service and to provide the Council with enhanced systems to better understand service needs and performance.	Do not rely on AI for customer services. The use of AI is already worrying in terms of a lack of jobs. In various workplaces the use of AI can be useful but should not replace humans, especially the human connection where more services move online. Having a person to speak to should remain the automatic option for customer support.	Corporate Policy and Resources	2. The respondent advised that they either did not agree or did not believe the council should consider the proposal.
343	Theme 1: Increase Efficiency and Developing New Ways of Working	1a - Introducing the use of artificial intelligence (AI) to improve customer service and to provide the Council with enhanced systems to better understand service needs and performance.	I disagree with further reliance on AI systems. Recent cyberattacks in the education sector demonstrate the significant risks and ongoing recovery challenges associated with these technologies. 347	Theme 1: Increase Efficiency and Developing New Ways of Working	1a - Introducing the use of artificial intelligence (AI) to improve customer service and to provide the Council with enhanced systems to better understand service needs and performance. 348	Theme 1: Increase Efficiency and Developing New Ways of Working	1a - Introducing the use of artificial intelligence (AI) to improve customer service and to provide the Council with enhanced systems to better understand service needs and performance.	I like most of these responses but replacing jobs or not hiring due to AI replacements will make people who live in West Lothian suffer. AI has a place but it can not currently replace people nor should it. In addition, it is extremely frustrating to have to battle through automation to speak to a person so whole self service options are appreciated and necessary, there should always be an easy route to a human.	Corporate Policy and Resources	2. The respondent advised that they either did not agree or did not believe the council should consider the proposal.
349	Theme 1: Increase Efficiency and Developing New Ways of Working	1a - Introducing the use of artificial intelligence (AI) to improve customer service and to provide the Council with enhanced systems to better understand service needs and performance.	Do not use AI for customer service, experience is that this is false economy and the errors made cost more to rectify than having people with the correct knowledge. Also AI should not be used for engagement in statutory services unless legislation permits it	Corporate Policy and Resources	2. The respondent advised that they either did not agree or did not believe the council should consider the proposal.
350	Theme 1: Increase Efficiency and Developing New Ways of Working	1a - Introducing the use of artificial intelligence (AI) to improve customer service and to provide the Council with enhanced systems to better understand service needs and performance.	However, following on with the right number of managers and staff in teams leads me to believe that the issue isn't in the quantity but the quality of the people who are part of and leading these teams in different sectors. I do, however, believe that AI, as good as it is, is not a replacement for a human person. According to your statistics, West Lothian is expected to see an increase in people of pensionable age over the next 25 years. I believe that people, especially older people, have a preference for a human person, which will make communication with the council difficult for those who require it most. Most people like being able to speak to a person, or know that a human with compassion and experience is dealing with their inquiries or issues. AI can help with the process but it shouldn't be a substitute for cost - cutting.	Corporate Policy and Resources	2. The respondent advised that they either did not agree or did not believe the council should consider the proposal.

352	Theme 1: Increase Efficiency and Developing New Ways of Working	1a - Introducing the use of artificial intelligence (AI) to improve customer service and to provide the Council with enhanced systems to better understand service needs and performance.	As a resident, I understand that the council has a legal obligation to set a balanced budget and that efficiency is important. However, efficiency measures must not come at the expense of quality, accessibility, or equality of service provision. While "digital first" access can save money, many residents still face digital exclusion due to: • lack of devices or connectivity, • disability or age - related barriers, • low digital confidence. I would not support any approach that: • removes in - person support entirely, • makes essential Yes, efficiency is important, but changes must not reduce access or quality. Digital options are helpful, but in - person support must remain for those who are digitally excluded. Reviews of staffing, contracts and fleet costs are sensible, but education changes, AI use and reductions in care services must be carefully assessed for long - term impact. True efficiency should improve outcomes, not simply reduce services or staff, and must protect vulnerable groups.	Corporate Policy and Resources	2. The respondent advised that they either did not agree or did not believe the council should consider the proposal.
353	Theme 1: Increase Efficiency and Developing New Ways of Working	1a - Introducing the use of artificial intelligence (AI) to improve customer service and to provide the Council with enhanced systems to better understand service needs and performance. 355	Theme 1: Increase Efficiency and Developing New Ways of Working	1a - Introducing the use of artificial intelligence (AI) to improve customer service and to provide the Council with enhanced systems to better understand service needs and performance.	I work for a University where we have fully funded work based degrees in AI Data Science that we are providing to Council staff across Scotland to work smarter with their data, saving time and producing efficiencies. The respondent advised that they either did not agree or did not believe the council should consider the proposal.
388	Theme 1: Increase Efficiency and Developing New Ways of Working	1a - Introducing the use of artificial intelligence (AI) to improve customer service and to provide the Council with enhanced systems to better understand service needs and performance.	to introduce AI would be a terrible mistake considering the already available website doesn't always allow u to book repairs and things I no this from personal experience on a number of occasions	Corporate Policy and Resources	2. 389	Theme 1: Increase Efficiency and Developing New Ways of Working	1a - Introducing the use of artificial intelligence (AI) to improve customer service and to provide the Council with enhanced systems to better understand service needs and performance.	Concerning correlation between 'savings' and 'efficiency': I'd like the council to do better with the money they have, not to do 'almost as good' with even less. Leading with an item about AI is especially disappointing. And an example of what might seem like an 'efficient' move but anyone with any experience of these tools knows how limited they really are.	Corporate Policy and Resources	2. The respondent advised that they either did not agree or did not believe the council should consider the proposal.
390	Theme 1: Increase Efficiency and Developing New Ways of Working	1a - Introducing the use of artificial intelligence (AI) to improve customer service and to provide the Council with enhanced systems to better understand service needs and performance. 392	Theme 1: Increase Efficiency and Developing New Ways of Working	1a - Introducing the use of artificial intelligence (AI) to improve customer service and to provide the Council with enhanced systems to better understand service needs and performance.	You have to be mindful of which services you reduce / change as we still have a generation of older people who can not cope with modern technology	Corporate Policy and Resources	2. 393	Theme 1: Increase Efficiency and Developing New Ways of Working	1a - Introducing the use of artificial intelligence (AI) to improve customer service and to provide the Council with enhanced systems to better understand service needs and performance.	There are people under the poverty line who don't have access to the internet. Having face to face staff available for these demographics is crucial in every town. That is a key factor in maintaining any sense of community regardless of costs. These demographics are also the individuals and families who may find it difficult to travel to another area to make an appt. We should not be cutting these services but increasing and improving them as the population of West Lothian also increases with it.	Corporate Policy and Resources	2. The respondent advised that they either did not agree or did not believe the council should consider the proposal.
394	Theme 1: Increase Efficiency and Developing New Ways of Working	1a - Introducing the use of artificial intelligence (AI) to improve customer service and to provide the Council with enhanced systems to better understand service needs and performance. 396	Theme 1: Increase Efficiency and Developing New Ways of Working	1a - Introducing the use of artificial intelligence (AI) to improve customer service and to provide the Council with enhanced systems to better understand service needs and performance.	The usage and reliance on AI to do the work for us will actively undermine and endanger all forms of work within * at least * 2 years. On top of putting several hundreds out of work, a single crash of the system; likely through Microsoft; will actively cause massive data leaks as well as problems for everyone involved. This is not good enough when we are already struggling with the economy; the less people working, equates to less people learning and a more butchered flow of money. I implore the use of commercial work versus AI as these opportunities are essential to helping people maintain and get into a work flow that will supply them for upwards of 5 years or more; * especially * council workers. Do not rely on AI.	Corporate Policy and Resources	2. The respondent advised that they either did not agree or did not believe the council should consider the proposal.
397	Theme 1: Increase Efficiency and Developing New Ways of Working	1a - Introducing the use of artificial intelligence (AI) to improve customer service and to provide the Council with enhanced systems to better understand service needs and performance. 398	Theme 1: Increase Efficiency and Developing New Ways of Working	1a - Introducing the use of artificial intelligence (AI) to improve customer service and to provide the Council with enhanced systems to better understand service needs and performance.	I don't think using AI is always appropriate especially if it's a repair emergency out of hours. The older generation which is growing really prefer to speak to a person who can understand their concerns.	Corporate Policy and Resources	2. The respondent advised that they either did not agree or did not believe the council should consider the proposal.
399	Theme 1: Increase Efficiency and Developing New Ways of Working	1a - Introducing the use of artificial intelligence (AI) to improve customer service and to provide the Council with enhanced systems to better understand service needs and performance.	I think you need to avoid AI. It is all great when working but when IT is down things literally come to a stand still. Invest in the people and will be better in the long run.	Corporate Policy and Resources	2. The respondent advised that they either did not agree or did not believe the council should consider the proposal.

400	Theme 1: Increase Efficiency and Developing New Ways of Working	1a - Introducing the use of artificial intelligence (AI) to improve customer service and to provide the Council with enhanced systems to better understand service needs and performance.	Looking at your proposals there seems to be a lot of AI and digital. The older generation are not familiar with technology they need people to talk to. They need that interaction especially those who may never see anyone day to day.	Corporate Policy and Resources	2. The respondent advised that they either did not agree or did not believe the council should consider the proposal.
401	Theme 1: Increase Efficiency and Developing New Ways of Working	1a - Introducing the use of artificial intelligence (AI) to improve customer service and to provide the Council with enhanced systems to better understand service needs and performance. 402	Theme 1: Increase Efficiency and Developing New Ways of Working	1a - Introducing the use of artificial intelligence (AI) to improve customer service and to provide the Council with enhanced systems to better understand service needs and performance.	When AI takes over, there is no proposal on how the council is reinstating the jobs of people who will loose their positions. Extending the pension is not feasible as employed people never able to enjoy their lives, ending up working longer and no rest.	Corporate Policy and Resources	2. The respondent advised that they either did not agree or did not believe the council should consider the proposal.
403	Theme 1: Increase Efficiency and Developing New Ways of Working	1a - Introducing the use of artificial intelligence (AI) to improve customer service and to provide the Council with enhanced systems to better understand service needs and performance.	AI is not the solution yet. Why would I want to spend 45 minutes or more with an AI when a 2 - 5 minute call would do the same.	Corporate Policy and Resources	2. The respondent advised that they either did not agree or did not believe the council should consider the proposal.
404	Theme 1: Increase Efficiency and Developing New Ways of Working	1a - Introducing the use of artificial intelligence (AI) to improve customer service and to provide the Council with enhanced systems to better understand service needs and performance.	If you're reducing salary by introducing AI, I think you're going in the wrong direction. That's money not going to wages and instead to AI giants, so it's money leaving. Focus on building assets here.	Corporate Policy and Resources	2. The respondent advised that they either did not agree or did not believe the council should consider the proposal.
405	Theme 1: Increase Efficiency and Developing New Ways of Working	1a - Introducing the use of artificial intelligence (AI) to improve customer service and to provide the Council with enhanced systems to better understand service needs and performance. 408	Theme 1: Increase Efficiency and Developing New Ways of Working	1a - Introducing the use of artificial intelligence (AI) to improve customer service and to provide the Council with enhanced systems to better understand service needs and performance.	Concerned about AI replacing people and lack of customer facing contact and putting the onus on the customer when 'computer says no' and you can't talk to a human.	Corporate Policy and Resources	2. The respondent advised that they either did not agree or did not believe the council should consider the proposal.
409	Theme 1: Increase Efficiency and Developing New Ways of Working	1a - Introducing the use of artificial intelligence (AI) to improve customer service and to provide the Council with enhanced systems to better understand service needs and performance.	Bringing in more AI is not the answer, we need people to do jobs and people to have jobs. The council should be one of the places to provide a great deal of work to communities. People need people to deliver services especially advice services, atomic responses cannot provide this.	Corporate Policy and Resources	2. The respondent advised that they either did not agree or did not believe the council should consider the proposal.

421	Theme 1: Increase Efficiency and Developing New Ways of Working	1a - Introducing the use of artificial intelligence (AI) to improve customer service and to provide the Council with enhanced systems to better understand service needs and performance.	I don't recommend replacing in - person services with AI. Not only are AI services less reliable, generative AI is also worse for the environment. Furthermore, as noted in the introduction to the consultation, West Lothian has a growing elderly population. In - person interaction being replaced with AI would be hugely detrimental to the wellbeing of this age group and there will be a sizeable tech - knowledge gap which will make their tasks more difficult.	Corporate Policy and Resources	2. The respondent advised that they either did not agree or did not believe the council should consider the proposal.
422	Theme 1: Increase Efficiency and Developing New Ways of Working	1a - Introducing the use of artificial intelligence (AI) to improve customer service and to provide the Council with enhanced systems to better understand service needs and performance.	On using AI will this actually make the savings you suggest an error with AI could cost one millions? There are better ways of saving money - use capital to spend to save etc. Don't bring together teams to make the council more efficient and then deduce the team size - bring the teams together to make bigger savings.	Corporate Policy and Resources	2. The respondent advised that they either did not agree or did not believe the council should consider the proposal.
423	Theme 1: Increase Efficiency and Developing New Ways of Working	1a - Introducing the use of artificial intelligence (AI) to improve customer service and to provide the Council with enhanced systems to better understand service needs and performance. 424	Theme 1: Increase Efficiency and Developing New Ways of Working	1a - Introducing the use of artificial intelligence (AI) to improve customer service and to provide the Council with enhanced systems to better understand service needs and performance. 425	Theme 1: Increase Efficiency and Developing New Ways of Working	1a - Introducing the use of artificial intelligence (AI) to improve customer service and to provide the Council with enhanced systems to better understand service needs and performance.	While I agree the Council should look at efficiencies, I strongly disagree with the introduction of AI technology - this is emerging technology that has yet to prove itself in any meaningful way, aside from some very specific examples. Introducing it in a generalised way will likely lead to a) poorer service for people in West Lothian and b) more work for staff. Every AI decision has to be double - checked right now due to the risks of poor quality (or even dangerous) outcomes - double - checking is duplication. There is little evidence that AI makes work more efficient, and in fact can make it far less efficient. West Lothian Council should not be using it to provide any services until it has proven itself more efficient at doing an equal quality of job and it has simply not been around long enough for that certainty to be there. Run some pilots if you must, but I don't want to see money spent on AI that could go elsewhere.	Corporate Policy and Resources	2. The respondent advised that they either did not agree or did not believe the council should consider the proposal.
426	Theme 1: Increase Efficiency and Developing New Ways of Working	1a - Introducing the use of artificial intelligence (AI) to improve customer service and to provide the Council with enhanced systems to better understand service needs and performance.	1A - AI not helpful to many - elderly or disabled, dyslexic those with learning needs	Corporate Policy and Resources	2. Online portals that are user friendly, the application process for anything is currently tedious and difficult for myself who is technically able, I imagine the older generation struggle with it massively. There is also no way of tracking applications for things such as grants, funding, schooling, etc. In this modern day it's standard for most companies especially those who encourage online use. Easy to use apps that are accessible & tracking ability, an account that has your information updated and readily available to use during the application process would be great! All of this would reduce calls, reduce waiting times, and save time for everyone involved. Making the business more efficient and saving money for the council.	Corporate Policy and Resources	6. The respondent suggested an improvement. Officers will consider how this could be developed.

456	Theme 1: Increase Efficiency and Developing New Ways of Working	1a - Introducing the use of artificial intelligence (AI) to improve customer service and to provide the Council with enhanced systems to better understand service needs and performance.	Communicating with the council by phone is more difficult than it has ever been. Customers are made to go through far too many 'options' before getting to speak to a human. Customers have a life too and do not have the time to waste in negotiating the myriad peculiarities of your phone system. It should not be beyond the wit of someone to devise a simpler and more efficient mechanism for calling the council and getting through to the right person first time. This is not helped by the fact that an awful lot of staff now work from home and unless they have some kind of caller divert in place they are completely uncontactable in these situations. Email is often suggested as the solution but it too is flawed and not the silver bullet it is made out to be.	Corporate Policy and Resources	7. As we become more digitalized, we require expertise and staff to support this way of working. AI is great but it must have the necessary levels of staff working in the background to manage and support it. Just employing technology without the correct manpower will mean the cost savings hoped for will not be fruitful, and the technology will never be able to be utilised to its full potential	Corporate Policy and Resources	7. Integration of some services and removing and not recruiting to some vacancies.	There are lots of teams dedicated to council transformation and performance and having dealt with them, I honestly do not know what they do. They have a very strong self worth and can promote themselves very favourable with lavish reports that are meaningless. I have been involved in projects where staff from these teams are "leading" on projects, and frankly, their involvement has been in name only. There are savings to be made right there, performance is best left to staff that understand THEIR service and care about THEIR customers. Social Policy - this is a huge service, they are dysfunctional at core and they are extremely difficult to work with collaboratively. Streamlining of the staff, not the services they provide, could maybe ensure money was directed to better the customer experience being delivered and reach the people who need it most? There needs to be a shake up from the top down. Cutting g people at the bottom will make the least savings and they usually have the most impact on the vulnerable people in our society. In private companies they are constantly looking at efficiency and the amount of money the council wastes is ridiculous. Integration of some services and removing and not recruiting to some vacancies.	The council needs to review it's absence policy, this currently is not working when staff are off long term, have a long term condition or there are competency issues. Speaking from an early years setting this means that we are paying for cover staff and staff mental health is at an all time low, this then leads to further spending on sickness or other services. I believe there should be less focus on reducing frontline staff, for the last 5 or so years there has been a continuous restructure and staff levels have dropped significantly which is impacting the delivery of key services, there is only so much staff reduction that can be done and I believe the limit has been reached. Focus more on what the council spend on third parties, outsourcing works that could be done in house.	Corporate Policy and Resources	1. The respondent advised that they agree with the proposal.

1120	Theme 1: Increase Efficiency and Developing New Ways of Working	1b - Ensuring that the Council has the right number of managers and staff to deliver its services as part of an organisational review. Integration of some services and removing and not recruiting to some vacancies.	It's imperative that the Council looks at all its spending in as much of an objective, impartial way as possible. 'Right sizing the workforce' is now a much used cliché in many organisations but looking very closely at the value of all roles is required when you have a deficit of £23m and are balancing the books using reserves. Look at all levels - from senior management to entry level staff. Look at capping pay % increases for anyone paid over £75,000. That's a very high salary in Scotland. Don't kid yourselves that you need to 'compete with the market' and pay over £80k or £100k for the best talent (or so called best talent). A lot of very talented, capable people will work for between £60k and £75 in senior management roles. You won't run out of good managers. You'll gain a huge amount of respect from the people who live in West Lothian and pay Council Tax (plus income tax, NI, and additional property maintenance charges) if you lead the way on pay reform. Start with the top earners	Corporate Policy and Resources	1. The respondent advised that they agree with the proposal.

It's clear there's a lot of highly paid officers particularly in the Transformation team. It's clear to many, many members of staff that they aren't delivering and don't have the skills or knowledge. Also times are tough at present for many people so by increasing the cost for different services it means that people are unable to afford them which then leads to more issues maybe costs should be cut to the wage bill at WLC to help save money by reducing the number of managers and head ones who are on a substantial wage and yet don't seem to do very much. Integration of some services and removing and not recruiting to some vacancies.	In terms of savings costs, duplication of roles and responsibilities within council services seems a massive inefficiency. Unclear and ambiguous processes and procedures that then require multiple managers to manage the same outcomes under different umbrellas seems somewhat inefficient. The overreliance of management to delegate their administrative tasks due to a lack of clarity in roles and responsibilities effectively makes some roles redundant or unclear in what output is expected from them. Effectively, those they are delegating certain tasks to could report centrally through a portal that feeds into a wider picture of data and the sharing of information would be more immediate and efficient. There would need to be controls on how data is reported.	Corporate Policy and Resources	1. The respondent advised that they agree with the proposal.

Integration of some services and removing and not recruiting to some vacancies.	The council 's sickness, performance, and discipline policies are currently designed primarily with employee protection in mind. As such it is very difficult if not impossible to remove those that are abusing sickness policy or consistently performing badly. The public would rightly consider that at least an adequate quality of work is provided by every council employee. This is not the case at present. Many services and sections are working around dead wood. The council should recognise it is inappropriate to support those wasting public money every day. If policies cannot address this issue, the council should hold a budget for settlement agreements whereby non - productive staff are given for example £20, 000 to leave. Given they may be wasting £50, 000 a year while employed, the savings here would certainly outweigh those described in question 1.	Corporate Policy and Resources	1. Every service area has sprouted its own "communications, " "strategy, " and "engagement" officers. Cut one layer of management in each department and you'll protect ten front - line jobs. Replace corporate away - days with a kettle, a notebook, and a sense of purpose. Austerity that never touches the boardroom is just PR.	Corporate Policy and Resources	1. This is where your biggest gap is already and goes against all national policy around increasing teacher numbers and quality of learning. Suggested ways for me would be around how many directors and deputy directors for different service areas we have, above and beyond managers. This would lessen the impact of people, workforce and service users (I am sure around 5 or 6 of them would save close to at least £1 million).	Corporate Policy and Resources	1. Integration of some services and removing and not recruiting to some vacancies.	Non - statutory services are largely funded through external sources, with only a small proportion supported by the Council's core budget. Despite this, they remain vital to community wellbeing and employability outcomes. Employability services, in particular, provide person - centred, one - to - one and face - to - face support — an increasingly scarce resource in today's digital - first environment. This approach enables individuals to build confidence, develop key skills, and move closer to sustainable employment. To enhance efficiency and value for money, there is potential to integrate delivery models and reduce management layers by combining services under fewer management and team leader roles. This would streamline operations, minimise duplication, and maintain a strong focus on quality front - line support. Ongoing investment in non - statutory services is essential to strengthen community resilience, promote inclusion, and create effective pathways into work for those most in need. Integration of some services and removing and not recruiting to some vacancies.	There has been a significant change in terms of resource reduction over the last few years making it more difficult to undertake day to day tasks and services. Frontline services like Community Inclusion are already running on minimal resources, and any further cuts would directly impact the most vulnerable people in our community — as well as the staff supporting them. 1316	Theme 1: Increase Efficiency and Developing New Ways of Working	1b - Ensuring that the Council has the right number of managers and staff to deliver its services as part of an organisational review. Integration of some services and removing and not recruiting to some vacancies.	The Council should remember that the cheapest way of doing something does not equal the most efficient way. A change that saves 60 % of costs but reduces a service by 80 % is worse than one that saves 55 % but only reduces the service by 50 %. Most of the suggestions listed at the start of this survey involve shedding staff. The problem with reducing 2 teams of 5 to 1 team of 7 staff is 'what happens if a couple of people go off sick?' 'Can your reduced workforce pick up the slack and I'd argue 'probably not'. The urge to eliminate 'waste' can lead to a zealous purge on all slack in the system, but will undermine the C&F's ability. There is much to be learned from agencies who work in similar situations in relation to how they manage it. Not everyone can access online and what about the vulnerable adults? You would need to take this into consideration when thinking of cutting staff.	Corporate Policy and Resources	2. How many times do we have to contact the council for basic things only to be passed around from pillar to post? I worked there and there were days where not only me but my colleagues could do very little each day. You need to cut the number of staff you have and employ people who work for the wages paid not just people who think job in the councils are is cushy and there to get their pension. Half the employees you have would never cope in a private company as they've never had proper management in their council employment. When looking at the school day please consider what is best for children - more play and shorter hours at P1 and P2 actually sounds quite positive, as does shorter days at nursery for very young children. Aligning periods across secondary schools sounds sensible - equity and greater opportunity for the 'campus model'. Please remember you are here for the pupils, not the teaching unions - some of us are much more flexible and willing to entertain positive change than our representatives would have you think. 1950	Theme 1: Increase Efficiency and Developing New Ways of Working	1c - Reviewing how learning is delivered across the primary school day. Recognising different approaches to learning enhance children's experiences and wellbeing, consideration could be given to supervised activities and learning opportunities as well as breaks across the school day for play and learning. In addition, timetabling across all secondary schools in West Lothian would be reviewed to ensure consistency.	As for section 1c and review of learning at school - this horrifies me what this count mean.	Education	2. The respondent advised that they either did not agree or did not believe the council should consider the proposal.
1951	Theme 1: Increase Efficiency and Developing New Ways of Working	1c - Reviewing how learning is delivered across the primary school day. Recognising different approaches to learning enhance children's experiences and wellbeing, consideration could be given to supervised activities and learning opportunities as well as breaks across the school day for play and learning. In addition, timetabling across all secondary schools in West Lothian would be reviewed to ensure consistency.	I am extremely concerned about the proposals to review the way learning is offered in primary schools - this sounds very much like removing teachers and replacing them with PSWs or other non - teaching staff, perhaps with online activities or similar. I would assume this is to reduce the number of teachers required to cover RCCT.	Education	2. The respondent advised that they either did not agree or did not believe the council should consider the proposal.
1952	Theme 1: Increase Efficiency and Developing New Ways of Working	1c - Reviewing how learning is delivered across the primary school day. Recognising different approaches to learning enhance children's experiences and wellbeing, consideration could be given to supervised activities and learning opportunities as well as breaks across the school day for play and learning. In addition, timetabling across all secondary schools in West Lothian would be reviewed to ensure consistency.	Please do not reduce teaching time in school very concerned about the impact of that in reducing inequality especially is some of the council most deprived areas, our poorer children are already at a disadvantage	Education	2. The respondent advised that they either did not agree or did not believe the council should consider the proposal.
1953	Theme 1: Increase Efficiency and Developing New Ways of Working	1c - Reviewing how learning is delivered across the primary school day. Recognising different approaches to learning enhance children's experiences and wellbeing, consideration could be given to supervised activities and learning opportunities as well as breaks across the school day for play and learning. In addition, timetabling across all secondary schools in West Lothian would be reviewed to ensure consistency.	I am concerned about 1C, particularly 'breaks across the school day' in primary schools. This sounds like an extension of break time and lack the rigour of effective, authentic teaching and learning. Additionally, I have no issues bringing all secondary schools into line in terms of length of the school days. However a) This MUST not lead to any reduction in the teaching time experienced by young people (like Falkirk council tried to introduce) and b) SHOULD consider how to incorporate the 90 minutes non contact time that WLC (and other council) have continued to ignore whilst adding in more and more and more bureaucratic duties to our roles.	Education	2. The respondent advised that they either did not agree or did not believe the council should consider the proposal.
1954	Theme 1: Increase Efficiency and Developing New Ways of Working	1c - Reviewing how learning is delivered across the primary school day. Recognising different approaches to learning enhance children's experiences and wellbeing, consideration could be given to supervised activities and learning opportunities as well as breaks across the school day for play and learning. In addition, timetabling across all secondary schools in West Lothian would be reviewed to ensure consistency.	Concern about the savings predicted from the schools budget. How reviewing how the school day works can save so much money is a mystery given that everything within schools is stretched to breaking at the moment and the children's needs are not currently being met.	Education	2. The respondent advised that they either did not agree or did not believe the council should consider the proposal.
1955	Theme 1: Increase Efficiency and Developing New Ways of Working	1c - Reviewing how learning is delivered across the primary school day. Recognising different approaches to learning enhance children's experiences and wellbeing, consideration could be given to supervised activities and learning opportunities as well as breaks across the school day for play and learning. In addition, timetabling across all secondary schools in West Lothian would be reviewed to ensure consistency.	I'd have concerns about the school plans: more detail and clarity on what that really means. To explain, what's written in the bullet point on this form doesn't really explain anything - 5.4m in savings doesn't come from making (what seems to be presented as) fairly non - controversial adjustments as opposed to wholesale changes and reductions in certain areas.	Education	2. The respondent advised that they either did not agree or did not believe the council should consider the proposal.
1956	Theme 1: Increase Efficiency and Developing New Ways of Working	1c - Reviewing how learning is delivered across the primary school day. Recognising different approaches to learning enhance children's experiences and wellbeing, consideration could be given to supervised activities and learning opportunities as well as breaks across the school day for play and learning. In addition, timetabling across all secondary schools in West Lothian would be reviewed to ensure consistency.	I do not believe the education savings are realistic.	Education	2. The respondent advised that they either did not agree or did not believe the council should consider the proposal.
1957	Theme 1: Increase Efficiency and Developing New Ways of Working	1c - Reviewing how learning is delivered across the primary school day. Recognising different approaches to learning enhance children's experiences and wellbeing, consideration could be given to supervised activities and learning opportunities as well as breaks across the school day for play and learning. In addition, timetabling across all secondary schools in West Lothian would be reviewed to ensure consistency.	Where I understand savings have to be made I don't believe it should be at the expense of our children and their learning. A £5.4 million saving on this service should seriously be reviewed as I don't think that the figure is correct or warranted. The service provided to our children is not currently fit for purpose due to children not receiving the right support in main stream schools. Whether that be children that require the additional support or those that do not, due to the teacher focusing the attention on those that do. Thus proving the point that reductions should not be made but should be invested in "getting it right for every child". I also believe that the debt which West Lothian has with rent arrears should be cleared before making any further reductions to the already reduced services.	Education	2. The respondent advised that they either did not agree or did not believe the council should consider the proposal.
1958	Theme 1: Increase Efficiency and Developing New Ways of Working	1c - Reviewing how learning is delivered across the primary school day. Recognising different approaches to learning enhance children's experiences and wellbeing, consideration could be given to supervised activities and learning opportunities as well as breaks across the school day for play and learning. Recognising different approaches to learning enhance children's experiences and wellbeing, consideration could be given to supervised activities and learning opportunities as well as breaks across the school day for play and learning. In addition, timetabling across all secondary schools in West Lothian would be reviewed to ensure consistency.	1c) yet again education suffers when we need it most. Education should remain a top priority. With all these cuts we are doing our kids out of a proper future. I think councillors forget that we need to invest in West Lothian from the roots up. Cut other services but not education.	Education	2. The respondent advised that they either did not agree or did not believe the council should consider the proposal.
1960	Theme 1: Increase Efficiency and Developing New Ways of Working	1c - Reviewing how learning is delivered across the primary school day. Recognising different approaches to learning enhance children's experiences and wellbeing, consideration could be given to supervised activities and learning opportunities as well as breaks across the school day for play and learning. In addition, timetabling across all secondary schools in West Lothian would be reviewed to ensure consistency.	Replacing learning time in schools with unqualified staff is absolutely NOT an option. Some of the other suggestions sound more plausible but education is already suffering horrendously due to funding cuts, they do not need anymore!	Education	2. The respondent advised that they either did not agree or did not believe the council should consider the proposal.
1961	Theme 1: Increase Efficiency and Developing New Ways of Working	1c - Reviewing how learning is delivered across the primary school day. Recognising different approaches to learning enhance children's experiences and wellbeing, consideration could be given to supervised activities and learning opportunities as well as breaks across the school day for play and learning. In addition, timetabling across all secondary schools in West Lothian would be reviewed to ensure consistency.	No. But disagree with any cuts to education. Most schools are running at critical as is.	Education	2. The respondent advised that they either did not agree or did not believe the council should consider the proposal.
1962	Theme 1: Increase Efficiency and Developing New Ways of Working	1c - Reviewing how learning is delivered across the primary school day. Recognising different approaches to learning enhance children's experiences and wellbeing, consideration could be given to supervised activities and learning opportunities as well as breaks across the school day for play and learning. In addition, timetabling across all secondary schools in West Lothian would be reviewed to ensure consistency.	I would be concerned about changes to the school day. Looking at Falkirk council and the loss of teaching time is a concern. This is not something I would want to see introduced in West Lothian Schools	Education	2. The respondent advised that they either did not agree or did not believe the council should consider the proposal.
1963	Theme 1: Increase Efficiency and Developing New Ways of Working	1c - Reviewing how learning is delivered across the primary school day. Recognising different approaches to learning enhance children's experiences and wellbeing, consideration could be given to supervised activities and learning opportunities as well as breaks across the school day for play and learning. In addition, timetabling across all secondary schools in West Lothian would be reviewed to ensure consistency.	It is hard to make a suggestion when you don't give the full information on how these cuts save money. I am concerned about the education side of things	Education	2. The respondent advised that they either did not agree or did not believe the council should consider the proposal.
1964	Theme 1: Increase Efficiency and Developing New Ways of Working	1c - Reviewing how learning is delivered across the primary school day. Recognising different approaches to learning enhance children's experiences and wellbeing, consideration could be given to supervised activities and learning opportunities as well as breaks across the school day for play and learning. In addition, timetabling across all secondary schools in West Lothian would be reviewed to ensure consistency.	Cominterfering in schools isn't beneficial for our children. My child's class was combined this year with another one which caused tensions between children, assaults, bullying. My child's class doesn't feel safe in school anymore, his education is not as effective as was previous years.	Education	2. The respondent advised that they either did not agree or did not believe the council should consider the proposal.
1965	Theme 1: Increase Efficiency and Developing New Ways of Working	1c - Reviewing how learning is delivered across the primary school day. Recognising different approaches to learning enhance children's experiences and wellbeing, consideration could be given to supervised activities and learning opportunities as well as breaks across the school day for play and learning. In addition, timetabling across all secondary schools in West Lothian would be reviewed to ensure consistency.	Understanding this children need teachers and not more time spent with staff who cost less in a form of play - essentially supervised by a classroom assistant and not taught - it's easy to read between the lines that this is purely to minimise teachers who all are teaching at absolute maximum contact time. Same with school transport, taking for example 3 vulnerable children out of a taxi and shoving 6 of them in a minibus is unacceptable.	Education	2. The respondent advised that they either did not agree or did not believe the council should consider the proposal.
1966	Theme 1: Increase Efficiency and Developing New Ways of Working	1c - Reviewing how learning is delivered across the primary school day. Recognising different approaches to learning enhance children's experiences and wellbeing, consideration could be given to supervised activities and learning opportunities as well as breaks across the school day for play and learning. In addition, timetabling across all secondary schools in West Lothian would be reviewed to ensure consistency.	Please do not decrease school staffing; your explanation for how you will save over £5min schools is not clear at all.	Education	2. The respondent advised that they either did not agree or did not believe the council should consider the proposal.
1967	Theme 1: Increase Efficiency and Developing New Ways of Working	1c - Reviewing how learning is delivered across the primary school day. Recognising different approaches to learning enhance children's experiences and wellbeing, consideration could be given to supervised activities and learning opportunities as well as breaks across the school day for play and learning. In addition, timetabling across all secondary schools in West Lothian would be reviewed to ensure consistency.	I have concerns about the details of reviewing timetables for students. This sounds like you're trying to shorten the school day, which is a hard no.	Education	2. The respondent advised that they either did not agree or did not believe the council should consider the proposal.
1968	Theme 1: Increase Efficiency and Developing New Ways of Working	1c - Reviewing how learning is delivered across the primary school day. Recognising different approaches to learning enhance children's experiences and wellbeing, consideration could be given to supervised activities and learning opportunities as well as breaks across the school day for play and learning. In addition, timetabling across all secondary schools in West Lothian would be reviewed to ensure consistency.	Completely understand that staffing is a huge cost to the council, however some teams have been cut so much over previous years that they are already at a minimum. Projects and work continue and output is still expected at the same standard and timescales, please take this into consideration when reviewing staff - last thing we want is a detrimental effect on services. Cost of the school day and education again is a huge cost, however NOTHING should be done that has a negative impact on the education of young people, education can be challenging for a lot of young people and also their parents and other carers. This has to remain priority and focus as school staff are not overpaid.	Education	2. 1969	Theme 1: Increase Efficiency and Developing New Ways of Working	1c - Reviewing how learning is delivered across the primary school day. Recognising different approaches to learning enhance children's experiences and wellbeing, consideration could be given to supervised activities and learning opportunities as well as breaks across the school day for play and learning. In addition, timetabling across all secondary schools in West Lothian would be reviewed to ensure consistency.	Any savings should not come from changing of the school day and should come from other ways	Education	2. Recognising different approaches to learning enhance children's experiences and wellbeing, consideration could be given to supervised activities and learning opportunities as well as breaks across the school day for play and learning. In addition, timetabling across all secondary schools in West Lothian would be reviewed to ensure consistency.	The suggestion about reviewing the school day in primary schools suggests that the plan would be to use PSW/s or other non - teaching staff to cover RCCT. This would be entirely unacceptable. Research consistently shows the most impact on learner attainment is a highly - skilled teacher. It would be completely counter - productive to remove qualified teaching staff from classrooms, or to offer 'activities' instead of appropriately planned and delivered lessons. The only way this could possibly work is if we had highly - skilled specialists to offer learning experiences (expressive arts, music, drama, etc.)	Education	2. As a parent living in West Lothian, I have seen many local schools struggling with limited resources and financial pressure. Some schools are doing their best, but they simply don't have enough funding for staff or materials. I hope the council considers protecting education budgets and provides more support to schools that are already under pressure. Our children's learning and wellbeing should always come before any financial cuts – because investing in them is investing in our community's future. Whatever the council finds best for the overall community, I trust they will make the right decisions.	Education	2. Cutting money off the school budget I don't think is a good choice, schools are already struggling. Does efficiency mean even larger classes?!?! It's definitely not efficient to teach a class of 33. In addition, timetabling across all secondary schools in West Lothian would be reviewed to ensure consistency.	I definitely think the priority of money should be put towards the correct areas. West Lothian Council are going back the way rather than forward for the community unfortunately. - education should be a priority and it appears to have so many cut backs with support for children at school (main stream schools dealing with a lot of children who require one to ones and other kids who are struggling and behaving are the ones that are suffering unfortunately) I strongly believe this is a huge area that requires investment in and you would have better education for kids growing up in society today and this would possibly benefit the council in years to come rather than going on benefits and unable to work	Education	2. In addition, timetabling across all secondary schools in West Lothian would be reviewed to ensure consistency.	The statement about education and "play" is misleading. Based on savings this is clearly a way to reduce staffing costs in schools and it's spun in a way to make it look like it will be good for children. Less qualified teacher time is never a good thing for education and it's disingenuous to sell it like this with no detail provided about what it actually means in reality.	Education	2. Please, Please, Please visit schools and see the affect that WLC staff and pay cuts are having on their teaching staff, support staff and its pupils. Staff cuts and job role merging is affecting the very core of schools and creating a divide from the stress and pressure put on these staff members. With so many children now coming through the education system with additional support needs, its phenomenal how cuts are still being made to support staff in the school.	Education	2. I just don't want to see education services affected or reduced or children's health, wellbeing, safety and education come into any negative effect or financial loss or cutback as a result. Frankly not enough money goes into services for children as it is causing schools to cut back teaching staff and all sorts leaving children more vulnerable and rises in concerns from everything from stealing food from children's lunch trays to rising cases of bullying and buildings becoming decayed and playgrounds unsafe. In addition, timetabling across all secondary schools in West Lothian would be reviewed to ensure consistency.	I do not believe any cuts should be made to point 1c. The introduction of AI will not benefit the residents of West Lothian as a vast number of residents either do not have access to online services or lack the capability therefore prefer to speak to someone face to face or on the phone. The number of council employees should not be reduced as departments are already understaffed and over worked. If there were to be cuts to staff levels then this would negatively impact the service provided to West Lothian residents.	Education	2. In addition, timetabling across all secondary schools in West Lothian would be reviewed to ensure consistency.	I agree with some of the suggestions on previous page but not all. Being more efficient in the way money is spent is essential, however I feel cutting services in Education will only create more problems further down the line. Mainstream education is already under staffed and under resourced with increase of children with ASN, and all children being the ones that are not receiving the quality education they have the right to. I can't help feel that education needs, prioritising over the development / construction of railway stations for example. Uneducated children, lead to uneducated adults, increase in those not entering workforce and increase in welfare funding. Vicious circle!	Education	2. In addition, timetabling across all secondary schools in West Lothian would be reviewed to ensure consistency.	The education budget savings seem high and I would wish to resist cuts to support staff and teaching posts if that is what is being proposed. Efficiencies in head office headcount esp. at mid / senior level, with a focus on the exorbitant salaries in upper grade posts should be a priority.	Education	2. I understand the proposition for 'rejoicing' the primary school day (RCCT to take place on a Friday) however, this would result in a large number of staff losing their jobs. Teachers are also preparing to be balloted to further reduce class contact time - how will this be covered? Will the teachers who have lost their jobs be reinstated, thus replacing the financial burden on council funds? There is a current job crisis within education, including recently qualified probationers who still do not have stable work - is this likely to make it worse?	Education	2. The wording of it concerns me - it is unclear / misleading about what it entails and looks to suggest a significant reduction in teaching / teacher contact time in primary schools. I strongly oppose this. Our children need to be taught a proper curriculum and by qualified teachers in order that they can reach their potential for their future and for ours as a society. Primary school is not day care - it should be setting our children up for their future. We cannot and must not let them down. Everything else should be considered and exhausted before we look to do something which would negatively impact on children's learning and learning opportunities for the school of education. A lot of saving in this compared with other options. An alignment of school day impacts on the context of each secondary school and its local needs. WLC need to look at providing appropriate support for pupils with ASN in mainstream schools. Inclusion is now becoming the exclusion of mainstream pupils, with teachers attention taken over by trying to regulate pupils with severe needs who are not being supported properly in a mainstream setting. The pressure put on school staff is leading to more absences, and the council therefore has to pay a sick wage and a supply wage. If pupils had access to smaller settings, tailored to their needs with appropriate support, teachers will not be going off sick as often. I am all for this. Reducing teacher contact is not a suitable way of achieving savings, when you are a parent and look at the already struggling education service, its disappointing that this is considered appropriate, when ASN kids use up teacher time and then the kids who are 'managing and achieving the expected' are not being challenged and encouraged to progress.. - just to achieve a basic attainment score. I therefore have to assume that this means reducing teaching time for pupils and changing primary schools into daycare settings instead of education settings, under the guise of play. Yes, if school roles fall, efficiencies in facilities and staffing, should reflect this but do not dumb - down on education provision and teacher hours for the children we do have in West Lothian. Instead, invest in nursery and primary education to boost attainment and positive futures for West Lothian citizens. Good schools attract people, tax payers, and the investment is a win win. This is a sneaky way of cutting services. I think the Council needs to stop cutting services to save money and covering it by suggesting it will improve things in the long run. Seriously concerned that tinkering with education provision is regarded as a potential cost saving too. I query some of the projected figures for education services given the massive house building across large areas of West Lothian. However, I have doubts and questions about the changes in Education Services (changes in how primary school education will be delivered and timetables on secondary school). This seems to be the one with highest impact (£.4 million), which gives the impression of major cuts which usually come with a decrease in quality. Education should be top priority and any cuts and changes should be carefully looked at. I can't say yes to this question without having more clarity on the actual changes.	Education	2. However, I strongly object to the cutting of specialist teachers such as art, music and PE as this would significantly impact the quality of education for our children as is their right under the UNCRC. In addition, I believe giving non - specialist mainstream teachers extra responsibilities is adding up to an already heavy workload and is leading to the high rate of burnout and issues with retention. Teachers are among the highest quality trained staff and care must be taken not to overburden them.	Education	2. Section 1c – we have concerns that any move to try and impose consistency in timetabling across secondary schools would negate work that has been done in each school to develop a timetable that works to enable the school to deliver education in the way that best suits that particular community. Reducing what already is the worst education system in Europe to save money is short sighted. The council should be making efficiencies, but the ones listed should have already been in place, or are poorly thought out. There's plenty of talented people who may have retired or can no longer work full - time because of disability. But could on fact help out in the schools, after they have passed their checks. Help cover playtime activities. Help with a reading group. Or if a parent can't take a child on a school trip, there's a stand in. There's many people who have talent that can be passed to other's given the chance. Some children don't have or see grand parents. Or been around people with a disability. I think many more children wouldn't need specialist provision and experience school breakdown in placements if there were teaching assistants employed (which would be massively cheaper). My son isn't awarded this and currently has the inclusion and well - being service involved with the view to go to specialist education - however he would cope in mainstream if TAs (employed at a much lower banding only on term time contracts) were available. I am confused and concerned about the very vague talk of efficiency in the primary school day. What does this mean?? If it means longer break times or more free play I'm fine with this. For the huge saving in comparison to all the other savings illustrated, (more than double), the language is extremely woolly and offers no specific details. The assumption would be that to achieve the proposed savings there would be a requirement to reduce teacher numbers significantly. Great concern around "supervised activities". Does this mean non - teaching staff supervising "structured / outdoor play" breaks. I find it disingenuous and bordering on dishonest for you to word the survey as you have. Whilst any organisation can seek efficiencies this is an attack on schools and standards, with £5. 4 of a circa £7m spend reduction aimed squarely at schools - an area already underfunded and overstretched. I steat of making any sort of case for this (which I suspect you know would be heavily disputed) you are using a catch - all, vanilla phrase about "do you think the council should seek savings "that is designed purely to get unintended buy in. This should be a granular question with a yes / no option for each line in terms of further savings, the suggestion that £5. 4m can be saved from the school budget whilst half that is found from the central council budget is laughable. The sick pay scheme is being exploited by employees and I have seen this first hand by employees round about myself. This is my own personal point of view.	Corporate Policy and Resources	8. 2784	Theme 1: Increase Efficiency and Developing New Ways of Working	1e - Reviewing the range of vehicles used for school transport and use of smaller vehicles where possible.	You mention reducing the size of vehicles used for school transport. Why are so many taxis used to transport children to school? Whilst I understand there is a statutory requirement, maybe the council should investigate ways around this to save substantial monies. Maybe parents should take on this responsibility or contribute to the costs. The total spend on taxi and private hire contracts for 23 / 24 was £6.8m which equates to 1.36 % of the Annual Budget of £496m. Why is everyone paying for transportation of other people's kids? There is also looking at children who receive high rate mobility and have a car - using that car to get their child to school and back. I fully appreciate we need more special needs placements in schools - my own sons have autism, but if a person has that access to high rate mobility and have a car (which many have) then they should be transporting their kids to / from schools themselves. I think it is a waste of money providing transportation to school for some pupils by private car / taxi. Introduce a minimum of 2 children attending the same school in transport, ie remove individual taxis for children who live within a (for example) 2 mile radius of each other going to the same place, unless it is absolutely necessary that they have a taxi to themselves. This could potentially half the cost of individual taxis and escorts, while still providing a safe transport service to and from special schools. Individual transport shouldn't be the norm. Children should apply for their free Young Scot bus pass. This investment by the government should mean that the subsidised buses are not needed but should help generate a better public service for all. Schools should not be paying for taxis to take pupils to school because they live up a country lane. It is parents responsibility to get them to school, or to an appropriate bus stop. Give this responsibility to the parents where it belongs. Also, crossing patrols, especially at lights, seem unnecessary. Cars will stop at red lights and pupils can press the button themselves. No pupil should be walking alone to school if they are too young to be able to cross the road safely themselves. Again, a parental responsibility.	Environment and Sustainability	6. A lot of the points already raised in the previous page look ok, I don't agree with all of them, however, I would say that a lot of the services are already stretched as thin as they can be at the moment anyway. 2980	Theme 1: Increase Efficiency and Developing New Ways of Working	1f - Reviewing contracts for commissioned care services within Children's Services, to align with targeted identified need.	Efficiency savings should be informed by an assessment of need & limit the impact on service delivery / provision particularly to the most vulnerable within the region. Within the examples there is reference to reviewing contracts for commissioned services within children's services. Whilst there is reference that this would be aligned with targeted need, this should be an exercise which is done with caution & robust data. We are aware that many local charities who support children & families are having funding withdrawn. Such an approach is likely to have far reaching consequences at a time when the services required are most in need. It is understandable that statutory services are prioritised, however due to ongoing cuts to these services over a number of years the non - statutory services have been taking up the slack & are needed more than ever. 3008	Theme 1: Increase Efficiency and Developing New Ways of Working	1f - Reviewing contracts for commissioned care services within Children's Services, to align with targeted identified need.	I think that contracts with external services should be reviewed for example with Children's First. I believe more money should be put into the family based care service for kinship and family group decision making to be internal and staff appropriately trained and made permanent. More money into panels for foster carers to reduce the need for external carers. I believe that WLC kinship should be the all the council staff point of contact as opposed to CF to reduce the need. I think a review of the management structure including C & F practice teams should also be considered and their roles as well as what additionally is needed. Not replacing staff that leave and balancing the pressure of services is also vital.	Social Work and Health	6. The respondent suggested an improvement. If the council can't provide essential public services, then what purpose does it serve? Instead of outsourcing to private companies, the focus should be on rebuilding the council's own resources and capacity. It's astonishing that private companies, which operate for profit, are often presented as the "cheaper" option. In reality, this represents a direct transfer of public money into private hands. That money should be reinvested into the community, not extracted from it to fund shareholder dividends.	Environment and Sustainability	7. West Lothian Council already spends a large proportion of its annual budget externally — about £250 million in regulated procurement in 2024–25. Many of these contracts go to a small number of repeat suppliers, such as large IT, facilities - management, and construction firms. Example: Procast Group has a £16 million, four - year retrofit contract and has worked with the council for over 10 years; Softcat plc and other tech providers have multiple long - term IT and licensing contracts. 3801	Theme 1: Increase Efficiency and Developing New Ways of Working	11 - Introducing a facility to reduce waste disposal costs and the need to use a contractor.	Household Waste, fly tipping etc. Not everyone can get to a recycling centre, or afford an uplift which is sure can't be household waste anyway. these small black bins fill fast in larger households, people are putting food waste black bags all over because they have no room in bins, birds then burst them open and kids are also dragging these bags and leaving the mess everywhere, people are actually coming in vans and dropping their rubbish in numerous streets. This rubbish does get removed by some service which is unsure of, however wouldn't it be more cost effective to just have more bins?	Environment and Sustainability	5b. It is proposed that this suggestion is not taken forward because it is likely that the costs of this proposal would outweigh the benefit.

3804	Theme 1: Increase Efficiency and Developing New Ways of Working	11 - Introducing a facility to reduce waste disposal costs and the need to use a contractor.	If the council were to return to the system of non - booking of tip slots and ease the costs of small business vans etc to use the waste sites, I believe that the very high costs that the council must be incurring through the huge increase in fly tipping would be reduced. It is not acceptable to fly tip, no, but the system now is not user friendly, therefore more and more people are.	Environment and Sustainability	5b. It is proposed that this suggestion is not taken forward because it is likely that the costs of this proposal would outweigh the benefit.

3809	Theme 1: Increase Efficiency and Developing New Ways of Working	1i - Introducing a facility to reduce waste disposal costs and the need to use a contractor.	In my opinion, I didnt agree with the brown bin permit. However i got used to it but i dont think the cost should go up again. Still on that subject i feel that people that get their grass cut by the council should still pay for a brown bin permit. I dont think the council should be taking it away for them. This isnt me being hard on disabled people as i to get ADP due to my health problems. I think if i was having my grass cut i would still be willing to pay for my permit. I feel there must be alot of money that could be saved by those that dont pay. It isnt fair on everyone else that finds the money even when we struggle to pay.	Environment and Sustainability	5c. It is proposed that this suggestion is not taken forward because it is not consistent with the council's values and priorities.

3812	Theme 1: Increase Efficiency and Developing New Ways of Working	1i - Introducing a facility to reduce waste disposal costs and the need to use a contractor.	Get rid of the booking system for recycling! If you want people to bring ID to show they live in West Lothian do that but there appears to be more fly tipping than ever! Not cost effective if the council have to pick up dumped rubbish everywhere! Suggest your leadership team look into lean methodology such as Lean Six Sigma instead of implementing ridiculous time consuming booking systems to get a slot to recycle rubbish!	Environment and Sustainability	5d. It is proposed that this suggestion is not taken forward because it has been previously considered and will not be progressed.
3813	Theme 1: Increase Efficiency and Developing New Ways of Working	1i - Introducing a facility to reduce waste disposal costs and the need to use a contractor. 3814	Theme 1: Increase Efficiency and Developing New Ways of Working	1i - Introducing a facility to reduce waste disposal costs and the need to use a contractor.	Yeah i actually do have a suggestion..... in terms of the waste disposal and use of contractors.... I had previously thought that the bulky uplift service isn 't as inclusive as it could be and doesn 't cover all items needing disposed of and with the size of black bins reducing etc a lot of people have a need to use the recycling centers but they dont drive.... If you could create a service that would rival the man with a van guys ripping people off with the same staff and vehicles which sort out the bulky uplifts to add in tip runs for people in need who cannot get to these places, you could actually make some money in the process of trying to solve other budget cuts elsewhere....	Environment and Sustainability	6. The respondent suggested an improvement. Officers will consider how this could be developed.
3815	Theme 1: Increase Efficiency and Developing New Ways of Working	1i - Introducing a facility to reduce waste disposal costs and the need to use a contractor.	Partner with better recycling companies to segregate waste and sell.	Environment and Sustainability	6. The respondent suggested an improvement. Officers will consider how this could be developed.

The respondent suggested an improvement. Officers will consider how this could be developed.
3817	Theme 1: Increase Efficiency and Developing New Ways of Working	1i - Introducing a facility to reduce waste disposal costs and the need to use a contractor.	With regards to bin collection I think you could reduce the grey bin collection to once a month in line with recycling collection and paper collection.	Environment and Sustainability	6. The respondent suggested an improvement. Officers will consider how this could be developed.
3818	Theme 1: Increase Efficiency and Developing New Ways of Working	1i - Introducing a facility to reduce waste disposal costs and the need to use a contractor. The respondent suggested an improvement. Officers will consider how this could be developed.
3820	Theme 1: Increase Efficiency and Developing New Ways of Working	1i - Introducing a facility to reduce waste disposal costs and the need to use a contractor.	The proposed measures sound reasonable in principle as long as savings do not mean further cost later on. In Waste Services some potential measures could be: Reducing contamination in the recycling bins which will attract lower gate fee for Material Recovery Facility (MRF) and / or reprocessors. This cannot be done without investment (spend to save) as it will require more personnel to check bins and engage with customer to change their behaviour in order to avoid future contamination. In the current scenario, the council will avoid further cost in the future if the council will have the ability to bulk mixed food and garden waste. This requires investment as it will need a new facility or an upgrade to existing ones.	Environment and Sustainability	6. The respondent suggested an improvement. Officers will consider how this could be developed.
3821	Theme 1: Increase Efficiency and Developing New Ways of Working	1i - Introducing a facility to reduce waste disposal costs and the need to use a contractor. 3822	Theme 1: Increase Efficiency and Developing New Ways of Working	1i - Introducing a facility to reduce waste disposal costs and the need to use a contractor.	How do you propose to save on waste disposal costs as mentioned, , an 't gonna happen,, you need to get rid of residual waste (household) and recycling. Blue and green bins, not forgetting the brown,, this is before you start to issue a glass bin to all residents as per zero waste scotland target 's set, (glass recycling will come on to force, no if, s no but, s,, this service is fully funded by the government and costs minimal to council budget.. 3846	Theme 1: Increase Efficiency and Developing New Ways of Working	1j - Bringing together teams to focus on Transformation and Business Support.	I think the council should look at the way it provides services, the most important thing is helping people who need it the most. If Services are more focused on back office tasks than they are on the front line, the service won't work. I would look at removing teams that deal only with performance, improvement, and reporting and empower front line officers and managers to do this themselves.
